Introduction

It should be understood at the outset that no evidence or clue has been found which would enable us to determine the origin of William Russell, fisherman, who appeared at Salem, Massachusetts, in 1673, then about 26 years old and unmarried. All the circumstances of his early life in Essex County suggest that he was an original colonist, that he came alone to America, and that he had no close relatives at Salem. The very complete and well preserved records of Salem and Essex County do not reveal that he was ever associated with any person identified as a kinsman. In none of the earlier Essex County Russell families was there a son William born about 1647 who can be identified with William of Salem.

Until and unless new information is brought to light, we can only conjecture that he may have come from an English coastal area or one of the Channel Islands, and that he probably derived from a family of yeomen and/or fishermen. Uneducated and illiterate, he may have spent his youth and early manhood as an indentured servant in Essex County. The property, social connections, and status which William Russell eventually achieved were the results of his manual labors, first at sea and later on his small farmstead. From very meager beginnings he gradually built up an estate, became a supporter of the church, and a respected citizen who took his small part in the civil affairs of his village.

Many of his descendants assisted in the gathering of records for this genealogy. Most of the data concerning the recent generations were collected in the 1950s, and no special effort has been made to update the records for this publication. Though records of the families and descendants of many of the married Russell daughters have been obtained, they are not included in this book, which - in the interest of reducing expense and permitting early publication - is limited in scope to families bearing the Russell surname.

Except for one branch of the family which migrated to the southwest into Luzerne (now Bradford) County, Pennsylvania, and several families which migrated northward into New Brunswick and Canada, most of the descendants of William Russell of Salem are found in New Hampshire and Vermont, in Connecticut, and in New York, from which families migrated westward through Ohio into the north-central states and westward.

The compiler continues to be interested in pre-1850 American Russell genealogy, and welcomes correspondence and research findings. No attempt will be made to keep track of current vital statistics in the various branches of the family.

William Russell - the progenitor

WILLIAM[1] RUSSELL was born in about 1647[1] and was first mentioned at Salem, Essex County, Massachusetts, on 20 January 1673/4[3] when Michael Shaflin[2] executed the following deed of gift:

To all people to whom these presents shall come, Michaell Shaflin of Salem, in the County of Essex, in New England, tailor, sendeth greeting: know ye that I the s^{d} Michaell Shaflin, for divers good causes & considerations me thereunto moving, with severall conditions & provisions hereafter expressed, & for that good will & afection I beare & have unto William Russell of the same place, fisherman: have given & granted & by these presents doe freely, clearely & absolutely give, grant & confirme, unto the s^{d} Wm. Russell, a certaine parcell of land, containing by estimation betweene one or two acres, be it more or less, as it lyes bounded & is lying to the west end of the land belonging or adjoyning to my now dwelling & is bounded, or is the strip or parcell of land lying betweene the highwaye & the brooke ... provided & it is understoood, & it is conditioned as the true intent & meaning of these presents, first that the s^{d} William Russell ... shal upon his ... owne cost & charges, sett up or make & maintaine forever, a sufficient stone wall fence for a partition fence between the land of me the s^{d} Shaflin & the premises from the highwaye downe to the river or brooke, secondly: the s^{d} William Russell is not to lett or hire it, to any other person or persons, provided I the s^{d} Michaell Shaflin ... will buy it, whoe are hereby to have the first refusall thereof, whenever the s^{d} William Russell ... shall sell the same; & thirdly, that in case the s^{d} Russell ... should in time to come sell the same to me the s^{d} Michaell Shaflin ... that it is to be understood & it is conditioned and agreed upon, that the stone wall afores^{d} is not to be included in the value of the s^{d} land, or house & land, but the s^{d} Shaflin or assignees paying for the s^{d} land, according to the due value thereof, or as any other will give (without the stone wall), the s^{d} stone wall is to be to the use & behoofe of the said Shaflin & his assignees forever, free & cleere. In witness whereof I the s^{d} Michaell Shaflin have sett to my hand & seale, this twentieth day of January in the yeare of our Lord God, one thousand, six hundred, seventy & three ....

The unusual language of this deed, which may be described as a deed of gift rather than a routine sale, rather definitely suggests that there was some relationship between Michael Shaflin and William Russell. Whether it was kinship or simply friendship we do not now know, but we do speculate that this deed may provide one of the few clues to the origin of William Russell. Because Shaflin and Russell had quite different occupations, Russell can not have been an employee of Shaflin. Shaflin was then about 68 years old and had been in Salem for 38 years, while Russell was about 26 years old and probably a newcomer to Salem.

One year later William Russell purchased additional land with a dwelling house near the Shaflin homestead.[4]

This indenture made the thirteenth of February, Anno: 1674, betweene Thomas Burtt of Salem, in the County of Essex, & Mary his wife of the one p^{t}. & William Russell of the same towne & county of the other p^{t}. witnesseth, that the s^{d} Thomas Burtt, with the consent of Mary his wife, for & in consideration of the just sume of twenty pounds sterling (& a house of the same bigness built) to th^{m} in hand paid at the sealing & delivery of these presents ... have given ... unto the s^{d} William Russell ... a certain parcell of land containing four acres & a house, scittuat, lying & being in the bounds of Salem afores^{d}, being p^{t} of the land of the Widdow Southwick, w^{ch} John Southwick gave to his daughter Mary, being bounded easterly with the land of Thomas Cooper & southerly with the highwaye, & westerly with the land of Thomas Cooper, & northerly with the land of Robert Stone ....

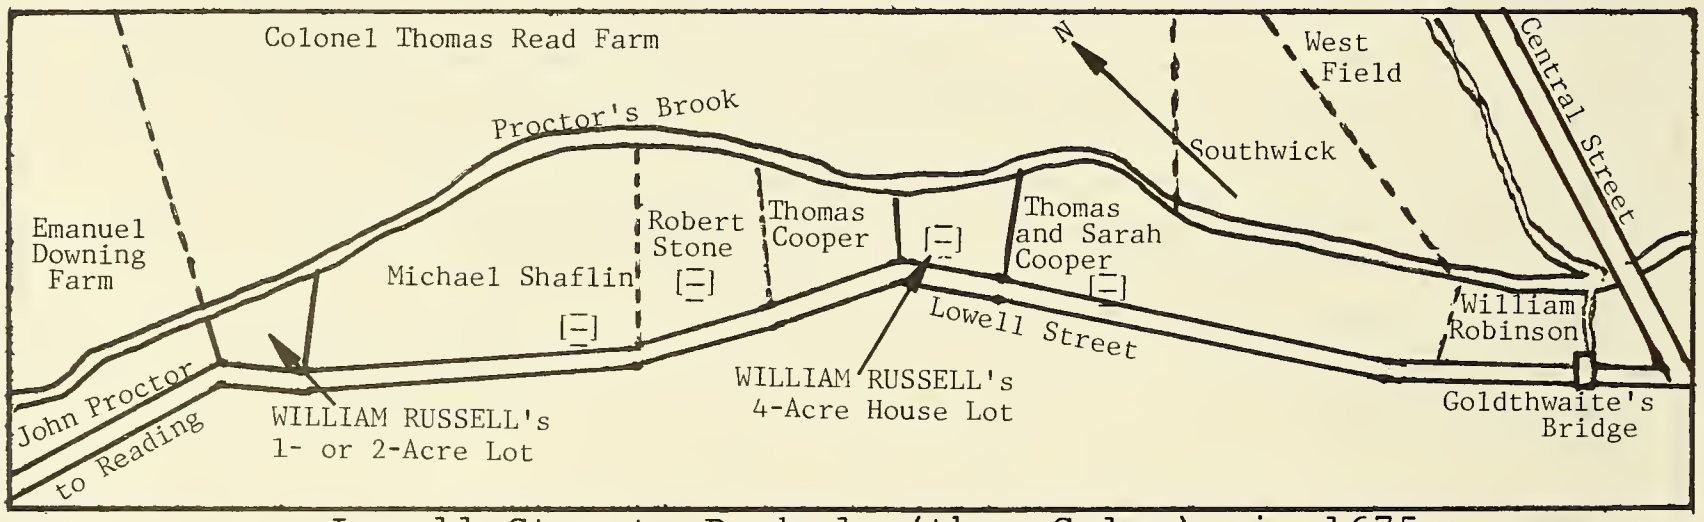
As indicated on the map below,[5] these two lots were in that part of Salem which is now Peabody. Known as Goodman Goldthwaite's Ward in the Middle Precinct of Salem when William Russell lived there, the area became part of Danvers in 1752. His neighbors to the east were Thomas Cooper and wife Sarah (widow of John Southwick). To the west lived Robert and Sarah (Shaflin) Stone on land owned by her father Michael Shaflin.



Lowell Street, Peabody (then Salem), in 1675

William Russell was a fisherman employed on Salem vessels. Among his friends was Elias Whittee, a fisherman employed by Russell's neighbor Robert Stone (son-in-law of the tailor Michael Shaflin). Whittee was drowned at Winter Island from an overloaded boat carrying fish ashore. The inventory of his estate, taken 20 July 1675, included his debt to William Russell of £1.10.0. The list of Whittee's personal possessions is given below to suggest the circumstances of a young unmarried fisherman of this period.[6]

One hatt, one caster hat, 4 yds. broad cloth, 12 yds. narrow cotton, 4 pr. shoes, 2 coates & 2 pr. of britches, 2 waistcoats, 3 old pr. drawers, a parcell of old cloaths, 2 shirts & 4 neckcloth, 1 pr. gloves, 1 gunn, 1 chest &

a rayser, 1 line & hooks, one horse & a sadle, and mony Robt. Stone owes him. Total £11.9.11. Charges for his burien, £3.4.0; washing & lodging last winter and diet for five months, £4; for last summer, £1; mony lent him p Wm. Russell, £1.10. Total debts £9.14.0.

By deed dated 16 November 1677 Mary Ropes, widow and administratrix of George Ropes, deceased, sold for £20 a 20-acre parcel in Salem to William Russell and Thomas Greene.[7] The parcel was bounded on the east by land of Thomas Verry and north by land of Robert Wilson, and had originally been granted to George Ropes by the town of Salem. Agreeing to the sale were Mary Ropes' sons John, William, and Samuel Ropes, and her son-in-law John Homan.[8]

William Russell was among the residents of Goodman George Goldthwaite's Ward ordered on 25 March 1678/9 to appear at Salem Court to take the oath of allegiance.[9] As a freeman he became entitled to the rights and privileges of a permanent citizen of the town and colony. He then owned three parcels of land totaling about fifteen acres and a fairly new dwelling house on the highway from Salem to Reading, and was employed on Salem fishing vessels working the Grand Bank.

In 1678 on the 25th day of the eighth month [October, Old Style] William Russell and Elizabeth Nurse were married at Salem,[10] probably at her parents' new home in present Tapleyville, Danvers, the location of which is indicated as house number 95 on the Map of Salem Village, 1692. Elizabeth's father Francis Nurse, traymaker and yeoman, came to Salem in 1640 and married Rebecca, daughter of William and Joanna (Blessing) Towne from Yarmouth, Norfolk. (See Appendix A - Nurse and Towne Families.) By this marriage William Russell became allied with the Preston, Bowden, Tarbell, Estey, Cloyes, and Bridges families of Essex County.

In 1682 William Russell was employed by Philip English, wealthy Salem merchant and shipowner who sponsored the emigration of many young men and women from the Channel Islands to Salem. Russell was shipped on a fishing voyage by his master English, being employed on the ketch Prosperous, Thomas Jegells, Jr., captain. On 30 June 1682 Jegells and others of the ship's company complained at Salem Court, charging Russell with swearing and threatening Jegell's life. He was found guilty, sentenced to be severely whipped, bound over to good behavior, and ordered to be kept in irons until the master and others should come to court and declare themselves satisfied.[11]

On 18 December 1682 William Russell, aged about 35 years, testified in the case of John Pudney, Jr. (convicted of hog stealing). Elizabeth Russell was mentioned in the testimony; she had had a conversation with John Pudney, Sr., at the house of Thomas Bovington in that month.[1] (The Buffingtons were neighbors of the Russells; their dwelling is number 145 on the 1692 map.)

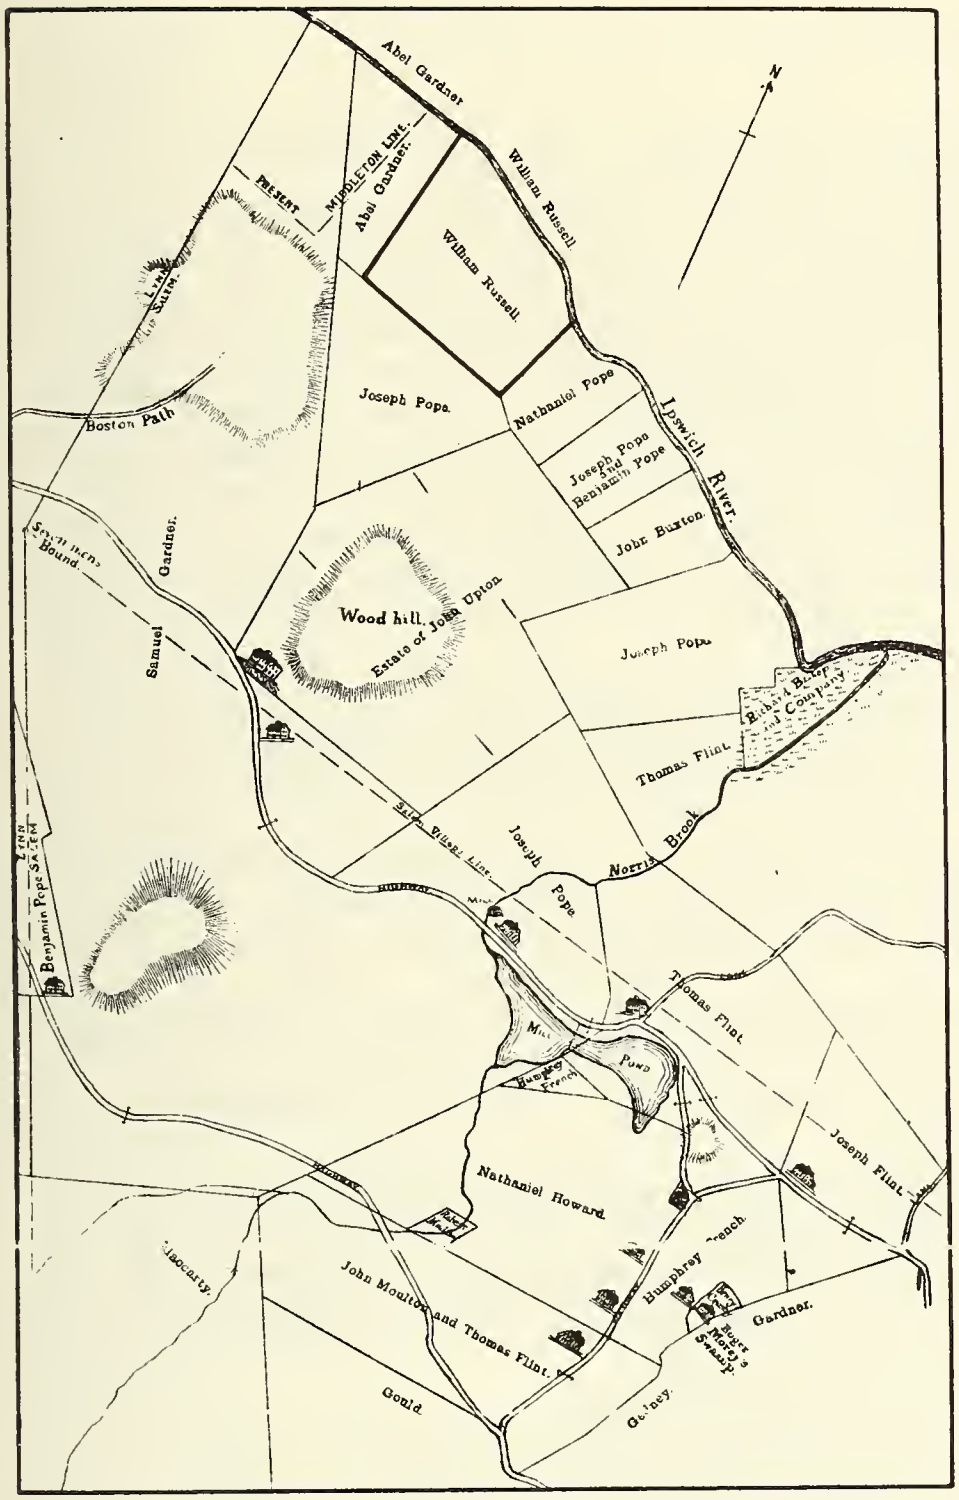
By deed dated 13 October 1685 William Russell of Salem, fisherman, sold all of his Salem property to Joseph Orne of Salem. The property was described as: the four-acre parcel with dwelling house (bounded east by Thomas Cooper and north by Robert Stone), the one- or two-acre parcel lying to the west end of land belonging to Goodman Shaflin (bounded west by John Proctor), and his half of the twenty-acre parcel bought in partnership with Thomas Greene. He signed the deed by mark "W" and acknowledged it when it was recorded 4 January 1685/6. His wife Elizabeth signed a statement 11 November 1686 relinquishing her one-third dower rights.[12]

In 1685 the family moved a few miles away to the town of Reading, Middlesex County, living in that part which was later established as North Reading.[13] The birth of their third child was recorded at Reading in 1688. In 1692 Elizabeth Russell's mother and two of her aunts and William's former employer Philip English and his wife were accused of practicing witchcraft. Rebecca (Towne) Nurse was convicted and executed (on Gallows Hill, point lettered "W" on the 1692 map).[14]

By deed dated 21 November 1694 Abel Gardner of Salem sold a 110-acre parcel in Salem to William Russell of Reading. The land lay on both sides of the Ipswich River and was bounded on the south by John Robinson and Richard Hollingsworth, on the east by Richard Hollingsworth, Joseph Pope, and land formerly belonging to John Sampson, on the north by the town common and Ensign Thomas Flint, and on the west by Abel Gardner.[15] The location of this farm is shown on the map on the following page; it was in Salem Village (later called Danvers).

William Russell and his wife Elizabeth were mentioned in her father's will dated 4 December 1694 at Salem Village, and William was appointed one of the sureties on the administrator's bond 23 December 1695.[16]

Still of Reading, on 27 February 1696/7 William Russell, yeoman, purchased land in Lynn from Josiah Southwick and land from Samuel



A Part of Salem Village in 1700

Paris.[17] In 1699 and 1700 William Russell was seated in the Salem Village meeting house in the third seat before the pulpit.[18] In the period 1703-1713 he paid taxes for the support of the Salem Village minister; in 1713 his tax was the eighth highest in the village.[19] At the town meeting 24 March 1706/7 he was elected one of five members of the town committee for 1707;[20] and in 1707 he was a signer of the minister's rate report.[21]

By deed dated 15 January 1715 his son William granted to him a four-pole-wide right-of-way from his land in Salem Village through his son's land to the highway.[22] On the same day he deeded about three acres at North Reading to his son William.[23] In a deed dated 18 February 1715 his land at Salem was mentioned as being on the down-river side of the Ipswich River adjoining that of his son William, Jr.[24]

On 3 January 1720/21 William and his wife Elizabeth were listed as members in full communion of the Second Church at Reading, though living at South Village (present Peabody) and attending the church at Lynnfield, not yet having been dismissed from the Reading church.[25] By transfer from the Reading church they were received into the Salem church 4 April 1725.[26]

William Russell made his will at Salem 11 January 1731/2. He bequeathed twelve pence each to the five [unnamed] children of his late son William Russell, deceased, and to the four [unnamed] children of his late son Jonathan Russell, deceased. To his son Benjamin Russell he bequeathed an iron chain and an iron spit. He gave two draft chains and cartwheel hoops to his son Ebenezer Russell. He left all the rest of his movable estate to his wife Elizabeth with the provision that upon her death one quarter of it should go to their son Benjamin and three quarters to son Ebenezer, whom he appointed co-executors. He signed his will by mark and it was witnessed by Joseph Swallow and Jonathan and Joseph Upton.[27] See the preceding page for a facsimile of the will.

William Russell having died, on 22 December 1733 his widow Elizabeth Russell signed a statement agreeing to the will, witnessed by Joseph Upton and Bartholomew Buxton, and the will was probated 24 December 1733 at Ipswich Court. At Salem on 28 February 1733/4 his heirs signed an agreement regarding the division of William's property. By this agreement his widow gave up her one-third dower right and inherited real estate to her son Benjamin and son Jonathan's widow Hannah Russell, in return for which they agreed to support her for the remainder of her life. Elizabeth, Benjamin, and Hannah Russell each signed the agreement by mark, and it was witnessed by Thomas Flint and Susannah Russell.[27] See the following page for a facsimile of this agreement.

In September 1710 the children of the executed witches petitioned for reversal of the attainder and restitution for the sufferings and wrongful deaths of their parents. Samuel Nurse represented the children of Rebecca (Towne) Nurse, and on 17 December 1711 the Governor ordered £25 damages be paid to them. William Russell and the other children or their spouses authorized Samuel Nurse to receive their payment, and on 19 February 1711/12 Elizabeth Russell signed receipt for her share.[14]

INVENTORY OF PERSONAL ESTATE OF WILLIAM RUSSELL, JR.

Second Generation

1. WILLIAM[2] RUSSELL, JR. was born at Salem, Mass., 22 October 1680, eldest son of William and Elizabeth (Nurse) Russell.[28] He was seated in the Salem Village [later Danvers] meeting house 1699-1700.[18] Of Salem Village he was married at Woburn, Mass., 25 January 1703[/4] to Ruth Richardson of Woburn.[30] She was born at Woburn 31 August 1673, daughter of Theophilus and Mary (Champney) Richardson.[30] She was dead before 1707 in which year William had wife Martha (said to have been a Nurse) in May 1708.[28] William was taxed for the support of the Salem Village minister 1706-1713.[19]

   By deed dated 15 January 1714/15 he was deeded 15 acres at Reading by his father.[31] He and wife Martha sold this land to Ebenezer Flint of Lynn by deed dated 23 February 1714/15.[31] On 15 January 1715 he deeded to his father a four-pole-wide right-of-way through his property from his father's land to the highway, and on 9 June 1715 he confirmed the deed and it was recorded.[22] By deed dated 18 February 1715 William Russell, Jr., of Salem, forgeman and iron-worker, and his wife Martha sold their 37-acre homestead and dwelling on both sides of the Ipswich River in Salem (bounded on the down-river side by land of William Russell, Sr.) to Henry Buxton.[32] The location of this land is shown on the map on page 7.

   William is said to have lost heavily in speculation in iron works. He died shortly before 22 January 1717/18 when his estate was inventoried by Ezekial and Joseph Upton and Thomas Fuller. The total appraisal of his personal estate was only £24.4.9, including "Iron works - with the stake, £5."[33] A facsimile of the inventory is shown on the opposite page. At the court on 27 January 1717/18 his widow Martha Russell swore to the inventory and was appointed administratrix, with Ezekiel Upton and Thomas Fuller as sureties, all of Salem. On 5 February 1717/18 Captain Jonathan Putnam and Ensign Thomas Flint were appointed to examine the many claims of creditors against William's insolvent estate; they reported on 31 December 1718, listing thirteen persons to whom he had owed money.[33] A facsimile of the list is shown on the following page.

   It appears that William's widow Martha moved with her young children to Woburn, Mass., and that she was the Martha Russell of Woburn who married William Stedman of Medford on 28 March 1721,[34] and had daughter Hannah Stedman born at Medford on 19 November 1721,[35] after which the Stedmans apparently moved away.

   The will of William Russell, Sr., dated 11 January 1731[/2], bequeathed twelve pence each to the five [unnamed] children of his late son William Russell, deceased.[27] Because he did not name the children and because William, Jr., died intestate, we must conjecture as to the identities of the four children whose birth records are not found. With the understanding that the following list is subject to confirmation or change, I suggest that the five children of William Russell, Jr., were:[36]

2. JONATHAN[2] RUSSELL was born at Salem, Mass., 19 August 1682, second son of William and Elizabeth (Nurse) Russell.[28] Of Salem he was married there to Hannah Estey of Salem on 10 April 1718.[38] She was baptized at Topsfield, Mass., 24 December 1693, a daughter of John and Mary (Dorman) Estey.[39] They lived in that part of Salem called Salem Village (later named Danvers), where Jonathan was a husbandman. Mr. Jonathan Russell was elected one of the surveyors of highways for the second parish at Salem Village meeting.[40]

Jonathan died at Salem between 19 October 1729 and 12 January 1729/30, on which latter date Isaac Wilkins and Daniel Wilkins, Jr., of Middleton were appointed to take inventory of his estate. On the following day Lieut. Thomas Fuller and David Richardson were appointed appraisors of the estate. The inventory was taken on 16 January 1729/30 and filed on 6 February 1729/30, the total value of his real estate being £350.[41] See facsimile of the inventory on the next page.

The will of William Russell, Sr., dated 11 January 1731, bequeathed twelve pence each to the four children of his son Jonathan Russell, deceased.[27] On 27 October 1733 Susannah Russell, a minor, chose her mother Hannah Russell as her guardian, witnessed by Thomas and Elisha Flint. On 29 October 1733 Hannah Russell was appointed guardian of her minor children John, Jonathan, Hannah, and Susannah, the document being signed by Benjamin Russell of Salem [their uncle] and Daniel Wilkins of Middleton.[42]

By agreement dated at Salem 28 February 1733/4 the widow Hannah Russell and her brother-in-law Benjamin Russell agreed to support his mother Elizabeth Russell for the remainder of her life in exchange for her dower rights and real estate inherited from William Russell, Sr.[27]

3. EBENEZER[2] RUSSELL was born at Reading, Mass., 7 March 1688, third son of William and Elizabeth (Nurse) Russell.[29] In 1709 he paid tax for the support of the Salem Village (Danvers) Church.[43] His intention to marry was published at Andover, Mass., 14 June 1710, and on 25 September 1710 he and Deborah Hibbard were married at Andover.[44] She was born at Beverly, Mass., 19 July 1685, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Bond) Hibbard.[45]

Though Ebenezer paid Salem Village Church tax in 1718,[46] it appears that they lived in North Reading until as late as 1738. The births of their children were recorded at Reading 1712-1730. In 1720 he was a tax payer in the Reading Second Church precinct.[47] By his father's will dated 24 December 1733 Ebenezer was to inherit two draft chains and cartwheel hoops, was appointed co-executor and was to receive three-quarters of the real estate upon the death of his mother.[27]

By deed dated 11 June 1734 Daniel Eaton, Jr., and wife Hannah of Windsor, Conn., sold land in Ellington Parish, Windsor, to Ebenezer Russell, Sr., of Reading, Mass., yeoman, for £40. The land was described as "one certain piece or parcell of land lying in said Windsor, on the east side of the Great [Connecticut] River, being the lott of land laid out to the heirs of Jacob Gibbs of Windsor in the mile and half mile division, as the same is butted and bounded north on land laid out in said division to Josiah Phelps, Jr., east and west on the highway, and south on John Fyler in width thirty rods and a half."[48] Though Ebenezer did not immediately move to Ellington, his son Samuel was there in 1734. On 24 July 1738 Ebenezer, still of Reading, purchased more land at Ellington from Daniel Eaton of Windsor.[49]

Between 24 July 1738 and 3 April 1739 Ebenezer, his wife Deborah, and their younger children moved to Ellington Parish. By deed dated 3 April 1739 James Nichols of Windsor sold land in Ellington Parish to Ebenezer Russell, late of Reading, Mass., now resident of Windsor.[50] Of Windsor he sold land there to his son Ebenezer, Jr., of Salem, by deed dated 1 September 1740.[51] On 24 June 1741 he deeded land in Ellington Parish to his son William of Windsor.[52] In 1752 he was taxed for land in Ellington Parish.[53] By deed dated 15 January 1753 Ebenezer Russell of Windsor sold land in Ellington Society, Windsor, to his youngest son Ellis Russell.[54] On 14 July 1738, Ebenezer Russell of Reading sold land in East Windsor to his son Ebenezer, Jr., of Salem.[55]

Ebenezer Russell died at Ellington Parish, Windsor, Conn., between 15 September 1761 and 12 February 1762. His will is as follows:[56]

In the name of God, Amen, this fifteen day of September, Anno Dominis 1761 - I Ebenezer Russell of Windsor, being infirm of body but of disposing memory, do make and ordain this my last will and testament. Imprimis, I resign my soul to God ... and my wordly estate I give and bequeath the same as followeth, my will is that my just debts and funeral expenses be first paid out of my estate by my Executor. Item, I give to my loving wife Deborah all moveables in the house to be at her dispose. Item, I give to my son Ellis Russell all my real and personal estate, viz. house, barn, and land, and out door moveables, he to maintain my loving wife Deborah so long as she shall remain my widow; he also to pay out to my sons Ebenezer Russell, Samuel Russell, Nathan Russell, and to my daughter Deborah Macintire, and to my grandson William Russell to each of them ten shillings lawfull money only, except my son Nathan Russell whom I give besides the ten shillings my horse bridle and saddle. I nominate and appoint my son Ellis Russell Executor of this my last will and testament. In testimony hereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the fifteenth day of September Anno Domini 1761. Signed, sealed, published, and declared to be my last will and testament.

4. BENJAMIN[2] RUSSELL was born at Reading, Mass., in about 1691, the youngest son of William and Elizabeth (Nurse) Russell.[27] He had reached age 21 by 1712, and was taxed at Salem Village (Danvers) for the support of the minister 1712-1718.[19] He and Sarah Elson were married at Salem on 18 June 1714.[58] She was born there 7 October 1692, a daughter of Samuel and Mary Elson.[59] Benjamin and Sarah had children baptized at the Salem South (Peabody) Church 1721-1738.[28]

Benjamin was a husbandman. He was appointed co-executor by his father's will dated 11 January 1731 at Salem.[27] Of Salem, he and Daniel Wilkins of Middleton signed a request for appointment of a guardian for his late brother Jonathan Russell's minor children, for whom a guardian was appointed at Salem Court 29 October 1733.[42] By an agreement dated 28 February 1733/4 he and his sister-in-law Hannah Russell (widow of Jonathan) agreed to support his mother Elizabeth Russell for the remainder of her life in exchange for her dower share in the estate of her husband William Russell, Sr.[27]

By deed dated 21 March 1765 he sold land to his son Benjamin, Jr.[60] He, or his son of the same name, was appointed administrator of the estate of Samuel Flint of Middleton 3 April 1769.[61]

No record is found of the deaths or probates of Benjamin or Sarah Russell in Essex County, and there were no other grantor deeds from him in Essex County 1729-1765.

6. WILLIAM[3] RUSSELL was probably born at Salem Village [Danvers], Mass., between 13 May 1706 and 12 May 1707 (according to the age inscribed on his gravestone).[64] He was probably son of William, Jr., and Martha (?Nurse) Russell.[36,65] At Andover, Mass., on 7 February 1731/2 he married Sarah Emery,[44] daughter of Joseph Emery of Andover.[66] William Russell died at Somers, Conn., 12 May 1776 in his 70th year, according to his gravestone in Enfield Street Cemetery at Somers.[64] His widow Sarah died at Somers 7 February 1805 in her 95th year, and was buried with William.[64]

By deed dated 2 November 1731 William Russell of Andover, a tailor, paid £255 to [his kinsman] Edmund Faulkner of Salem Village for a dwelling house, orchard and mowing land of about two acres, plus another parcel of two acres in Andover, bounded by Samuel Osgood and Benjamin Barker, and originally purchased by Faulkner from his brother Ammi-Ruhammah Faulkner.[67] On 21 March 1736 John Barnard of Andover gave a receipt to William Russell "for discharge of what was overdue to me from him ... except the making a piece of wall at my pasture below said Russell's house, which I acknowledge he has since made to my satisfaction."[68] By deed dated 26 June 1741 William Russell of Andover, tailor, purchased from Joseph and Mary Cooley of Somers, Conn., 100 acres with a dwelling house at Somers, bounded east by Samuel Rockwood, west by Benjamin Thomas, and south and north by Joseph Cooley.[69]

The family moved from Andover to Somers in 1741. At Somers on 25 September 1741 William and Sarah Russell witnessed a deed from Joseph to George Cooley.[70] By town grant dated 4 November 1745 William Russell was granted 20 acres and 140 rods of common right land in Somers on the condition that he satisfy the commoners committee; these conditions were fulfilled and the land was surveyed and laid out for him, bounded on the north by the 100-acre parcel which he purchased from the Cooleys in 1741.[71] By quit claim deed dated 19 November 1745 William Russell, tailor, and his wife Sarah relinquished to her brother Joseph Emery her share in the real estate at Andover of her father Joseph Emery, deceased, and acknowledged receipt of £325 as her share in the Emery estate.[66]

William Russell died intestate and his son John Russell was appointed administrator on 22 May 1776.[72] By deed dated 8 July 1776 his son John Russell paid £40 to his siblings for the 55-acre farm on which their father had lived. His siblings were identified as William, Gideon, Emery, and Mary Russell of Somers; Elizabeth Russell, wife of Josiah Hall, Jr., of Somers; Sarah Russell, wife of Samuel King of Monson, Mass.; and Hannah Russell, wife of Eleazer Collings of Lebanon, Conn. The land adjoined land which on the same day Emery Russell sold to John Noah Cooley, Gideon and William Russell, and John Fuller. The witnesses were Emery Pease, Joseph Fuller, Ephraim Robertson, and David White.[73]

8. JOSEPH[3] RUSSELL was probably born about 1710 of as yet undetermined parentage. Other than his residence in Medford, Mass., there is no evidence that he was among the unnamed children of William, Jr., and Martha (Nurse) Russell of Salem Village, Mass. Of Medford he married Mary Williams of Ipswich, Mass., at Ipswich 29 December 1731.[74] They had children baptized at the Medford First Parish Unitarian Church 1735-1738, after which they appear to have settled permanently at Newbury, Mass., where they may have been members of the Old South First Presbyterian Church at Newburyport. He may be the Joseph Russell who was buried at Newbury 28 May 1795.[75]

12. JONATHAN[3] RUSSELL, JR. was born at Salem, Mass., 7 February 1724/5, oldest son of Jonathan and Hannah (Estey) Russell.[28] On 29 October 1733 his mother was appointed his guardian, he being about ten years old.[42] He was married at Middleton, Mass., 14 February 1745 to Hannah Flint of Middleton.[79] She was born at Middleton 3 December 1727, daughter of Stephen and Hannah (Moulton) Flint,[79] and was living as late as 1777.[80] They had children baptized at Danvers, Mass., in the period 1749-1758 and appear to have been members of the Danvers Second Parish First Congregational Church.[81]

Jonathan Russell was elected Danvers Second Parish highway surveyor 4 March 1752.[82] The will of Stephen Flint, dated 21 April 1752, mentioned wife Hannah and son-in-law Jonathan Russell.[83] By deed dated 1 December 1762 his brother John Russell released to Jonathan two parcels of land in Danvers, one of which had been their father's, the other bounded in part by land of Benjamin Russell.[84] Of Danvers, by deed dated 20 March 1765, Jonathan purchased his brother John's undivided share of 10 acres, bounded in part by John Flint and Benjamin Russell.[85] By deed dated 30 March 1767, he and son Jonathan, Jr., bought about 100 acres in Danvers from Jacob Goodell, bounded in part by Asa Upton. Paul Upton, and Samuel Osborne.[86] By deed dated 6 April 1767, with wife Hannah, he, of Danvers, sold land with buildings on the south side of the Ipswich River to Benjamin Russell, Jr., and John Flint, the land being that which John Russell released to him in 1762.[87] (For its location, see the map on page 7.)

According to an accounting of the estate of Samuel Flint dated 2 April 1770, Flint owed money to Jonathan Russell.[88] Jonathan was appointed guardian of Hannah Flint, age 15, daughter of the late Samuel Flint and his widow Mary of Middleton, 3 April 1769.[88] On 6 March 1770 he took into his home one John Chisle, age 14, from London, England, via Boston and Lynn.[82] By deed dated 20 April 1772 he and wife Hannah of Danvers sold land for £30 to Benjamin Russell, Jr., bounded in part by Benjamin Russell.[89] The deed was witnessed by his sons Daniel and Eli Russell.[89] By deed dated 25 April 1774, he and wife Hannah and son Jonathan, Jr., and his wife Huldah sold for £100 100 acres in Danvers to Nathaniel Haywood, it being the land purchased from Goodell in 1767.[90]

By deed dated 19 April 1774 he and wife Hannah, of Danvers, sold for £120 a 30-acre part of the farm on which he then lived, with buildings, bounded in part by land of Benjamin Russell, to Jethro Russell of Danvers.[91] By deed dated 20 April 1774 he and wife Hannah sold 25 acres to Jeremiah Flint for £93; he mentioned his brother John Russell in the deed.[92]

Various people held Jonathan Russell's notes dated 1769-1774, for which they could not obtain payment. Several court suits were filed against him and his son Jonathan, Jr.[93] His wife Hannah signed a deed dated 19 March 1777 for the sale of two parcels of land by John Russell to Eli Russell.[80] No death, probate, or administration records are found for Jonathan in Essex County, and it appears that they moved to Windsor, Windsor County, Vermont, where he was head of family in 1790 with one other adult male and two females in his family. He may have still been living in 1796, when his son Jonathan was styled "Junior" at New Salem, Franklin County, Mass.

13. JOHN[3] RUSSELL was born at Salem, Mass., 19 July 1730, posthumous son of Jonathan and Hannah (Estey) Russell.[28] He and Elizabeth Wilkins were married at Danvers, Mass., 13 June 1771.[81] Births of their children were recorded at Danvers 1772-1780, but they appear to have been members of the church at adjoining Middleton, where they had children baptized in 1775 and 1777.[79]

By deed dated 1 December 1762 John Russell released to his brother Jonathan Russell two parcels of land in Danvers, one of which had belonged to their father and the other of which was bounded in part by Benjamin Russell.[84] By deed dated 20 March 1765 he sold to his brother Jonathan Russell of Danvers his undivided share in a 10-acre parcel, bounded in part by John Flint and Benjamin Russell.[85] By deed dated 27 May 1772 he sold to his brother Jonathan land in Danvers bounded in part by Jonathan and Benjamin Russell.[95] He was mentioned in a deed dated 20 April 1774 from his brother Jonathan Russell to Jeremiah Flint.[92] By deed dated 19 March 1777 he and wife Elizabeth of Danvers and Hannah Russell [probably the wife of his brother Jonathan] sold two parcels of land to his nephew Eli Russell.[80] John Russell was head of family at Danvers in 1790, with two sons aged under 16 and two females. In 1800 he was head of family at Danvers, he and wife aged 45 or more.[96]

15. EBENEZER[3] RUSSELL, JR., was born at Reading, Mass., 21 February 1714, oldest son of Ebenezer and Deborah (Hibbard) Russell.[29] He and his cousin Susannah Russell (#10 above) were married at Salem 10 September 1735.[58] She was born at Salem 11 February 1719/20, daughter of Jonathan (#2 on page 15) and Hannah (Estey) Russell,[28] and died at Wilbraham, Mass., 15 June 1779, in her 61st year of age.[99] Ebenezer Russell married, second, at Springfield, Mass., First Church, 27 January 1780, the widow Mary (Morgan) (Williston) Miller of Springfield.[99] She was born at Springfield 18 March 1734, daughter of John and Hannah (Chapin) Morgan,[100] and died at Rutland, New York, 14 March 1822, aged 90 [sic] according to her gravestone inscription. She married, first, at Springfield, 23 July 1752, Joseph Williston, Jr. (1731-1768), by whom she had five children.[101] She married, second, at Springfield, 16 January

1771, Reuben Miller. After the death of Ebenezer Russell, her third husband, she married at Wilbraham, Mass., 26 November 1795, Jeremiah Dutton of Springfield (he died 1798).[102] Ebenezer Russell died at Wilbraham, Mass., 5 August 1791, in his 79th year of age.[102]

Of Salem, Mass., Ebenezer purchased land in East Windsor, Conn., from his father on 14 July 1738.[55] Still of Salem, on 1 September 1740 he purchased land in Ellington, Conn., from his father.[51] Of Salem on 27 April 1741, he sold land in Windsor to his father. They settled in Ellington parish, Windsor, Conn., by 1745. He conveyed land on 5 September 1745, and sold 15 acres in Ellington to his brother Samuel Russell on 10 June 1746.[103] He was taxed for land in Ellington in 1752.

In about 1773 they settled at Wilbraham, Hampden County, Mass. By deed dated 1 June 1784 Ebenezer and his [second] wife Mary Russell transferred to her second son, Godfrey Williston, their rights in the homelot and meadow land given to her and Hannah Nevers by their father John Morgan on 27 April 1775.[103] Ebenezer was head of family at Wilbraham in 1790, with one other man, three males under age 16, and two females. His will was dated at Wilbraham 28 June 1779 and probated 17 January 1792. He mentioned children Ebenezer, Jonathan, John, Susannah, Annie, Hannah, and Jerusha.[104]

Children of Ebenezer, Jr., and Susannah (Russell) Russell, all recorded at Windsor, Conn., though the first three were probably born at Salem, Mass.:[105]

52 i. Susannah Russell, b. 14 March 1736/7; d. Dover, Vt., 18 June 1815, age 81 [sic]; m. (1) ca. 1758, Richard Smith, Jr. (1727-1761); m. (2) before 1771, Capt. David Johnson (d. 1812); had children by both husbands.[106]

53 ii. Anna Russell, b. 20 Oct. 1739; d. 18 Dec. 1804, age 65; m. by 1765, Zenos Parker (1739-1821); resided at Ludlow, Mass.; East Windsor, Conn.; Wilbraham, Mass.; and Springfield, Mass.; eight children.[107]

+ 54 iii. Ebenezer Russell, Jr., b. 3 June 1741.

55 iv. Hannah Russell, b. 16 March 1745/6; d. Ellington, Conn., 25 June 1822, age 77 [sic]; m. Daniel Warner, Jr. (1741-1829); eight children.[108]

+ 56 v. Jonathan Russell, b. 1 May 1748.

57 vi. Lucy Russell, b. 30 July 1749; d. before 1779.

58 vii. Jerusha Russell, b. 21 June 1751; d. Windsor, Mass., 3 Nov. 1817, in 64th year [sic]; m. int. rec. Wilbraham, Mass., 29 Nov. 1783, Ahimaiz Willey of East Haddam, Conn.[109]

+ 59 viii. John R. Russell, b. 27 Aug. 1755.

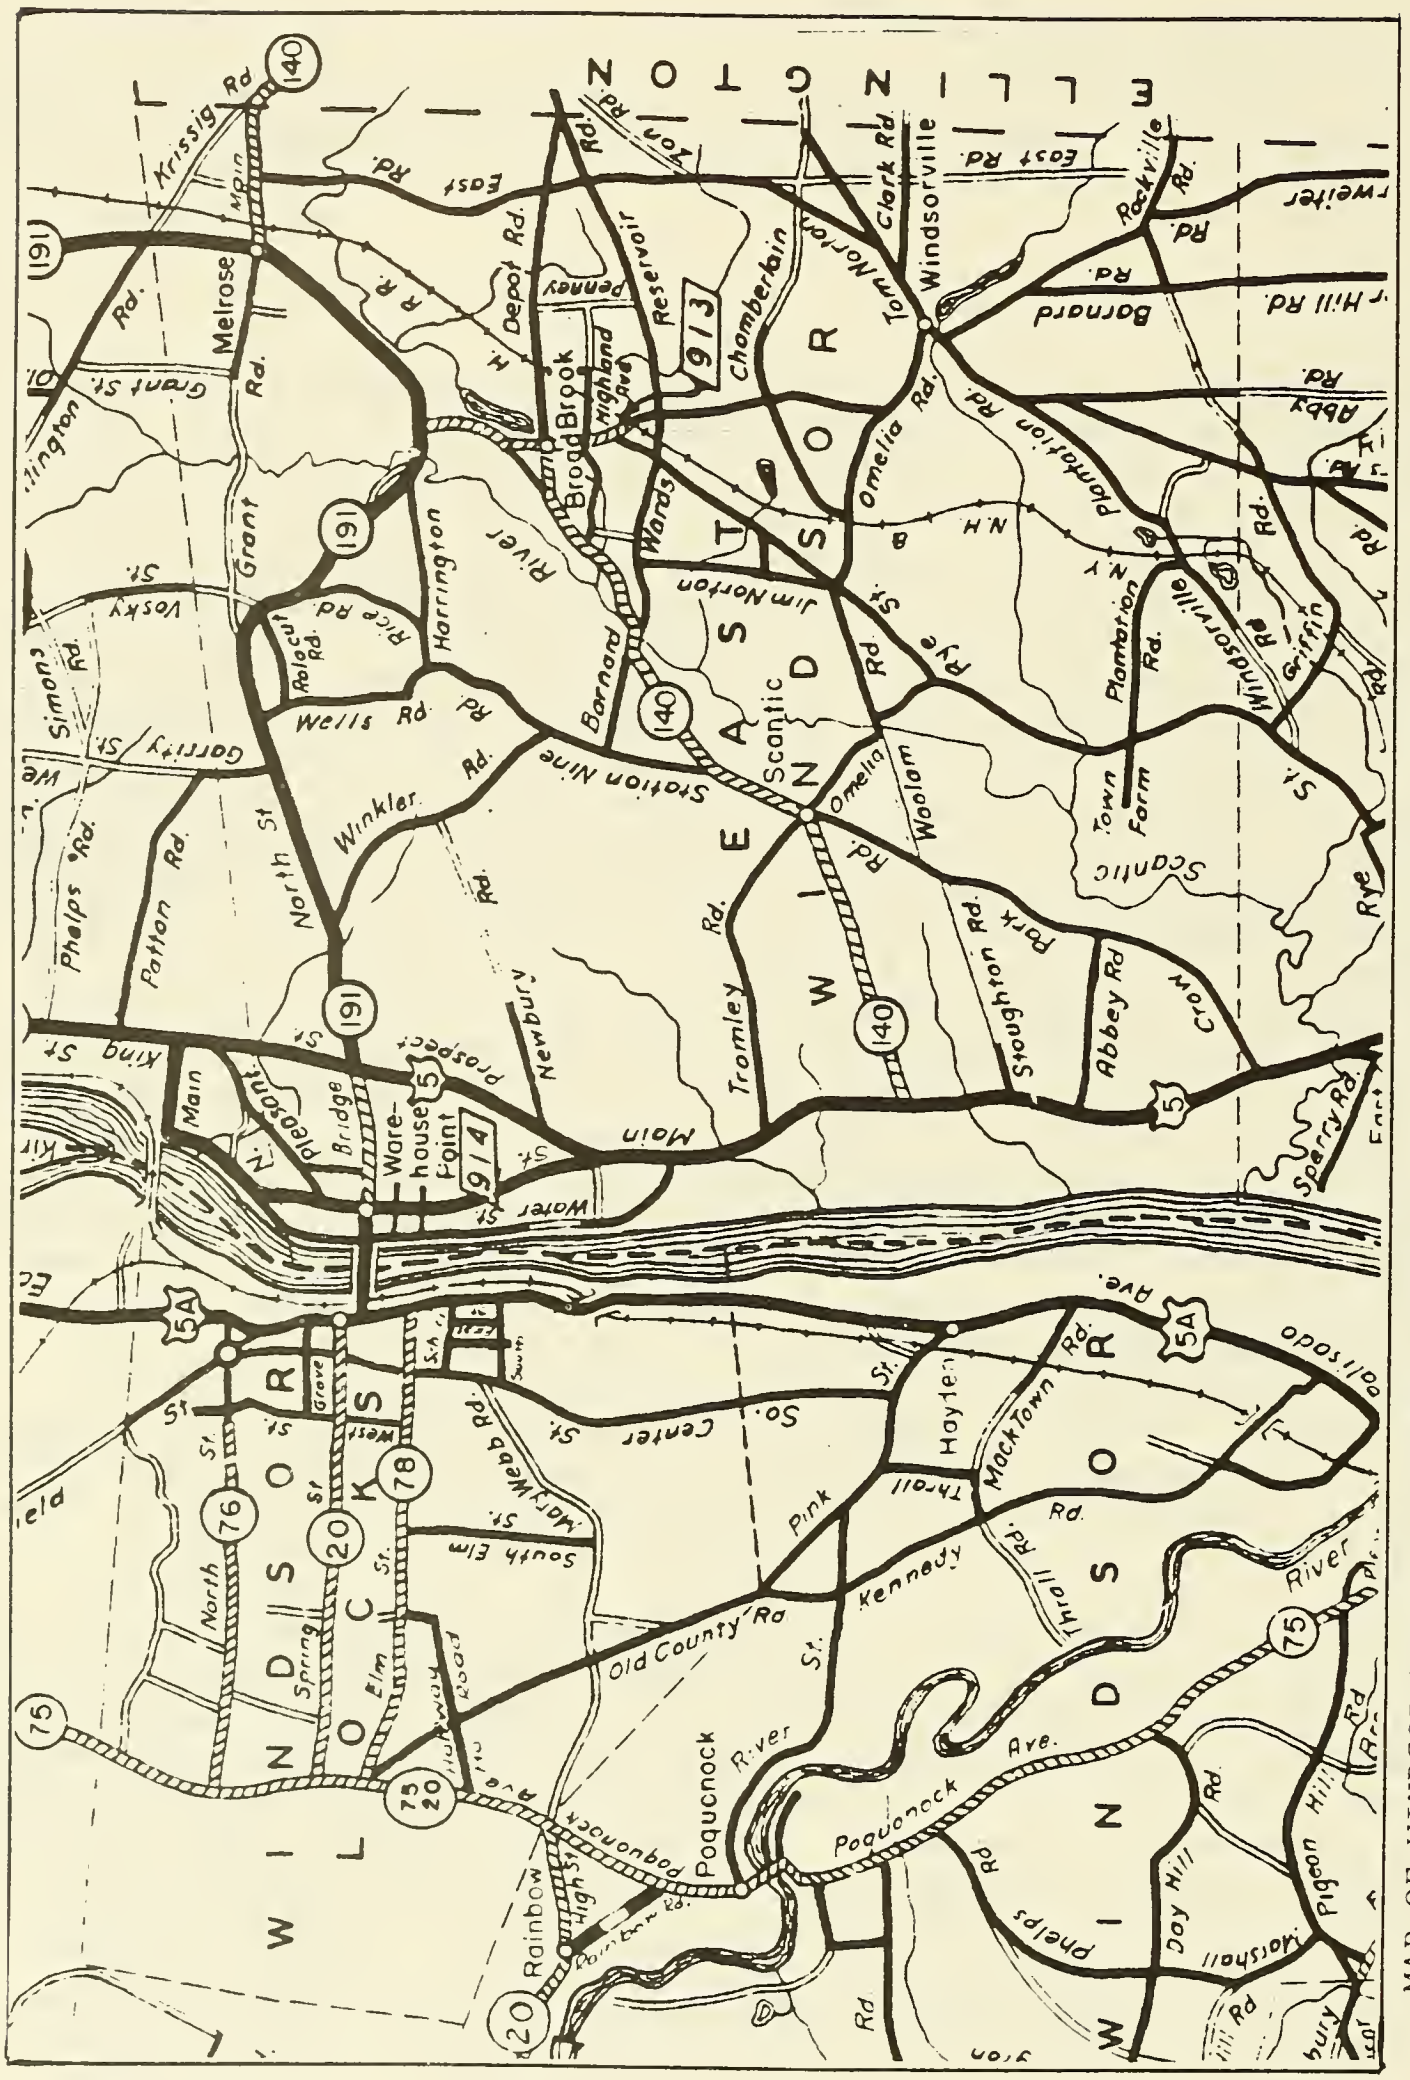
15. SAMUEL[3] RUSSELL was born at Reading, Mass., 1 April 1716, son of Ebenezer[2] and Deborah (Hibbard) Russell.[29] Upon reaching age 18 he went to Ellington Parish, Windsor, Conn., where his aunt Hannah (Hibbard) Eaton lived and his father owned land. He signed a petition at Ellington in 1734.[110] By deed dated 21 September 1741 he, of Windsor, purchased land in Ellington Parish "in Windsor east side of the Great River" from Mrs. Anne Elliot of Windsor.[111] Still of Windsor, he sold this land by deed dated February 1741/2 to his brother William Russell of Windsor.[112] Samuel then migrated westward about 90 miles to Kingston, Ulster County, New York, where - on 18 August 1745 - marriage bans were registered and a certificate issued by the Kingston Dutch Reformed Church to Samuel Russell and MARIA/MAREITJE HOF, she born at Livingston Manor, both residents of Kingston.[113] According to the family register of their oldest son Jacob, Mary was born at Esopus [Kingston] in 1723 and died at Windsor, Conn., in 1807 at the age of 84.[114] She was a daughter of Johann Andreas Hof(f) and Catharina Margreta (Ernst) Hof(f) of Livingston Manor and Kingston, immigrants in 1710 from Neuwied/Heddesdorf, Germany.[115] Jacob, the first child of Samuel and Mareitje (Hof) Russell, was baptized at the Kingston Dutch Reformed Church 11 May 1746.[116] By deed dated 10 June 1746 Ebenezer Russell, Jr., of Windsor, sold to [his brother] Samuel Russell, still of Kingston, N.Y., for £60 a 15-acre parcel of land 15 rods wide and one-half mile long lying in Windsor Township "on the east side of the Great River in the parish of Ellington."[117] Samuel and Mary then returned to Windsor in 1746, and by deed dated 21 November 1746 Samuel, now of Windsor, purchased land with a house at Ellington from Jonathan Porter of Windsor, the land located near Nathaniel Diakes's land.[117] By deed dated 5 December 1749 Samuel purchased 25 acres of so-called "equivalent land" from his brother Nathan Russell of Windsor.[118] Windsor land records list ten grantor deeds from Samuel, the last one in 1756, and twelve grantee deeds to him, the last one in 1754.[119] By deed dated February 1756 Samuel Russell of Windsor, husbandman, sold land in Ellington parish, Windsor, to his brother Nathan Russell of Windsor.[120] Samuel's name appeared on a petition dated about 1755 or 1756 of the residents of the North or Scantic Parish of East Windsor who were attempting to secure a ferry across the Connecticut River.[121] In 1756 he was taxed at East Windsor for a house and one cow.[53] Though no record of his military service has been found, he was identified as "Sgt. Samuel Russell in his probate records.[122]



MAP OF WINDSOR TOWNSHIP SHOWING LOCALITIES OF EAST WINDSOR AND WINDSOR LOCKS (1947)

Samuel Russell died in February 1780 after suffering a broken thigh caused by a fall off a porch railing. He is said to be buried at West Windsor Square.[123] On 21 February 1780 his sons Jacob and Cornelius Russell were appointed administrators of his estate. The inventory was made 23 February 1780 and accepted by the court 15 March 1780, with a finding of insolvency. On 3 April 1780 certain money and property were set out to the widow as her allowance. (See facsimiles of the probate papers on the following pages.)[122]

Samuel and Mary (Hoff) Russell had the following children, all born at Windsor, Conn., except the first:[105,124]

17. NATHAN[3] RUSSELL was born at Reading, Mass., 2 September 1718, son of Ebenezer[2] and Deborah (Hibbard) Russell.[29] He and SARAH ———— were married in about 1742 and had children recorded at Windsor, Conn., in the period 1743-1758.[105] By deed dated 5 December 1749 Nathan sold 25 acres of "equivalent land" to his brother Samuel Russell of Windsor.[118] In 1752 he was taxed for land in Ellington parish, Windsor.[53] By deed dated February 1756 he bought land in Ellington from his brother Samuel Russell of Windsor.[120] To Nathan were bequeathed ten shillings and a horse bridle and saddle by his father Ebenezer's will dated 15 September 1761 at Ellington.[56]

Nathan Russell died shortly before 1 July 1799, on which date his son Hezekiah was bonded as administrator of the estate of Nathan Russell of Ellington, with Daniel Sampson of Stafford, Conn., as his surety. On 6 January 1800 the court ordered the sale of Nathan's estate.[130]

An old Russell house built by 1782 is thought to have been Nathan's. It is located on Old Somers Road just north of Crystal Lake Road on the west side of Russell Brook in Ellington.[131]

Nathan and Sarah Russell had the following children born at Ellington parish and recorded at Windsor, Conn.:[105]

67 i. Ruth Russell, b. 23 Aug. 1743; no further record.
+ 68 ii. Hezekiah Russell, b. 18 Mch. 1745.
69 iii. Mercy Russell, b. 11 Nov. 1751; had daughter Ruth Russell b. at Ellington 7 Apr. 1780, joined Ellington Church in 1822, and d. at Ellington 24 Jan. 1838.[132]
+ 70 iv. Elijah Russell, b. 14 Apr. 1754.

71 v. Sarah Russell, b. 3 July 1756; d. Ellington, 15 Dec. 1820, age 64; m. Ellington, 7 Nov. 1777, John Charter, Jr. (ca.1749-1826);[132] nine children recorded at Ellington 1779-1797.[132]

+ 72 vi. Nathan Russell, Jr., b. 15 July 1758

Possible child of Nathan and Sarah Russell:

73 vii. Isaac Russell, had son Joel Russell born at East Windsor, Conn., 16 July 1772.[133]

130. Stafford District Probate Records, case no. 1862.
131. Ellington was incorporated as a separate town in 1786 in Tolland County.
132. Ellington, Conn., Vital Records.
133. Stiles, op. cit., p. 768.

18. WILLIAM[3] RUSSELL was born at Reading, Mass., 18 May 1721, son of Ebenezer[2] and Deborah (Hibbard) Russell.[29] In about 1741-4 he married ELIZABETH ————. By deed dated 24 June 1741 he purchased land in Ellington parish, Windsor, Conn., from his father.[52] By deed dated 23 February 1741/2 he bought additional land in Ellington from his brother Samuel Russell.[112]

Of Windsor, he died intestate and on 1 July 1746 administration on his estate was granted to his father Ebenezer Russell and his relict Elizabeth Russell. Their account of his estate was approved by the court on 4 April 1747.[134]

The widow Elizabeth Russell was taxed for land in Ellington parish, Windsor, in 1752.[53] The will of his father Ebenezer Russell, dated 15 September 1761, named grandson William Russell.[56] At Windsor on 6 May 1762 William's widow Elizabeth Russell married Eleazer Kingsbury of Tolland, Conn.[105] In 1772 they and Ebenezer and William[4] Russell sold land in Ellington parish, East Windsor.

Only known child of William and Elizabeth Russell:

+ 74 i. William Russell, Jr., b. ca.1742.

134. Hartford District Probate Records, case no. 4695, abstracted in Manwaring, Early Connecticut Probate Records (Hartford, 1906), 3:634. Debts and charges of £90.6.4 were paid out of total inventory value of £367.19.8.

20. ELLIS[3] RUSSELL was born at Reading, Mass., 17 November 1730, son of Ebenezer[2] and Deborah (Hibbard) Russell.[29] He and JANE CATHERINE WOLCOTT were married at Windsor, Conn., 14 November 1751.[105] She was born 22 February 1733, a daughter of Thomas and Catherine (Loomis) Wolcott.[135] As the wife of Ellis Russell and daughter of Thomas Wolcott, deceased, she received one-twelfth share (33-1/3 acres) in her grandfather Henry Wolcott's 400-acre farm in Tolland, Conn., by distribution dated

2 May 1754.[136] Ellis and Jane Russell had children recorded at Windsor in the period 1752-1766.[105] By his father's will dated 15 September 1761 at Ellington, Ellis inherited land and a house and was appointed executor.[56]

Ellis owned land in Ellington parish, Windsor, 1751-1753.[137] Of Windsor, by deed dated 15 January 1753 he bought land in Ellington Society, Windsor, from Ebenezer Russell of Windsor.[54] Of East Windsor, by deed dated 16 July 1771 he sold 50 acres in East Windsor to David Drake.[138] It is said that the family then moved to Hadley, Mass.[139] By 1773 they were living at Springfield, Mass.[140] By deed dated 22 March 1775 he purchased 5-3/4 acres in the Third Parish of Springfield on the south side of Pecousah Brook next to Roger Cooley, for £7 from Benajah Stephenson.[141] He was taxed at Springfield in December 1775.[139] [In 1783 the town of Longmeadow was established from part of Springfield.]

Now of Longmeadow, Ellis on 8 June 1784 paid £21 to Andrew and Hannah Colton for Springfield land called The Plumb Trees, which he sold on 3 February 1789 to his son Wolcott Russell for £21.[142] By deed dated 20 February 1790 Ellis Russell of Longmeadow paid £3 to James Sikes of Springfield for 6-2/3 acres at Springfield.[143] He was head of family at Longmeadow in 1790 with two sons under age 16 and one female.[144] In a document dated 23 August 1793 he and five other men stated that they owned a fishing place called Red Bank on the east side of the Connecticut River at Springfield, which they had improved for fishing for about twelve years.[145] Ellis was head of family at Longmeadow in 1800, with one son age 16-25 and one daughter age 16-25.[146] Of Longmeadow, a yeoman, on 19 October 1801 Ellis sold to John Stephenson of West Springfield for $315 15 acres with buildings in Longmeadow bounding the Common Field and the Great River.[147]

By 14 December 1801 Ellis was living on Long Hill in Springfield, on property which he purchased on that date from Asahel Clark. In order to finance his purchase of the 30 acres with a dwelling and barn on Long Hill, he obtained a mortgage loan for $500 from Jonathan Dwight and James S. Dwight of Springfield on the same date.[148] By deed dated 28 March 1803 Ellis Russell of Springfield, yeoman, conveyed to his son Oliver Russell of Springfield, yeoman, for $500, the 30-acre farm with the dwelling and barn on Long Hill, on which Ellis then lived, bounded by property of Benjamin Wolcott's heirs, and also 10 acres on the Plain, and 2 acres at Watchoag Pond.[149] On the same date Oliver leased the 30-acre farm back to Ellis and his wife Jane for $20.[150] On 5 May 1804 Oliver Russell of Springfield and his wife Nancy sold the 30-acre farm for $570 to Henry Wolcott of Longmeadow, subject to an encumbrance of the lease to Ellis and Jane Russell. On the same date Ellis and Jane released their interest to Henry Wolcott for $20.[151] Then, by deed dated 28 May 1804, Oliver Russell and Ellis Russell and his wife Jane, all of Springfield, for $55, sold to Stephen Worthington of Springfield a 6-2/3-acre parcel and a 3-acre parcel on Watchoag Pond in Springfield.[152]

There is no further record of Ellis and Jane in Massachusetts. Perhaps they accompanied their son Oliver when he migrated circa 1804 to Phelps, Ontario County, New York.

22. BENJAMIN[3] RUSSELL was born at Salem Village [Danvers] 15 January 1718/19, and baptized at Salem South [Peabody] Church 30 August 1719, oldest son of Benjamin[2] and Sarah (Elson) Russell.[28,81] He and his cousin HANNAH RUSSELL (no. 11 above) were married at Salem 2 November 1739.[10] She was born at Salem 13 November 1721, daughter of Jonathan[2] and Hannah (Estey) Russell.[28]

On an undated list, he, his father, and Jonathan Russell were listed among rate payers for the Danvers First Church Parish.[162] His name was on the Danvers Tax Lists, 1752-1753.[163] In 1762 he was a Selectman of Danvers.[164] According to deed records, in 1762 and 1765 his land in Danvers adjoined his brother-in-law Jonathan Russell's land.[165] By deed dated 6 April 1767 he and John Flint bought land with buildings on the south side of the Ipswich River from his brother-in-law Jonathan Russell, it being the same land which John Russell released to Jonathan by deed dated 1 December 1762.[166] By deed dated 20 April 1772 he bought land in Danvers from his brother-in-law Jonathan Russell for £30, bounded in part by his own land.[167]

His land adjoined that of John Russell 27 May 1772.[168] On 21 March 1765 he bought land from his father.[60]

He owed money to the estate of Samuel Flint of Middleton, and was appointed administrator of Flint's estate 3 April 1769, according to an accounting dated 2 April 1770.[61] In March 1773 he contributed money for the services of the Danvers Parish clerk.[169] In 1786 and 1806 he purchased a pew in the Danvers First Church.[169] In 1790 he was head of family in Danvers, composed of one man [himself] and two females.[144] At Danvers in 1798 he was taxed for a house and 50-acre farm, 45-acre ox pasture, and 3-acre meadow at Middleton, the farm bounded on the west by the farm of his son Jethro Russell, with a total valuation of $1356.[170] In 1800 he was head of family at Danvers, age over 45, with two woman age over 45.[146] Benjamin Russell of Danvers, age 92, was on a list of "Men Over 80 Years of Age," published in the Salem Gazette on 16 February 1810.

Benjamin Russell of Danvers died 24 February 1811, aged 92 years.[171] His wife's death record is not found, and there are no probate records for him in Essex County.

Benjamin, Jr., and Hannah (Russell) Russell had the following children born at Danvers and baptized at Salem:[28,81]

+ 85 i. Jethro Russell, b. 18 Jan. 1740/1; bapt. 3 June 1750.

86 ii. Susannah Russell, b. 15 June 1746; bapt. 3 June 1750; d. Reading, Mass., 9 Feb. 1824, age 77; m. Reading, 8 Mch. 1769, Ebenezer Mackentire of Reading. He was b. ca.1745, son of Amos and Sarah (Severance) Mackentire, and d. at Reading in 1818. They had son Ebenezer Mackentire, Jr., bapt. Reading 11 July 1769.[29]

+ 87 iii. David Russell, b. 29 Oct. 1748; bapt. 3 June 1750.

88 iv. Sarah Russell, bapt. 3 June 1750; m. Reading, 30 Mch. 1775, James Burnap of Reading. He was bapt. at Reading in 1749, son of Joseph and Lydia Burnap; m. (1) in 1772, Martha Eaton; and d. at Reading, 29 Dec. 1821 age 72.[9] His widow Sarah was living 12 May 1823 when she signed quit claim on Burnap land in Wilmington, Mass.[172]

+ 89 v. Stephen Russell, b. 8 Oct. 1751.

+ 90 vi. Benjamin Russell, 3rd, b. 21 Mch. 1757.

33. JOHN[4] RUSSELL was born at Somers, Tolland County, Conn., 25 January 1747/8, a son of William[3] and Sarah (Emery) Russell.[177] He died at Somers, 3 November 1826, age 58, and is buried with his wife in Enfield Street Cemetery.[64] At Somers 28 May 1778 he and LOVICE COOLEY were married, both of Somers.[64] She was born at Somers 21 September 1755, a daughter of Captain Luke and Elizabeth (Colton) Cooley,[184] and died at Somers, 17 March 1841, age 85.[64]

On 22 May 1776 John was appointed administrator of his father's estate.[72] On 7 July 1775 he enlisted, serving as a Sergeant until 16 December 1775 in 3rd Company, Colonel Jedediah Huntington's 8th Connecticut Regiment. He was commissioned an Ensign on 2 December 1776 in Captain Phineas Lovejoy's Company, Colonel Enos's Connecticut Regiment. He served until 1 April 1777, acting as recruiting officer, and stationed at Mamaroneck, Westchester, and New York City.[185]

By deed dated 8 July 1776 John Russell of Somers paid £40 for the 55-acre farm "on which our honored father William Russell in his lifetime lived, adjoining land of Emery Russell this day conveyed to John Noah Cooley, Gideon Russell, John Fuller, and William Russell." He purchased the farm from the other heirs: William, Gideon, Emery, and Mary Russell, and Josiah Hall, Jr., and his wife Elizabeth formerly Russell, all of Somers, and Samuel King and his wife Sarah formerly Russell, of Monson, Mass., and Eleazer Collings and his wife Hannah formerly Russell, of Lebanon, Conn.[73] Among the many other Somers land transactions were his deeds: from Sarah Russell et al, 1776; from Emery Russell, 1776; from Gideon Russell, 1784; to Harbor Wood, 1785; to Nathaniel Allin, 1784; from Jerusha Russell, 1795; to Frederick Kibbe, 1802; and to John Russell, Jr., 1807.[69]

His family at Somers in 1790 was composed of two men age 16 or more, one male under 16, and seven females.[178] In 1800 his family at Somers was composed of himself and wife age 45 or more, another woman age 45 or more, one female 16-44, one male and two females 16-25, one male and two females 10-15, and one male and one female under 10.[186] He owned land in Somers, a farm outside Somers, and land at Longmeadow, Mass.

On 22 October 1838 his widow Lovice Russell, age 82, a resident of Somers, Conn., applied for a Federal pension based on John's Revolutionary War service. The pension was allowed on 11 May 1839 at the rate of $61.13 per annum, retroactive to 4 March 1839. The affidavit of her daughter Sarah (Russell) Pease of Somers, age 51, was submitted as part of the claim.[185]

34. EMERY[4] RUSSELL was born at Somers, Tolland County, Conn., 8 March 1749, a son of William[3] and Sarah (Emery) Russell.[64] He died at Longmeadow, Mass., 14 September 1807, age 57,[190] and is buried in Enfield Street Cemetery, Somers.[180] Of Springfield, Mass., he married at Westford, Mass., 1 November 1781, ELEANOR SMITH of Ashford, Conn.[191] He was head of family at Longmeadow in 1800, he age 45 or more, wife age 26-44, man age 16-25, male and female age 10-15.[192] His will was dated at Longmeadow 1 June 1807 and entered for probate 6 October 1807. He named wife Eleanor, son Emery, Jr., and daughter Eleanor Spencer and her children. Joseph W. Cooley was appointed guardian of minor son Emery, Jr. One item of expense account dated 1 August 1809 was for a trip to Greenfield, Mass., to attend a trial. On 10 October 1808 his son Emery, Jr., was aged over 16. His widow Eleanor was aged 62 or 63 on 8 February 1820 when she petitioned the court for an allowance from the estate of her late husband.[193] She was probably the woman age 45 or more living at Longmeadow in 1810 in the household headed by Emery Russell, age 16-25. An Emory Russell, either the father or the son, was the compiler of The Military Assistant, a manual of arms, drills, etc., published at Springfield, Mass., in 1812, 48 pages.[194]

Children of Emery and Eleanor (Smith) Russell, all born at Longmeadow, Mass.:[190]

108 i. Emery Russell, Jr., b. 6 Apr. 1784; d. 25 July 1786; buried in Enfield Street Cemetery, Somers, Conn.[180]

41. JONATHAN[4] RUSSELL, JR., was born at Danvers, Essex County, Mass., about 1745-1746, and was baptized at Danvers First Congregational Church 15 October 1749, oldest son of Jonathan[3] and Hannah (Flint) Russell.[81] Of Danvers he married at Middleton, Mass., 25 May 1769, HULDAH WILKINS of Middleton.[79] She was born 29 September 1750, daughter of Uriah and Lydia Wilkins.[195] By deed dated 30 March 1767 he and his parents purchased 100 acres of land in Danvers from Jacob Goodell, bounded in part by land of Asa and Paul Upton and Samuel Osborne. By deed dated 25 April 1774 they sold this land to Nathaniel Haywood.[86,90] They sold a small meadow in Lynn, Mass., in 1777, being then living in Danvers. They were mentioned in a deed in 1779 as heirs of Lydia Wilkins when she sold land.[80] Somebody held his note, dated 1773, for which they could not obtain payment and later instituted a court suit.[93]

In 1796, as Jonathan Russell, Jr., he purchased land at New Salem, Franklin County, Mass. In 1798 he was taxed there as an occupant.[196] He was head of family at New Salem in 1800, he and wife age 45 or more, with two males age 16-25, and one female age 10-15.[197] Not further traced.

Children of Jonathan, Jr., and Huldah (Wilkins) Russell, all baptized at Danvers, Mass., First Congregational Church:[81]

111 i. Huldah Russell, bapt. 21 May 1775; no further record.
112 ii. Lydia Russell, bapt. 21 May 1775; no further record.
113 iii. Aaron Russell, bapt. 7 Sept. 1777; on New Salem 1798 Tax List as an occupant;[196] possibly one at Middleburgh, Schoharie Co., N.Y., in 1820.[198]
114 iv. Jonathan Russell, 4th, bapt. 1 Oct. 1780; possibly one at Middleburgh, Schoharie Co., N.Y., in 1820.[198]

42. DANIEL[4] RUSSELL was born at Danvers, Essex County, Mass., about 1746, and was baptized at Danvers First Congregational Church 15 October 1749, son of Jonathan[3] and Hannah (Flint) Russell.[81] The marriage intention of Daniel Russell and LYDIA MACKENTIRE, both of Danvers, was published there 26 December 1767.[81] But another record states that they "gave [marriage] certification 10 February 1767."[82]

At Danvers 27 May 1772 Daniel witnessed a deed between John and Jonathan Russell.[89] Of Danvers, he was a Private in Captain Samuel Flint's Militia Company, Colonel Timothy Pickering's Regiment, which marched on the alarm of 19 April 1775, two days service. According to payroll accounts starting 6 March 1777, Daniel was engaged for the town of Danvers, enlisting for three years as a Private in Captain Asa Prince's 1st Danvers Company, or in Captain Winship's Company, Colonel Rufus Putnam's 4th Regiment, also called 5th Massachusetts Regiment, to serve in the Continental Army. According to a return dated at Albany, N.Y., 9 February 1778, Daniel died 1 January 1778 in the service.[199]

In Essex County Court in 1782 the widow Lydia Russell, relict of Daniel Russell, deceased, gave custody of her sons Daniel and William, age 14, to Eli Upton.[200] On 7 February 1791 Daniel Russell of Danvers and William Russell of Lynnfield were bonded and appointed administrators of the estate of Daniel Russell of Danvers.[201]

Children of Daniel and Lydia (Mackentire) Russell, presumably born at Danvers:[200]

+ 115 i. Daniel Russell, b. Danvers, May 1766 (according to his pension claim), or ca. 1768-1769 (according to 1850 Census).
+ 116 ii. William Russell, b. ca. 1768 (age 14 in 1782).

45. ELI[4] RUSSELL was baptized at Danvers First Congregational Church, Essex County, Mass., 28 September 1755, a son of Jonathan, Jr.[3] and Hannah (Flint) Russell.[81] He and PATIENCE POOR were married 16 April 1778. She was baptized at Marblehead, Mass., First Congregational Church 5 January 1752, a daughter of David and Patience (Grimes) Poor/Power/Powers.[204] Patience Poore from Marblehead came into Danvers and was taken in by Richard Whittredge, Jr., 19 April 1769[205] [probably as a household domestic employee.]

Eli Russell witnessed a land sale at Danvers 27 May 1772.[206] On 19 March 1777 he purchased two parcels of land at Danvers from John Russell of Danvers, the deed also being signed by Elizabeth and Hannah Russell, and witnessed by Jethro Russell.[80] With his wife Patience, he sold land at Danvers in September 1778.[207] With wife Patience, on 25 May 1779 he sold

70 acres at Danvers including buildings, and a wood lot in Andover; witnessed by William Russell.[202] With wife Patience, he sold land in Marblehead 9 October 1779.[208]

Before 1789 the family settled at Windsor, Windsor County, Vermont, where they had a child's birth recorded that year, and where he was head of family in 1791, composed of himself, his wife, and five boys age under 16.

By 1794 they had moved to New Salem, Franklin [then Hampshire] County, Mass., where he was listed as an occupant in the 1798 Federal Direct Tax List.[196] The New Salem 1800 census lists the family, he and wife age 45 or more, with two males 16-25, one male 10-15, and one female under 10.[197] On 14 November 1805 he witnessed a deed from Daniel Leonard to Jeremiah Russell at New Salem.[209] On 14 November 1807 he witnessed a deed from Patience Thayer, widow, to Jeremiah Russell at New Salem.[210] By deed dated 22 March 1811 he and [his son] Jeremiah Russell of New Salem, both yeomen, sold for $90 to James Humphreys of Athol, Mass., Esq., a 6½-acre part of lot no. 41 in the 4th division of New Salem.[211] In the New Salem 1810 census Eli and wife are listed as age 45 or more, with three males age 16-25 and one female age 10-15. By deed dated 22 March 1811 Eli Russell of New Salem, yeoman, for $30 sold to [son] Jeremiah Russell of New Salem, yeoman, a 2-acre part of New Salem lot no. 41 in the 4th division.[212]

The family then moved to the Tracy Creek locality, Henry Nichols Patent, Union Township [now Vestal], Broome County, N.Y. By deed dated 1 June 1815 Eli Russell of Union purchased from Henry Nichols of Baltimore, Maryland, for $448.25 a 243-acre lot no. 9 in Union Patent, and Nichols gave Russell a mortgage loan for $506.62½, which was satisfied 18 January 1823.[213] On 6 April 1815 Eli Russell of Union gave to Mary Drake of Union a mortgage for $660 on 21½-acre part of lot no. 8 in Nichols Patent and a 12-3/4-part of the same lot; On 23 June 1819 Russell acknowledged that he had received full satisfaction.[214] By deed dated 1 June 1819 Eli Russell of Union granted to Alfred Rounds of Easton, Washington County, N.Y., for $1100, 143-acre east part of lot no. 9 in Union.[215] By deed dated 6 March 1826 Eli Russell of Vestal granted to [his son] Jeremiah Russell of Vestal, for $112.50, 50-acre part of lot no. 9 in Nichols Union Patent.[216] By deed dated 6 March 1826 Eli Russell granted to [son-in-law] Joel Knight of Vestal, for $150, 30-acre west part of lot no. 9 in Nichols Union Patent.[217]

Assuming that all of the next generation of Russells in New Salem and Vestal were their children, the following may be the children of Eli and Patience (Poor) Russell:

+ 118 i. Jeremiah Russell, b. Mass., ca. Jan.-Feb. 1781.
+ 119 ii. Eli Russell, b. ca. 1785.

+ 120 iii. Daniel Russell, b. ca. Sept. 1787.
+ 121 iv. Israel Russell, b. Windsor, Vt., 3 Mch. 1789.
122 v. Patience Russell, b. New Salem, Mass., 4 June 1794; d. Vestal, N.Y., 1 Sept. 1881 age 87 yrs.; m. Vestal, 4 Dec. 1816, Joel Knight. Husband b. Calais, Maine, 3 Nov. 1791; d. Vestal, 10 Feb. 1867, age 76; both buried Tracy Creek Cemetery on Ridge Road, Vestal. Eight children.[218]
+ 123 vi. Elam Russell, b. ca. 1796.

46. ASA[4] RUSSELL was baptized at Danvers First Congregational Church, Essex County, Mass., 3 September 1758, a son of Jonathan[3] and Hannah (Flint) Russell.[81] Of Fitchburg, Middlesex County, Mass., he married at Wayland, Mass., 7 January 1782, LUCY BREWER.[219] He was head of family at Windsor, Windsor County, Vermont, in 1791, with two boys under age 16 and four females. He was taxed at Windsor in 1786 (for one cow) and in 1799.[220] He was admitted to the Windsor Church 18 May 1800. In 1800 he was head of family there, age 45 or more, with one woman age 26-44, one woman age 16-25, boy and girl age 10-15, and two girls under age 10. Mr. Asa Russell of Windsor was found dead in the orchard between his house and Mr. Thompson's, according to an obituary in the 24 February 1810 issue of the Visitor (Richmond, Va.).

47. JOHN[4] RUSSELL was born at Danvers, Mass., in 1760;[221] a son of Jonathan[3] and Hannah (Flint) Russell, and died at Stowe, Lamoille County, Vermont, ca. 1820, age 60, where he was buried in Stowe Center Cemetery [no stone].[222] He was married to ELIZABETH HARTWELL by the Rev. John Payson at Fitchburg, Worcester County, Mass., 17 October 1786.[223] She was born at Littleton, Mass., 22 September 1765, daughter of Josiah and Bethiah (Wood) Hartwell;[224] and died at Littleton 9 December 1831.[225] He was head of family at Windsor, Vermont, in 1791 with three boys under age 16 and two females. In 1800 he and wife were age 26-44, with two boys and one girl age 10-15, and four boys under age 10.[226] In 1810 at Windsor he and wife were age 45 or more, with one male age 16-25, one boy age 10-15, and one boy under age 10.[227] On 14 April 1802 John Russell of Windsor, Vermont, leased from the Selectmen of Stowe, Vermont, 100 acres in the 2nd Division, being lot no. 63, for $12.50 per year rent; after six years to become rent free.[228] On 30 April 1804 he assigned the lease to Hezekiah Thompson of Windsor, Vermont.[229]

Children of John and Elizabeth (Hartwell) Russell, all probably born at Windsor, Vermont:[221]

124 i. Sally H. Russell, b. 5 Aug. 1785.
125 ii. Ezra Russell, b. 20 Apr. 1787.
+ 126 iii. Hartwell Russell, b. 25 Apr. 1789.

50. ENOCH[4] RUSSELL was born at Danvers, Essex County, Mass., 27 August 1777 and baptized at Middleton, Mass., 31 August 1777, son of John[3] and Elizabeth (Wilkins) Russell.[79,81] He died at Danvers, Mass., 4 March 1802.[81] He and SARAH WHITMAN were married at Danvers 26 February 1800.[81]

In 1798 he owned the house at Danvers which was occupied by his brother John Russell.[170] In 1800 he was head of family at Danvers, he and wife age 16 to 25, without any children.[146] He did not leave any probate record in Essex County. His relict Sarah/Sally Russell married, second, Eben Dale, their intention being published at Danvers on 13 August 1837.[81]

The following infant death records at Danvers probably pertain to this family:[81]

139 i. Debbe Russell, d. 30 May 1800.
140 ii. William Russell, d. 29 Apr. 1802.
141 iii. [child of widow Russell], d. Feb. 1803.

Another probable child of Enoch and Sarah (Whitman) Russell was:

142 iv. Sophia Russell, m. Lynnfield, 14 Oct. 1824, Joseph Ramsdell; children recorded at Lynnfield 1825-1847.

51. PETER "HELON"[4] RUSSELL was born at Danvers, Essex County, Mass., 15 May 1780, son of John[3] and Elizabeth (Wilkins) Russell.[81] He died at Lynnfield, Essex County, Mass., in 1863.[231] At Lynnfield on 3 October 1802 he married BETSEY NORWOOD.[232] She was born at Lynnfield 26 July 1780, a daughter of John and Deborah Norwood.[232]

By Act of the Mass. Legislature on 16 April 1836 his name was changed from Peter to Helon Russell.[233] Helen Russell was head of family at Lynnfield in 1850, age 70, a farmer, estate valued at $700, with Elbridge Russell (37, cordwainer), Caroline Russell (35), Lucy I. Russell (25), and Tenor F. Russell (3 months).[234]

Peter Russell had the following child born at Lynnfield by Lois Parker [not identified as his wife]:[235]

+ 143 i. Peter "Orin" Russell, Jr., b. 27 Jan. 1801.

Children of Peter and Betsey (Norwood) Russell, all born at Lynnfield, Mass.:[232]

144 ii. Maryan Russell, b. 7 Oct. 1803.
145 iii. Eliza Russell, b. 7 Sept. 1805; d. 25 Aug. 1807, age 2 yrs.

60. JACOB[4] RUSSELL was born at Kingston, Ulster County, New York, 15 April 1746, and baptized at the Kingston Dutch Reformed Church 11 May 1746, the first child of Samuel[3] and Mary (Hoff) Russell.[114,116] He died in Warrensville Township, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, 29 August 1821, age 75 years.[114] He and ESTHER DUNHAM of Hebron, Conn., were married at Gilead, Conn., 28 May 1772.[114] She was born at Hebron, Conn., 4 April 1750, daughter of Isaac and Jerusha (Loomis) Dunham; and she died at their son Ralph's home at Bentleyville, Solon Township, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, 16 September 1835, age 85 years, and was buried in the Russell family graveyard there.[114]

Jacob served in the Revolutionary War, enlisting 12 May 1775 as a Private in the 8th Company, Connecticut Continental Regiment. After 153 days service he was discharged 11 October 1775.[248] On 21 February 1780 at Windsor, Conn., he was appointed administrator of his father's estate.[122] Between 1781 and 1785 he purchased a farm and grist mill on Pine Meadow Creek about 1½ miles north of Windsor Locks, Conn., from Eliakim Gaylord and Elijah Higley, who had set up the mill in 1781. Jacob was admitted to the Windsor Locks Church in 1785.[249] In the 1790 census he was head of family at Windsor with one other man age 16 or more, four boys under age 16, and four females.[178] By deed dated 20 January 1795 he paid £6 to his brother Cornelius Russell of Windsor for a 1½-acre lot at Windsor beginning on the east side of the highway and adjoining his own and Hezekiah Mather's land.[250] He was head of family at Windsor in 1800, he and wife age 45 or more, with one man age 26-44, three males and one female age 16-25, one boy and one girl age 10-15, and one boy and two girls age under 10.[251]

In 1811 Jacob sold his farm and mill at Windsor Locks and contracted for lot number 34 in Township 7, range 11, in the Western Reserve of Connecticut, the lot containing 159 acres, in present Shaker Heights, then Warrensville Township, Cuyahoga County, Ohio. His eldest son Elijah traveled to Ohio and surveyed the land, and in the Spring of 1812 Elijah and his brother Ralph went to Ohio, cleared the lot, planted corn, and built a log cabin. On 13 June 1812 Jacob and most of his family set out for Ohio. The party included Jacob, age 66, who walked all the way on foot, leading an ox team and wagon; his wife Esther, who rode the only horse; their son Elisha and his family; their son-in-law Hart Risley and his family; sons Elijah and Ralph; and the younger unmarried children. They arrived at Warresville Township in the latter part of August 1812, after a journal of over two months. See Annals of Cuyahoga County Early Settlers Association, 4:65, for a detailed account of this migration.

By deed dated 30 April 1813 Jacob paid $2000 to Lemuel and Betsey Storrs of Middletown, Conn., for Warrensville Township lots 23 (155 acres), 24 (159 acres), and 92 (159 acres), and lot 20 (166 acres) in Paris Township no. 3 in present Stark County, Ohio.[252]

Of Newburgh [later called Warrensville] Township, Jacob and Esther sold most of the land to their children in the next seven years, as follows:[253]

13 Feb. 1816, to son Elisha for $125, 100 acres from west part of lot 34

13 Apr. 1816, to son Ralph for $300, 59 acres from east part of lot 34 and 55 acres from southwest part of lot 23

13 Apr. 1816, to son Ebenezer Rodney Russell for $300, 100 acres from west part of lot 92

13 Apr. 1816, to son Elijah Russell, 100 acres from north and east parts of lot 23 for $325

26 Aug. 1820, to son-in-law David Benjamin for $236, 59 acres from east part of lot 92.

Jacob was buried near the horse barn not far from the site of the Shaker woolen mill, on lot 23 on the north side of present South Park Boulevard, near its intersection with Lee Road, in what is now Shaker Heights, a suburb of Cleveland, Ohio. The grave was marked with a simple stone inscribed J.R. A pine tree grew over the grave, which was later enclosed in iron pailings and marked by a huge boulder with a bronze plaque by the Western Reserve Chapter of the DAR. In 1964 the grave was threatened by the proposed Clark Freeway construction.[254]

By a Trumbull Co., Ohio, deed dated 8 August 1822, Jacob's 166-acre parcel in the east part of lot 20 in Paris Township 3, Range 6 [now in Stark County], was divided among his ten children, daughter Obedience Pelton receiving the largest share (32 acres and 16 rods). The parcel was later sold to another party in its entirety.[255]

Jacob's relict Esther Russell lived alone at Warrensville in 1830, age 80 years.[256] Soon afterward she went to her son Ralph's home in Bentleyville, Solon Township, Cuyahoga County. She was originally buried on his farm on the east side of the Chagrin River, but was later reinterred in May 1851 on the other side of the river when the Russell family burying ground was established on Liberty Road.[114] [See account of son Ralph[5] Russell for photograph of the burial ground.]

61. STEPHEN[4] RUSSELL was born in Ellington Parish, Windsor, Conn., 22 January 1748/9, second son of Samuel[3] and Mary (Hoff) Russell.[105] He died 18 September 1820, probably in New York State. At Westfield, Hampshire County, Mass., 17 October 1771 he married ELEANOR FOWLER of Westfield.[257] She was born at Westfield 18 September 1752, daughter of Lt. Samuel and Naomi (Noble) Fowler.[258]

In 1770 Stephen Russell of Westfield, Mass., purchased from [future father-in-law] Samuel Fowler 18 acres near the Fowler home on the road to Simsbury in Westfield [now Southwick]. In 1772 Stephen and his brother-in-law Silas Fowler, who held the mortgage, sold the 18-acre parcel to John Campbell, and Stephen bought another 18-acre parcel in the same neighborhood from John Graves. He and wife Eleanor sold land at Southwick in 1772, 1773, 1775, and 1783.[259]

Stephen served in the Revolutionary War as a Private in a company organized 21 April 1775 under Colonel Danielson, with Lt. Col. Shepard of Westfield in command.[260]

He was also listed as a Minuteman who answered the Lexington Alarm. He was in service from 11 to 21 days on the first call to arms.[260]

By deed dated 29 October 1783 Stephen Russell of Southwick bought from Aaron Lewis a 17½-acre part of lot number 72 between the 2nd and 3rd tier of lots in Colebrook, Litchfield County, Conn., land originally laid out to Zacheus Griswold.[261] The family presumably then settled at Colebrook. By deed dated 6 January 1784 Stephen purchased from Ebenezer Church a 38-3/4-acre part of a right of land at Colebrook laid out to Thomas Egleston of Windsor, lately deceased.[262] By deed dated 18 August 1785 he sold to Edmund Howell 10 acres from the east end of lot 72 in the 1st division.[263] On 24 September 1785 he sold part of lot 30, and on 26 September 1785 he sold 15 acres from lot 30 to William Walter of Norfolk.[264] On 24 September 1787 Stephen Russell, now of Norfolk, Conn., received quit claim deed from William Walter.[265] Later Colebrook deeds: purchase of west end of lot 26, bounded by Norfolk Town line;[266] part of lot 73 from Hezekiah Simons;[267] sold part of lot 30 to Ebenezer Church in 1787;[268] sold another part of lot 30 to Jeremiah Goodrich in 1789.[269]

Stephen Russell was head of family in Litchfield County in 1790, his family composed of two men age 16 or more, three boys under age 16, and three females.[270]

By deed dated 23 April 1793 he sold to [son] Roswell Russell a dwelling house and parts of lot 25 in 1st tier and lot 37 in 2nd tier.[271] On 19 December 1793 he sold a tract to Roswell Russell.[272] By an agreement dated 29 November 1794 he purchased from David Viets rights to land in Colebrook laid out to Hannah Loomis as heir to Thomas Egleston of Windsor.[273] By deed dated 1 November 1795 he sold land and part of lot 30 to Samuel Phillips of Colebrook.[274] His land in Colebrook, lots 29 and 30, were bounded northerly on the highway passing from Colebrook to Norfolk, and by a sawmill near Farmington River.

On 16 February 1795 his land was sold by the sheriff and Stephen Russell was ordered committed to Litchfield Jail until his debt of £33.15.8 was paid.

The entire family then moved to Mamacatting, Ulster County, New York, which later became Lumberland and then Liberty, in present Sullivan County. Stephen was head of family in Lumberland Township, Ulster County, in 1800, he and wife age 45 or more, with two males and one female age 16 to 25, two boys age 10 to 15, and one boy and one girl age under 10.[275]

Stephen and Eleanor (Fowler) Russell had the following children, all recorded at Colebrook, Conn., though the first seven were born at Southwick, Mass.:[276]

+ 180 i. Roswell Russell, b. 24 Mch. 1772.
+ 181 ii. John Hough Russell, b. 21 Dec. 1773.

62. CORNELIUS[4] RUSSELL was born in Ellington Parish, Windsor, Conn., 18 April 1750, third son of Samuel[3] and Mary (Hoff) Russell.[105] He died at Randolph, Orange County, Vermont, 3 August 1823, age 73 years.[278] At Windsor in November 1784 he married HULDAH PEMBER of Windsor.[105] She was born at Windsor in October 1754, daughter of Elijah and Hannah (Cross) Pember.[279] She died at Randolph, Vermont, 4 August 1829, age 75 years.[278] They are buried in Randolph Center Cemetery.

In April 1775 he served five days as a Corporal in Captain Hayden's Windsor Company on the Lexington Alarm. On 7 May 1775 he enlisted as a Private in Captain Elijah Robinson's Company, later Captain Enos's 3rd Windsor Company, in Colonel Spencer's 2nd Regiment, serving seven months and being discharged 18 December 1775. He immediately reenlisted, in Captain Ebenezer F. Bissell's Windsor Company, Colonel Jedediah Huntington's 17th Continental Regiment. At New York 12 August 1776 he was promoted to Sergeant Major of the 17th Regiment of Foot. He served in the fortification of New York on the Brooklyn Front. He was reported as missing in action at the Battle of Long Island, 27 August 1776. He was captured by the British and imprisoned for about four months in the Old Jersey Prison Ship, "being reduced to great distress." He is said to have lost his voice during his imprisonment, and was never able to talk above a whisper for the rest of his life.

Soon after being exchanged he enlisted as a Sergeant in Colonel Philip B. Bradley's 5th Regiment of the Conn. Line. On 1 January 1777 he was appointed Ensign. In May 1777 he enlisted in Captain Abner Prior's Company, 4th Conn. Regiment for three years. Another record says he served in Captain Ezekiel Sanford's Company until 1778. At the Battle of Germantown 4 October 1777. At Valley Forge winter 1777-1778. Promoted to 2nd Lieutenant in Colonel Bradley's Regiment 15 December 1777. Was at the Battle of Monmouth 27 June 1778, and at Redding 1778-1779. Promoted to 1st Lieutenant in 2nd Conn. Regiment on 1 April 1779 in Captain Weed's Company, Colonel Swift's 2nd Regiment, Conn. Line. Was at Morristown Huts 1779-1780; at Conn. Village 1780-1781; at Peekskill, N.Y., June 1781; at Phillipsburg July 1781. In August 1781 he was detached from Captain Weed's Company and attached to Lt. Col. Hamilton's Light Regiment, General Lafayette's Light Division, having marched to Yorktown with General Washington. His unit held the post of honor on the right of the investing line at the Siege of Yorktown, which surrendered 19 October 1781. He served until June 1783 and was discharged with the rank of 1st Lieutenant and retired at half-pay.[280,281]

Extracts from his wartime diary have been preserved.[282] He gave a powder horn to his younger brother John, inscribed "Cornelius Russell, his horn which he gives a present to his brother John Russell, made in Roxbury, Nov. the 21st, 1775." The horn was covered with engravings representing "outline of a fort with guns mounted, buildings, church, town hall, marts of shipping, camp, and trees." Cornelius in 1780 was among the officers of the Conn. Regiment of the Continental Line who petitioned through Colonel Heman Swift for a grant of a tract of land between Lakes Champlain and Memphremagogg.[283] He was an original subscriber and member of the Society of the Cincinnati. On 27 September 1804 at Randolph, Vermont, he appointed Captain Martin Denslow of Windsor, Conn., to apply for Cornelius's share in the Society.[284]

He was awarded a commutation bounty land warrant of 200 acres in lieu of pay for his service. In 1790 he delivered the warrant to Captain Batey, then Paymaster of the 1st American Regiment, to be conveyed to the Surveyor General appointed to survey bounty lands. On 25 November 1805 he wrote to his Congressman, alleging that "I have not heard anything from it since," and asking for an investigation. The file shows "no record" of the warrant being issued to him, despite the fact that there actually is a record of the warrant. It is doubtful that he ever received the bounty land. In 1853 his grandson Cornelius Russell inquired if any bounty land or pension was due to the heirs.[281]

Cornelius was head of family at Windsor, Conn., in 1790, the family composed of one man age 16 or more, two boys under age 16, and four females.[178] By deed dated 20 January 1795 Cornelius, of Windsor, sold land there to his older brother Jacob [see above].[250] Shortly after 1795 the family settled at Randolph, Orange County, Vermont, where he was head of family in 1800 with two boys age 10 to 15, two boys and one girl age under 10, and himself and wife age 26 to 44 [sic].[285] At Randolph in May 1815 he was taxed for 60 acres valued at $750.[286] He was head of family there in 1820, he and wife age 45 or more, another man age 26 to 45, one woman age 16 to 25, one of the men being engaged in agriculture.[287] On 6 April 1818, resident of Randolph, age 67 years, Cornelius applied for a pension, "by reason of his reduced circumstances he stands in need of the assistance of his country for support" [a standard phrase required by the Pension Act]. The application was filed on his behalf by Dudley Chase, Chief Justice of the Vermont Supreme Court. His claim was allowed at the rate of $20 per month effective 4 March 1819. He received a total of $459.32 before suspension of the pension under the Act of 1 May 1820.[281]

Cornelius and Huldah (Pember) Russell had the following children, all probably born at Windsor, Conn.:[105,278,279]

189 i. Pemberton Russell, b. 1785; d. Ellington, Conn., 24 Nov. 1787, age 2 yrs.; buried Ellington Town Cemetery.

+ 190 ii. Horace A. Russell, b. 16 Feb. 1787.

191 iii. Betsey Russell, b. 2 Sept. 1788; m. Randolph, Vt., 9 Feb. 1824, Seth Crocker (d. Mch. 1831); four children.[278]

+ 192 iv. Elijah Pember Russell, b. 9 June 1790.

66. JOHN[4] RUSSELL was born at East Windsor, Hartford County, Conn., 11 December 1761, youngest child of Samuel[3] and Mary (Hoff) Russell.[105] He died at Rodman, Jefferson County, New York, 22 June 1844, age 82 years.[289] At Windsor, Conn., 20 July 1781, he married MARTHA/"PATTY" THRALL.[289] She was born at Windsor, Conn., 17 September 1760, daughter of David and Jane (Barber) Thrall.[105] She died in Jefferson County, New York, 28 May 1834, age 73 years.[289] They are buried in Fair View Cemetery at Rodman.

In late May 1778, at the age of sixteen, he went to visit relatives at Springfield and Wilbraham, Mass. While at Wilbraham he enlisted about 1 June 1778 as a Private in the Continental service for nine months. He passed muster at Hadley, Mass., by Major Woodbridge, muster master. After a visit to his father's home in Windsor, he reported to duty at Fishkill, New York, in Captain Flower's Company. About two weeks later, when all the nine-months men had assembled, they joined the Continental Army at West Point, New York. He was in 1st Lt. William Watson's Company, Major Cleft's Battalion, Col. James Wesson's 9th Mass. Regiment, General Barnard's Brigade. Their chief rendezvous was from Fishkill to Kingsbridge, sometimes at White Plains and at West Point, Peekskill Highlands. On 17 October 1778 they were at Danbury Hill, Conn. They encamped at Hartford, Conn., until the first week of December 1778, when they returned to winter at Fishkill Barracks, where he was discharged 1 March 1779, and returned to brother Jacob's home at Windsor, Conn.[290]

His powder horn, made in 1775, and given to him by his older brother Cornelius, is described in Cornelius's account [see above].

On 1 July 1780 he reenlisted for six months as a Private in Captain Thomas Weed's (also known as Captain Solomon Strong's) Company, Colonel Philip Bradley's 5th Conn. Regiment. He served in the Conn. Division with the main Army on both sides of the Hudson River. They wintered at Camp Connecticut Village near Robinson's House opposite West Point [present Garrison, Putnam County]. He was discharged 2 December 1780 at the Highlands, North River, New York.[290]

He also served three additional tours of duty of two months each in the Connecticut State Militia during the War, according to his later allegation.[290]

At the age of nineteen he married, and they remained at Windsor until 10 May 1799, when they moved to "near Troy," Renssalaer County, New York. They lived there until 1 June 1806, when they moved to Lorraine, Jefferson County, New York.[291] He was a joiner and carpenter by trade, and was able to read and write well. In about 1817 he destroyed his records, papers, and discharge certificates, about nine months before the Federal Pension Act was passed. They were still living at Lorraine in the Spring of 1819 when he applied for a pension based on his Revolutionary War service. He had walked back to Massachusetts to secure the affidavit of a Springfield man who had served with him, only to find that the man had died. He was not able to furnish adequare proof of his service and his claim was disallowed. At that time he possessed the following livestock: one cow, one yearling, one calf, three sheep, and one hog, animals subsequently expended for his and his wife's support.[290]

He was head of family at Lorraine Township in 1820, he and wife age 45 or more, living next to their son-in-law Thomas Hungerford.[292] In 1823 at the age of about 61 he was no longer able to work at his trade and became dependent upon his children for support.[290] By deed dated 12 May 1824, of Lorraine, he purchased for $1000 from William and Mary Williams of Adams, Jefferson County, 2 acres and 14 perches of land in great lot 53 and partly in great lot 54 in the village of Smith's Mills or Adams, in the Town of Adams, on the highway leading from Sandy Creek ... highway leading to Lorraine ... the premises now occupied by [his son] Alanson Russell as a Tavern Stand.[293] He was head of family in Lorraine Town in 1825, age over 45 and eligible to vote, with one female in his household, having two acres of land, one cattle, and having produced 7 yards of wool in the past year.[294] By deed dated 26 August 1828 John and Martha Russell of Lorraine sold to [their son] Alanson Russell of Adams, for $300, the land now occupied by Alanson in great lot 53 and part of great lot 54 in the village of Adams in the Town of Adams, being the Tavern Stand now occupied by Alanson.[295]

On 2 December 1831, now living at Adams, he again made application for a pension. He was able to furnish sufficient evidence of entitlement and financial need and the pension was allowed. He was issued certificate no. 20382 on 4 January 1832, for a pension of $8 per month to commence on that date. Supporting his application was a schedule of his personal property dated 6 December 1831, which the clerk of the Common Pleas Court judged to have a total value of $24.81. The following items were listed:[290]

- 3 plain chairs
- 1 table
- 1 candle stand
- 3 small plain chests
- 1 pot
- 1 dish
- 1 kettle
- 6 knives and forks
- 6 tea cups and saucers
- 1 musket
- 3 plates
- 2 bowls
- 6 spoons
- some old joiner's tools:
  - 1 broad axe
  - 1 adze
  - 1 square
  - 3 augers
  - 1 pair chisels
  - 1 coarse hand saw
  - 2 fine saws
  - 1 jointer plane
  - 1 jack plane
  - 1 smooth plane
  - several smaller tools of very little value
- 1 narrow axe
- 1 hoe

On 10 March 1835, the year following the death of Martha his wife, he leased a house for three years at Lorraine.[296] He appears there in the 1835 census, age over 45 and eligible to vote, with one female in his household, owning one cattle, two hogs, and having produced eleven yards of flannel and wool in the past year.[297]

In the Fall of 1837 he made an agreement to purchase "a very convenient house and a little spot of land," to move into upon the expiration of his lease. But his health was so poor in March 1838 that his neighbors did not expect him to get well, and the house was sold to another man. On 17 June 1838 John wrote to his grandson George H. Russell, stating that, because of his poor health, he had been unable to vacate the leased house, but that he had asked his son-in-law Hungerford of Rodman to let him use one of his spare buildings.[296] He probably moved to Rodman before the Winter of 1838, and he was listed there in the 1840 census of pensioners.

In Jefferson County on 12 September 1844 his grandson Cyrenus Flint made affidavit that John was survived by four children, and that he received a pension of $8 per month.[298] There is a DAR marker on his grave in Fair View Cemetery at Rodman.

John and Martha/"Patty" (Thrall) Russell had the following children, the first eight having been born at Windsor, Conn.:[105,289,291]

196 i. Clarinda Russell, b. 23 Dec. 1781; m. ca. 1798-1799, Nathaniel Hills; lived at Athens, Bradford Co., Pa., 1830-1844.[298]

68. HEZEKIAH[4] RUSSELL was born in Ellington parish, Windsor, Conn., 18 March 1745, oldest son of Nathan[3] and Sarah Russell.[105] He died at Orwell, Bradford County, Pennsylvania, 3 January 1823.[300] In the late 1760s he married LYDIA GROVER, as his first wife. She was born ca. 1745-1746, probably a daughter of Ebenezer and Zerviah (Larrabee) Grover of Tolland, Conn.[301] She died at Orwell, Pa., 11 October 1819, age 73 years.[302] She and Hezekiah are buried in Orwell Valley Cemetery, 8th row.[300] Captain Hezekiah Russell, age 78, and Mrs. ELEANOR OSBORNE, age 74, both of Orwell, were married by the Rev. Elihu Buttles, 22 October 1822.[303]

From Ellington Parish, East Windsor, Conn., Hezekiah was a Private in Charles Ellsworth's Ellington Parish Train Band Company, which in April 1775, after the Lexington Alarm, marched from East Windsor to the relief of Boston, eleven days service, including six days of travel. In 1776 he served in Captain Fitch's Company, Lt. Col. Pitkin's 19th Regiment, which arrived for the defense of New York City 24 August 1776. Total of 27 days service, including 14 days travel (144 miles from N.Y.); discharged 6 September 1776. He is said to have served throughout the War and to have been at the Battle of Bunker Hill.[304]

By deed dated 26 November 1781 Hezekiah received land at Tolland Center, Conn., by judgment from Joseph Kilburn.[305] On 6 December 1785 he was appointed a member of the East Windsor school committee. He was a voter at East Windsor 12 September 1786.[110] In 1786 he was Ellington Town surveyor of highways and tax collector.[306] In 1790 he was head of family at Ellington, with three men age 16 or more, two boys under age 16, and nine females.[178] Of Ellington, by deed dated 28 March 1799 he was deeded land in North District, Tolland Town, by Abijah Ladd.[307]

On 1 July 1799 he was bonded as administrator of his father's estate at Ellington.[130] In 1799 he and his wife were members of the Ellington Congregational Church.[110] He was head of family at Ellington in 1800, he and wife age over 45, with male and female age 16 to 25, and male and female age 10 to 15.[308] By deed dated 20 May 1807 he deeded land in Lord District, Tolland Township, to Roswell Russell.[309] On 7 April 1812 he and Roswell Russell received a mortgage loan for land at Lord District from Samuel Cutter.[310] He was excommunicated from the Ellington Congregational Church in April 1813.[110]

Before 1812 they settled at Orwell Hill, Ransom Corners, in Orwell Township, Bradford County, Pennsylvania, where his son Dan had previously settled. Hezekiah was a voter in Orwell Township in 1812, and a member of the Orwell Library Company.[311] In 1820 he was living alone in Orwell Township, age over 45 years, next door to his children Roswell, Hezekiah, and Roxanna.[312]

Children of Hezekiah and Lydia (Grover) Russell, all probably born at Ellington, Conn. [order uncertain]:

207 i. Mary/"Polly" Russell, m. Stephen Colton; lived in Vt., settled at Rootstown, Portage Co., Ohio, 1805.
208 ii. Hannah Russell, m. [—?—] Merriam; remained in Conn.
+ 209 iii. Daniel Russell, b. 25 Sept. 1770.
+ 210 iv. Michael Russell, b. ca. 1770-1771.
211 v. Sarah/"Sally" Russell, b. ca. 1775; m. Ellington, 28 June 1796, John Aborn of Tolland, she of Ellington (he b. 23 June 1761; d. 19 Apr. 1829); eleven children b. at Tolland.[313]
+ 212 vi. Hezekiah Russell, Jr., b. 1 Dec. 1783.
+ 213 vii. Roswell Russell, b. Tolland Co., Conn., 4 July 1784.
214 viii. Roxanna Russell, m. ca.1809, Anson Collins (1789-1833); lived in Orwell Twp., Bradford Co., Pa.

74. WILLIAM[4] RUSSELL, JR., was born at Windsor, Conn., ca. 1742-1745, only known child of William[3] and Elizabeth Russell.[134] He died at Windsor in 1822.[319] In about 1765-1766 he married MARY [—?—]. She was born ca. 1745-1746, and died at Windsor 21 March 1823, age 77 years.[320]

William was mentioned in his grandfather Ebenezer Russell's will, Ellington, Conn., 15 September 1761.[56] In 1772 he, his uncle Ebenezer[3] Russell, his mother Elizabeth, and his step-father Eleazer Kingsbury sold land in Ellington Parish, East Windsor. He was head of family at Windsor in 1790, his household composed of two men age 16 or more, two boys under 16, and four females.[178] By deed dated 3 February 1797 William Russell of Windsor, Conn., purchased from Simon Clark of Hartford, Conn., 600-acre lot 71 in Hannibal Township, Cayuga County, New York. By deed dated 29 October William Russell and wife Mary, of Windsor, Conn., sold the tract for $600 to William Hawley of Woodbury, Conn., and Benjamin Sanford of Ridgefield, Conn. Their sons William, Jr., and Joseph H. Russell witnessed the deed.[321]

William was head of family at Windsor in 1800, he and wife age 45 or more, with one man age 26 to 45, one boy and one girl age 16 to 25, and one girl under age 10.[322] His estate was administered at Windsor in 1822.[319]

William, Jr., and Mary Russell had the following children, all recorded at Windsor, Conn.:[105,320,323]

78. ABNER[4] RUSSELL was born in Ellington Parish, Windsor, Conn., 22 March 1759, son of Ellis[3] and Jane Catherine (Wolcott) Russell.[105] He died at Springfield, Hampden County, Mass., 25 June 1819, age 60 years.[325] Probably at Somers, Conn., on 3 May 1780 he married MARY WARDWELL.[100] She was born at Somers, Conn., 5 June 1760, daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Osborne) Wardwell.[100] She died at Springfield, Mass., 5 [or 8?] August 1826, age 66 years.[100,140]

Abner was a Revolutionary War soldier from Springfield. He was a Private, serving as a "Minuteman" on the Lexington Alarm, 20 April 1775, in Major Andrew Colton's Company, ten days service at Boston. In May 1775 he volunteered as a Private in Captain Gideon Burt's Company, which marched to Roxbury, Mass., remained there eight months. Afterwards he enlisted in Captain Andrew Colton's Company, engaged in Canada Expedition, served nine months. In June 1778 he again enlisted in Captain Colton's Company, for nine months; discharged at Peekskill on the North River, New York, in February 1779. He claimed a total of 23 months military service.[326]

They had children recorded at Longmeadow, Mass., 1784-1789.[190] Abner was head of family at Springfield in 1790, with three boys age under 16 years, and three females.[144] In February 1790 he paid £24 to Justin and Phoebe Lumbard for 38½ acres in Springfield. On 2 May 1792 he paid £8 to Joseph Lumbard of Somers, Conn., for 1½ acres in Springfield. On 7 December 1798 he paid $45 to Rufus Sikes for 25 acres in Springfield.[327] By deed dated 16 February 1798 Abner and wife Mary of Springfield conveyed to Daniel Burbank of Somers, Conn., the one-half acre in Somers, which had been set out to Mary from her father Samuel Wardwell's estate.[328] Abner was head of family at Springfield in 1810, he and wife age 45 or more, with one girl age under 10.[239]

Abner and Mary (Wardwell) Russell had the following children, all recorded at Springfield unless otherwise specified:[140,190]

+ 225 i. Elias Russell, b. 7 Oct. 1780.

83. OLIVER[4] RUSSELL was born at Springfield, Mass., 9 May 1777, a son of Ellis[3] and Jane Catherine (Wolcott) Russell.[140] He died, probably in Shelby Township, Orleans County, New York, 15 September 1841. At Springfield, Mass., 19 July 1798, he married NANCY NEWTON of Springfield.[140] She died before 1813, probably in Ontario County, New York. Oliver married, secondly, about 1813, CATHERINE GRANT. She was born in Mass., about 1796, and died in Oneida Township, Eaton County, Michigan, 29 December 1872, a widow, age 76 years.[335]

Oliver was head of family in Longmeadow, Hampshire [now Hampden] County, Mass., in 1800, he and wife age 16 to 25, with one girl age under 10.[146] When his oldest child, daughter Nancy, was about five years old [i.e., ca. 1804] the family moved to Ontario County, New York.[336] Oliver served in the War of 1812 as a Private in Captain James Rees's Ontario County Company, 7th Regiment of Artillery, New York Militia, commencing 13 July 1812, and receiving $7.11 pay. The company marched from Geneva, where it was raised, to Pultneyville on the lake frontier and at Sodus. By 19 August the men were discharged and returned to their home. He later served in Captain Noble's Company, New York Militia.[337]

In 1830 Oliver was head of family in Arcadia Township, Wayne County, New York, age 50 to 59, with wife age 30 to 39, one female 15 to 19, two boys and one girl 10 to 14, one girl 5 to 9, and three girls age under 5.[338] In 1840 he was head of family in Shelby Township, Orleans County, New York, age 60 to 69, with one woman 70 to 79, his wife 40 to 49, two men and one woman 20 to 29, one girl 10 to 14, two girls 5 to 9, and one boy under age 5.[339] (No land records are found for him in either Wayne or Orleans counties, and there are no probate records for him in Orleans County.)

Oliver's widow Catherine (Grant) Russell, age 46, of Eaton County, Michigan, married at the home of Henry A. French, to Henry L. Worden, age 60, also of Eaton County, by L. H. L'Ions, Justice of the Peace in Eaton County, 22 June 1844.[340] (Worden died there in 1846, leaving a probate record.)

The widow Catherine (Grant) (Russell) Worden married Daniel Chadwick before 1850, when he was head of family in Delta Township, Eaton County, Michigan, a farmer, age 53, born in Massachusetts. Catherine's age was given as 52 years, also born in Massachusetts. Living with them were Amanda Russell, age 15, and Jabez Russell, age 14, both born in New York State. In the same dwelling, but in a separate David and Sally Saunders family, lived her daughter Abigail Russell, age 17, born in Michigan [sic].[341]

Oliver's remarried widow Catherine Chadwick claimed War of 1812 bounty land for the benefit of his minor orphan Amanda Russell, and was issued a warrant for 160 acres under the Act of 1855.[337]

Oliver and Nancy (Newton) Russell had the following children:

241 i. Nancy Russell, b. Springfield, Mass., 22 May 1799;[140] d. Reading, Mich., 8 Jan. 1889; buried Gleason Cemetery; m. Ontario Co., N.Y., 10 Sept. 1815, Robert Berry (1783-1847) of Seneca, Ontario Co., N.Y.; twelve children.[342]

\+ 242 ii. Oliver Newton Russell, b. Springfield, Mass., 3 Sept. 1801.[343]

243 iii. Elizabeth/"Betsey" Russell, b. Phelps, Ontario Co., N.Y., 1805; d. 1851; m. 1823, Gardner Berry (1801-1871) of Shelby Twp., Orleans Co., N.Y.; six children.[344]

\+ 244 iv. Solomon Russell, b. N.Y., 1808-1809.

Oliver and Catherine (Grant) Russell had the following children, all born in New York State:[337]

245 v. Mary M. Russell, b. 20 Nov. 1814.

\+ 246 vi. John W. Russell, b. 27 Apr. 1818.

247 vii. William Russell, b. 13 Jan. 1820.

248 viii. Sarah/"Sally" Russell, b. 26 Apr. 1822; m. ca.1841, David Saunders; they lived with her mother, Delta Twp., Eaton Co., Mich., 1850.[341]

249 ix. Levi [I. or J.?] Russell, b. 6 Feb. 1824.

250 x. Julia A. Russell, b. 6 Jan. 1826.

251 xi. Susan Russell, b. 24 Sept. 1827; m. Oneida Twp., Eaton Co., Mich., 4 Dec. 1843, she age 15, Henry French, age 26, both of Oneida Twp., where they were living in 1850.[345]

252 xii. Jane C. Russell, b. 30 May 1830.

253 xiii. Abigail Russell, b. 23 Mch. 1833; m. at age 18, 8 Oct. 1851, Samuel Chadwick, age 22, both on Oneida Twp., Eaton Co., Mich.[346]

85. JETHRO[4] RUSSELL was born at Danvers, Essex County, Mass., 18 January 1740/1, and baptized at the Danvers First Church 3 June 1750, the oldest child of Benjamin, Jr., and Hannah (Russell) Russell.[81] He died at Danvers 26 February 1833, aged 93 years.[81,348] At Reading, Middlesex County, Mass., 19 April 1764 he married HANNAH MACKENTIRE of Reading.[29,81] She was born at Reading 30 October 1744, daughter of Joseph and Deborah (Russell) [she is no. 14 above] Mackentire.[29]

By deed dated 19 April 1774 Jethro Russell of Danvers bought land and buildings in Danvers from Jonathan and Hannah Russell of Danvers for £120, it being part of Jonathan's farm, bounded in part by land of Benjamin Russell, Jr., and being about 30 acres.[91] On 19 March 1777 Jethro witnessed a deed from John and Elizabeth Russell to Eli Russell of Danvers.[80] In 1790 Jethro was head of family at Danvers, with himself, one boy age under 16, and three females.[144] In 1798 at Danvers he was taxed as occupant and owner of a house of 1000 square feet, two stories, 10 windows, 44 square feet of glass, built of wood, on 80 parcels, valued at $150, located south of Jeremiah Flint, west of Benjamin Russell, Jr., east and north on the River, with a 30X20 barn, on 29 acres, valued at $400.[170] At Danvers in 1800 his household was composed of himself and his wife age 45 or more, and one male and one female age 16 to 25.[349] Jethro's first will was dated 20 March 1822, and mentioned his deceased son Archelaus Russell's widow Phebe and sons Warren and Elijah Russell; sons Jethro and Ebenezer Russell of Danville, Vermont; children of deceased daughter Nobby Bancroft; and granddaughters Phebe and Deborah Russell. Joseph Shedd was appointed executor. The will was filed in May 1833. Joseph Shedd refused to act as executor 7 May 1833. Jethro's second will was dated 15 September 1829. Daughter-in-law Phebe Russell was to have one-third of his real estate for her lifetime. Granddaughters Phebe and Deborah Russell to receive $200 each. Son Ebenezer Russell to receive $100. Note of $100 from son Jethro Russell to be canceled. $1 each to two daughters of daughter Zibeth Bancroft. To grandsons Warren and Elijah Russell, two-thirds of real estate and other one-third of real estate on death of Phebe Russell. Grandson Warren Russell and John Flint of Middleton to be executors. Witnessed by Asa Russell, Samuel Flint, and Eleazer Putnam. The account was dated 31 March 1834 and allowed by the Court in November 1835. Deborah Buxton received $200. Phebe Russell, now [Johns?], had remarried by 31 March 1834.[350]

Jethro and Hannah (Mackentire) Russell had the following children born at Danvers, Mass.:[81]

+ 256 i. Jethro Russell, Jr., b. 16 Sept. 1764.
+ 257 ii. Ebenezer Russell, b. 8 Jan. 1767.

90. BENJAMIN[4] RUSSELL, 3rd, was born at Danvers, Essex County, Mass., 21 March 1757, the youngest son of Benjamin, Jr., and Hannah (Russell) Russell.[81] He died at Danvers 26 [22 or 21?] April 1838, age 81 years.[358] His first marriage was at Danvers, 25 December 1777, to HANNAH PUTNAM.[81] She was born there 9 January 1755, daughter of Asa and Sarah Putnam,[81] and died there 1 September 1794, age 42 years; buried in the Russell family private burying ground at West Peabody, Mass.[81] Benjamin's second marriage was at Danvers, 10 September 1795, to RUTH HUTCHINSON.[81] She was born at Danvers 23 May 1752, daughter of Amos and Hannah Hutchinson,[359] and died at Danvers 7 April 1838, age 85 years.[360]

Benjamin Russell was head of family at Danvers in 1790 with one boy under age 16 and three females.[144] At Danvers he was taxed in 1798 for a barn on 30 acres (valued at $270) and a river meadow in Middleton (valued at $30), bounded by Benjamin Russell, Sr., and on the east by Jethro Russell.[170] Styled "Junior," he was head of family at Danvers in 1800, age 16 to 44, with woman age over 45, one male 16 to 25, one girl 10 to 15, and one boy and one girl under 10.[349]

Benjamin Russell's will was dated 18 June 1834, mentioning wife Ruth. Daughter Betsey Hutchinson to receive some personal property and half of his Hart Pasture of 40 acres in Lynnfield. Mentioned grandsons Silas and Elisha Jeffery, sons of his daughter Sally Jeffery. Son Asa Russell to receive two-thirds of the real estate and the remainder upon widow Ruth's death. Asa Russell appointed executor. Witnesses were Elijah Russell, Samuel Flint, and Edward Putnam.[361]

On 3 May 1838 Asa Russell notified Silas Jeffery of Reading and Elisha Jeffery of Middleton that he would present the will at Salem Court the 3rd Tuesday of May. On 15 May 1838 Asa petitioned the Court to be appointed executor, and Betsey and Levi Hutchinson agreed to the will, which was allowed by the Court 3rd Tuesday of May. The inventory was made at Danvers 23 May 1838 by Joseph Shed, Samuel Taylor, and William Smith. Included were the 60-acre homestead in Danvers, 30-acre woodlot, 40-acre Flint Lot or sawmill field in Danvers and Middleton, 40-acre Hart Lot in Lynnfield. Total appraisal of $9241.68. In September 1838 Levi and Betsey Hutchinson acknowledged receipt of $925.84, and on 21 February 1839 Silas and Elisha Jeffery acknowledged receipt of $100 each from the estate.[361]

Benjamin and Hannah (Putnam) Russell had the following children born at Danvers:[81]

95. GIDEON[5] RUSSELL, JR., was born at Somers, Conn., 26 December 1760, the first child of Gideon and Mary (Parsons) Russell.[64] He died in Russell Township, Geauga County, Ohio, 7 November 1837, age 76 years, and he and his wife are buried in the southwest corner of Morton Cemetery three miles southwest of Newbury Center.[363] At Middlefield, Mass., on 9 February 1786, his intention to marry JEMIMA ALVORD was published.[183] She was born at South Hadley, Mass., 3 December 1767, daughter of Gideon and Sarah (Montague) Alvord.[364] She died in Russell Township, Ohio, 26 November 1837, age 69 years.[363,365]

On or about 1 September 1779, a resident of Somers, he enlisted for six months in Captain Daniel Allen's Company, Colonel Levi Welles's Regiment, and immediately went to New London with Ensign Fobes to join the company, where he was stationed until December 1779, as a Private. They then marched to New Haven, remaining there until 1 March 1780, when he was discharged, his term having expired. The regiment was distributed along the coast to guard against any invasion attempt by the British.

On 1 April 1781 [or 25 May 1782, confusion about these dates], a resident of Somers, he enlisted in Captain Sanford's Company, Colonel Isaac Sherman's Regiment, General Simon Huntington's Brigade of the Connecticut Line. He immediately went to the Hudson River Highlands, where he was stationed for a few weeks. The Brigade then marched to Robinson's Fields where they remained some time. They then marched to Dobb's Ferry opposite Stoney Point. In November of December 1781 [1782?] they marched to West Point winter quarters, where he was discharged 1 January 1782 [or 27 December 1782?], having served nine months [seven months, two days, according to penciled note on pension claim], the time for which he had enlisted. He was not engaged in any battle during either term of service.[366]

He lived at Somers with his parents until April 1782 [1783?], when they settled at Middlefield, Hampshire County, Mass., where he resided for 36 [35?] years.[366] After his marriage they lived for a short time at South Hadley, Mass., ca. 1786-1787.[364] In 1790 they were living near his parents north of Middlefield Center, the household composed of two men, three boys under 16, and one female.[144] His wife Jemima was received into the Middlefield Church by letter from the South Hadley Church 10 February 1793. Gideon was admitted to the church in 1802.[367]

After 1797 Gideon purchased lot 145 in the Worthington Section of Middlefield from his brother Abel Russell. In 1800 they were living on his farm there. He was head of family in Middlefield in 1810, he and wife age 45 or more, with four males and one female 16 to 25, one girl 10 to 15, and one boy and two girls under 10.[239]

In 1818 they moved to the Connecticut Western Reserve, settling in what was then Chester Township in Geauga County, Ohio. With their daughter Sally they were dismissed from the Middlefield Church to the church at Huntsburg, Geauga County, Ohio, 6 September 1818.[367] They were among the first settlers in that area; their farm was located on present Chillicothe Road south of Russell Township Center. They were among the organizational members of the Bainbridge Congregational Church on 9 June 1819.[368]

Gideon was head of family in Chester Township, Geauga County, Ohio, in 1820, he and wife age 45 or more, with one man 26 to 44, two women 16 to 25, and one man 19 to 25, the three men being engaged in agriculture.[369] By deed dated 3 May 1826 Gideon paid $1599 to his son William for 100 acres, being lots 11 and 12 in Russell Township.[370] In 1827 Russell Township was organized and named after Gideon, and he was elected the first township trustee.[368] In 1830 he was head of family there, he and wife age 60 to 69, with one man and one woman 30 to 39, two boys 10 to 14, two girls 5 to 9, and two boys and one girl under 5.[371]

Gideon, with his wife Jemima and daughter Sarah were original members of the Newbury Congregational Church on 15 April 1832.[368] On 4 April 1834, a resident of Russell Township, age 73 years, Gideon applied for a pension based on his service in the Revolutionary War. In describing his second term of service he may have given the dates a year too early, as suggested by a penciled note on the claim record. His claim was allowed and a pension certificate issued 22 April 1834, at the rate of $43.55 per annum retroactive to 4 March 1834.[366]

Gideon, Jr., and Jemima (Alvord) Russell had the following children, all born at Middlefield, Mass., except possibly the first child:[181,183,364]

97. ABEL[5] RUSSELL was born at Somers, Conn., 13 February 1765, son of Gideon and Mary (Parsons) Russell.[64] He died at Mentor, Lake County, Ohio, 26 June 1856, age 91 years, and is buried with his wife in Mentor Center Cemetery.[375] Of Somers, Conn., he married at Wilbraham, Mass., 19 January 1791, SILENCE ATCHISON.[245] She was born 19 September 1767 and died at Mentor, Ohio, 16 October 1828.[375]

His parents settled at Middlefield, Hampshire County, Mass., in 1783. He was a member of the Middlefield School Committee in 1799 and 1806.[181] He was head of family there in 1810, he and wife age 45 or more, with one female 16 to 25, three boys 10 to 15, and one girl under 10.[239] He served from Middlefield in the War of 1812.[181] They lived there until as late as 24 June 1814, on which date he paid $200 to Isaac and Jerusha Herrick of Washington, Berkshire County, Mass., for 100 acres in south part of lot no. 16 in Chester Township No. 8, Range 9, Geauga County, Ohio.[376]

They settled at Mentor, Ohio, before 2 May 1817, when, of Mentor, he paid $200 to Henry and Abigail Champion of Colchester, Conn., for 53½ acres in the east part of lot no. 8 in Mentor Township.[377] He was head of family there in 1820, he and wife age 45 or more, with three males age 19 to 25, one female 16 to 25, and one boy under 10; three males engaged in agriculture.[369] Of Mentor, by deed dated 10 January 1822, he paid $500 to Isaac and Lucy Morley of Kirtland, Lake County, Ohio, for 110 acres in lot no. 2, Mentor Township.[378] Of Mentor, by deed dated 17 April 1829 he paid $1.00 to David Wilson of Mentor for 43-65/100 acres in lot no. 8, Mentor Township.[379]

Abel was head of family in Mentor Township in 1830, age 60 to 69, with three men 30 to 39, one woman 20 to 29, one male 15 to 19, and one girl 10 to 14.[371] By deed dated 3 April 1832, of Mentor, he paid $15.00 to Lewis Carpenter of Mentor for 8/10ths of an acre in lot no. 9, Mentor Township.[380] Of Mentor, by deed dated 3 April 1832 he paid $15 to Warren and Elizabeth Corning of Mentor for another 81/100ths of an acre part of lot no. 9 in Mentor Township.[380]

Of Mentor, on 4 April 1834, at age 68, he made a deposition to support his brother Gideon Russell's pension claim. He stated that during the Revolutionary War he resided with his father at Somers, Conn., that he was a brother of Gideon Russell, now of Russell Township, Geauga County, Ohio, and that he distinctly recalled that his brother had enlisted in the service and was absent from home for six months in the summer or fall of 1779, and that in the spring or summer of 1781 his brother again enlisted for six to twelve months.[366]

Abel and Silence (Atchison) Russell had the following children born at Middlefield, Mass.:[183]

i. [infant], b. and d. 13 Apr. 1792.

282 ii. Lillis Russell, b. 11 Oct. 1793; d. Mentor, Ohio, 23 Feb. 1852; buried Mentor Center Cemetery; m. Thomas Morley of Mentor (b. 15 July 1794; d. Mentor, 26 Mch. 1887).[375]

110. WILLIAM "EMERY"[5] RUSSELL was born at Longmeadow, Mass., 15 March 1789, "Emery Russell 2nd," son of Emery and Eleanor (Smith) Russell.[190] He died at New Lisbon, Centre Township, Columbiana County, Ohio, 11 June 1853, age 62 yrs. 6 mos. [which suggests a different birthdate]; buried with wife in Lisbon Cemetery.[386] Of Norwich, New London County, Conn., he married at Palmer, Hampden County, Mass., 1 May 1817, MARY POTTER.[387] She was born in Mass. ca. January 1795, and died at New Lisbon, Ohio, 21 July 1868, age 73 yrs. 6 mos.; buried in Lisbon Cemetery.[386] She married, second, in Columbiana County, Ohio, before 1867, John Armstrong.[388]

He is called Emery Russell, Jr., in his father's 1807 will at Longmeadow. Joseph W. Cooley was appointed his guardian.[193] In 1810 he was head of the family at Longmeadow, Hampshire County, Mass., age 16 to 25, with his mother age 45 or more.[239] At the time of his marriage in 1817 he was living at Norwich, New London County, Conn.[387] His wife Mary was admitted to and baptized at the Norwich First Congregational Church 1 March 1818, and dismissed to the New Lisbon, Ohio, Church 2 June 1822.[389]

Henceforth known as William E. Russell, an attorney at law, he settled in the town of New Lisbon, Centre Township, Columbiana County, Ohio. He served as Columbiana County

Representative to the Ohio General Assembly 1819-1820, and 1824-1826, was New Lisbon Village Recorder 1827-1828, Village Council President 1829 and 1836, and County Court Clerk 1838-1845.[390] He was head of family at New Lisbon Town in 1840, age 50-59, with wife 40-49, male 20-29, two females 15-19, one boy 10-14, and one boy 5-9. The two men were engaged in learned professions.[391] In 1850 he was head of family in Centre Township, age 58, attorney at law, with real estate valued at $6500, born in Mass. Wife Mary P., 55, born in Mass. Living with them were: M. Spencer (female), 25, born N.Y.; Caroline Bail, 20, born Tenn.; and Bridget Devil, 16, born Ohio.[392]

The will of William E. Russell of New Lisbon, Ohio, was dated 30 June 1851, and a codicil was made 11 May 1853. It was probated in Columbiana County Court of Common Pleas 14 June 1853, and the inventory of his personal estate made 27 June 1853. Bequests were made to daughter Laura, now married to Dr. J. T. McVay; to daughter Mary Ann, wife of Dr. F. Casper; to daughter Lucretia F., wife of James R. Mears; to son George; and to wife Mary. He appointed wife Mary and friend John Clarke executors. He mentioned real property in Glasgow, Beaver County, Pa.;[393] New Lisbon, Ohio; middle fork of Little Beaver Creek between New Lisbon and Canton, Ohio; Petersburgh, Mahoning County, Ohio; mouth of Little Beaver Creek and the Ohio River; town lots and land adjoining Lodi, Carroll County, Ohio; pottery at New Lisbon; and 78-acre farm and lots at New Lisbon. Among the many papers is the executor's final account made in 1873.[394]

Also at the Probate Division are twenty-three items in the probate of the estate of Mary P. Russell Armstrong.[395] Her second marriage record is also on file there.[388]

According to his will, William Emery Russell had the following children, all but the oldest probably by his wife Mary (Potter) Russell:[394]

306 i. Lucretia Frances Russell, m. Columbiana Co., Ohio, 22 Mch. 1833, James Rockwell Mears;[396] in 1873 her heirs were E. Russell Mears of Louisville, Ky.; Caroline Elizabeth MacCormac of St. Joseph, Mo.; and Mrs. Ellen S. Ray.[394]

307 ii. Mary Ann Russell, b. Steubenville, Ohio, 1822; m. 1839, Dr. Ferdinand Casper; lived at Niles, Ohio, in 1873.[397]

308 iii. Laura J. Russell, m. Columbiana Co., Ohio, 5 Sept. 1848, Dr. James T. McVay.[396]

309 iv. George W. Russell.

115. DANIEL[5] RUSSELL, JR., was born at Danvers, Essex County, Mass., in May 1766, [according to his pension application] or [more likely] circa 1768-1769 [according to 1850 Census], son of Daniel and Lydia (Mackentire) Russell.[200] He was of Danvers in 1782 when Eli Upton was appointed his guardian.[200] In his later pension application Daniel alleged Revolutionary War service as follows. Enlisted July 1781 with Captain Crow on board a ship General Greene for six months; sailed from Salem, Mass., on a cruise to Sheepscoat Bay, Falmouth, Penobscot, where the ship ran aground and was destroyed. He then returned home, after total of nine months service. In April 1782 enlisted on board sloop Tiger, Captain John Hathaway, and sailed from Salem, cruising on the ocean and to New York, for term of three months.[398]

In 1791, of Danvers, he and his brother William were bonded and appointed administrators of their father's estate.[201] In about 1790 he married HULDAH BABCOCK.[398] She was born in Massachusetts circa 1772-1773 [according to 1850 Census] or circa 1767-1768 [1855 Census]. They were living in 1855 at West Monroe, Oswego County, New York.

Daniel may possibly be the man of this name who was listed as an occupant at New Salem, Franklin County, Mass., in 1798, with other relatives from Danvers.[196] There was one grantee deed for Daniel at New Salem in the period 1796-1812.[399]

He was head of family at Windsor, Windsor County, Vermost, in 1800, he and wife age 26 to 44, with five boys under age 10.[285] By 1810 they were living at Broadalbin, Montgomery [now Fulton] County, New York, where he was listed in the census of 1810, he and wife age 26 to 44, with two males 16 to 25, two boys 10 to 15, two boys and three girls under age 10.[400]

In about 1813 or 1814 they moved to Vienna, Oneida County, New York, where he was head of family in 1820, he age over 45, with wife age 26 to 44, two males 16 to 25, one female 16 to 18, one boy and one girl 10 to 15, and one girl under age 10. Also listed there were Hazen and Aaron Russell.[401] In 1830 he was head of family at Vienna, he and wife age 60 to 69, with one male and two females 20 to 29, and one boy 10 to 14. Hazen, Aaron, and Daniel, Jr., were also listed there at that time.[402]

A resident of Vienna for 19 years, on 12 March 1833 Daniel, age 67 years, applied for a pension based on alleged Revolutionary War naval service [as described above]. He described his previous residences [as above]. His claim was rejected, probably because he was unable to provide proof of his service.[398]

In 1840 he was head of family at West Monroe, Oswego County, New York, he and wife age 70 to 79; living alone.[403] Jonathan, Aaron, and Elias Russell also were listed in the town then.[403] In 1850 at West Monroe he gave his age as 81, born in Massachusetts; Huldah, age 77, born in Massachusetts; daughter Tharza Russell, age 38, born in N.Y., deaf and dumb; Sanford Russell, 31, born in N.Y. Their son Aaron lived next door.[404] At the 1855 State Census they are living at West Monroe with their grandson Daniel[7] Russell, and Daniel's age is given as 89, Huldah's as 87, both born in Massachusetts, and daughter Thersa Russell is with them, age 43, born in Montgomery County, N.Y.[405]

By 1860 they are no longer listed at West Monroe, and their handicapped daughter Tharsey Russell is living with her brother Elias Russell at Constantia, Oswego County. No probate record is found for Daniel in Oswego County, and their death records are not found.

It is presumed that the following were the children of Daniel and Huldah (Babcock) Russell, based on census records:

+ 310 i. Daniel Russell, Jr., b. Windsor, Vt., ca. 1790-1791.
+ 311 ii. Hazen Russell, b. Windsor, Vt., ca.1792-1793.
iii. [son], b. ca.1790-1800.
+ 312 iv. Aaron Russell, b. Windsor, Vt., ca.1796-1797.
+ 313 v. Jonathan Russell, b. ca.1798.
vi. [daughter], b. ca.1800-1810.
vii. [daughter], b. ca.1802-1804.
+ 314 viii. Elias Russell, b. Broadalbin, N.Y., ca.1806.
ix. [daughter], b. ca.1805-1810.
315 x. Theresy/Thersa/Tharsey/Therza Russell, b. Broadalbin, N.Y., ca.1811-1812; unmarried; a deaf mute; living 1870.

116. WILLIAM[5] RUSSELL was born at Danvers, Essex County, Mass., circa 1768 [age 14 in 1782], son of Daniel and Lydia (Mackentire) Russell.[200] At Essex County Court in 1782 his widowed mother gave custody of her sons Daniel and William, age 14 years, to Eli Upton.[200] From Danvers, Mass., in 1800 he was head of family at Bucksport [then called Buckstown], Hancock County, Maine, age 26 to 45, with two males and five females in his household.[406] His wife's name may have been SUSAN [--?--].[407] The following Bucksport men may have been their children:

+ 316 i. Christopher Russell, b. ca.1812.
+ 317 ii. John Russell, b. ca.1813.

118. JEREMIAH[5] RUSSELL was born in Massachusetts, probably at Danvers, Essex County, circa January or February 1781, son of Eli and Patience (Poor) Russell, who settled at Windsor, Windsor County, Vermont, at about that time. He died at Vestal, Broome County, New York, 19 September 1858, age 77 years 7 months,[411] and was buried in Tracy Creek Cemetery on Tracy Creek Road at Vestal. In about 1808 he married ABIGAIL/"NABBY" [--?--]. She was born in Massachusetts ca.

27 September 1783 and died 11 December 1862, age 79 years 2 months 14 days, "of Vestal, moved to Tracy Creek, widow of Jeremiah Russell."[412](Her gravestone in Tracy Creek Cemetery is illegible.)

Of New Salem, Franklin County, Mass., a yeoman, by deed dated 14 November 1805 Jeremiah Russell paid $13.33 to Daniel Leonard of New Salem for a 2-acre part of lot #106 at New Salem. Eli Russell witnessed the deed.[209] By deed dated 14 November 1807 he paid $12 to widow Patience Thayer of New Salem for one acre in lot #106 in the third division, adjoining his own land at New Salem.[210] By deed dated 22 March 1811 he and Eli Russell paid $90 to James Humphreys of Athol, Mass., for 6½ acres in east end of lot #41, fourth division of New Salem.[211] On the same date he paid $30 to Eli Russell for a 2-acre piece of meadow land, part of lot #41 in the fourth division.[212] By deeds dated 14 October 1811 he sold most or all of his real property at New Salem.[413] In the 1810 Census he was listed there, he and wife age 26 to 44, without any children.[414]

They moved to the Town of Vestal in the Nichols Union Patent, Broome County, New York, before 1820, when he was head of family there, he and wife age 26 to 44 with one boy 10 to 15, and two boys and two girls age under 10.[415] By deed dated 6 March 1826 he paid $112.50 to Eli Russell, both of Vestal, for 50-acre part of lot #9 in Nichols Union Patent.[216] By deed dated 7 September 1829 Jeremiah and wife Abigail purchased from Joseph Almy of Cambridge, N.Y., 100 acres and 92 rods, part of lot #10 in Nichols Union Patent.[416] On the same date Jeremiah and Abigail obtained a mortgage on their two tracts from Joseph Almy, for $399.77. They paid off the mortgage on 5 November 1831.[417]

Jeremiah was head of family at Vestal in 1830, he and wife age 40 to 49, with three males 15 to 19, one boy and two girls 5 to 9, and one girl under 5.[418] By deed dated 27 February 1835 Jeremiah and Abigail/"Nabby" Russell, for $175, sold to Jeremiah Russell, Jr., all of Vestal, 40-acre part of lot #10 in Nichols Union Patent.[419] By a writ dated 26 October 1835 the Sheriff James Stoddard, Jr., seized Jeremiah Russell's land at Vestal (100 acres 92 rods in lot #10, and 50 acres in lot #9), which was sold at public vendue for $447.89, to recover Russell's debt to Richard and Henry Mather.[420]

Jeremiah was head of family at Vestal in 1840, he and wife age 50 to 59, with one male and one female age 15 to 19.[421] In 1850 he was head of family there, age 69, born in Mass., a farmer, with Abigail, 67, born in Mass.; Winslow G., 25, N.Y.: and Malona, 18, N.Y., married within the past year; and Polly Ann, 27, N.Y.[422] In the State Census of 1855 he was listed there, age 76, born Mass., in Broome County 45 years;

Abigail, 71, born Mass., also in county 45 years; Polly, 32, born Broome County, in county 32 years.[423] Jeremiah did not leave a will in Broome County.

Based on land and census records the following may be identified as children of Jeremiah and Abigail Russell:

i. [son], b. ca.1810.

319 ii. Jeremiah Russell, Jr., b. ca.1812-1813; bought land from father in 1835.[419]

iii. [son], b. ca.1816-1820

iv. [daughter], b. ca.1810-1818

v. [daughter], b. ca.1812-1820

320 vi. Polly Ann Russell, b. ca.1822-1823; unmarried, age 32, living at home with parents, 1855, Vestal, N.Y.[423]

321 vii. Winslow Green Russell, b. ca.1824-1825; d. Vestal, N.Y., 9 May 1896, age 71 yrs.; m. ca.1850, Malona H. Noyes.

119. ELI[5] RUSSELL, probably a son of Eli and Patience (Poor) Russell of Danvers, Mass., and Windsor, Vermont, was born circa 1785. In 1810 he was head of a household at Calais, Washington County, Maine, he and a woman age 26 to 44, with two other men age 26 to 44, and three men age 16 to 25.[424]

Eli Russell was a merchant at Calais, associated with the Salem, Mass., firm of Eleazer and Abner Burbank & Co., before 1810. He had purchased land there from John Bohannon and built a house and a store on it. On 13 March 1810, of Calais, he and the Burbanks of Salem declared bankruptcy and assigned their property to John Russell, Jr., broker, and Richard Wheatland, merchant, both of Salem, Mass., for liquidation. On 10 May 1811 Eli Russell sold one-half of an undivided 50-acre tract with house at Calais to John Kilborne. By 19 June 1811 Eli was in New York City, when he appointed his "true friend" John Russell, Jr., of Salem, his attorney to take care of his rights concerning land and money at Calais. Russell in turn appointed Stephen Brewer of Calais to act for him, 5 August 1811.[425]

Shortly after their marriage they settled at Rodman, Jefferson County, New York, where he purchased a farm and was an active citizen. They were members of the Baptist Church. In 1811 he traveled alone to the Western Reserve in Ohio to survey his father's land there. In the Spring of 1812 he returned to Ohio with his brother Ralph and cleared their father's land, planted corn, and built a log cabin. In June-July-August 1812 he assisted his father's family in their settlement at Warrensville, afterwards returning to Rodman.[474]

They left Sackett's Harbor, Jefferson County, N.Y., on 1 April 1813 and arrived at Cleveland village on Lake Erie on 31 August 1813 after a very hard journey. They stayed overnight at Lorenzo Carter's hotel there, and the next day they walked to Rodolphus Edward's home in Newburgh, and the following day to his father's cabin in Warrensville. Their youngest daughter died three days after their arrival in Cleveland. Elijah was then quite ill with the ague, and they had an extremely difficult time building a cabin. His wife Lydia hewed with an adze the stub ends of the floor boards and put them down with the little help Elijah could give her. The family finally moved in toward the end of November 1813, their house having neither door nor window. At that time two of the children were sick with the ague. Elijah worked when the chills and fever left him for a time, putting poles together to build bedsteads and a table.[474]

By deed dated 13 April 1816 Elijah paid $325 to his parents for 100 acres in the north and east parts of lot 23 in Warrensville Township.[475] [See father's account for map showing location of lot 23.] On 8 August 1822 he shared with his siblings in the division of his father's lot 20 in Stark County, Ohio, his share beeing 25 acres 149 rods.[255]

In 1822 his cabin was the meeting place where the North Union Shaker Society was organized. He, his wife, and most of their children joined the Society. Elijah was old-fashioned and eccentric, but made himself very useful in the cultivation of fruit trees. He devoted his time exclusively to the planting of nurseries, setting out orchards, and pruning and grafting. All of the old orchards, of which there were two quite extensive ones, owed their origin and cultivation to Elijah. He was also responsible for all the crops at North Union, which were one of the two chief sources of income for the Society. In 1844 Lydia Russell was removed as Eldest Sister of the Mill Family, being "aged." In 1850 Elijah and Lydia lived at the First Family, he being described in the census as a wagonmaker. In 1851 Lydia was Mill Family Second Elder Sister. In 1852 she was Mill Family Eldress. They both died at the Center Family and were buried in the Old Shaker Burial Ground in lot 22, since destroyed when South Park Boulevard was built.[473]

Elijah and Lydia (Hyde) Russell had the following children:[114,473]

395 i. Melinda Russell, b. Rodman, N.Y., 10 Mch. 1806; d. Watervliet, Ohio, Shaker Society, 22 Oct. 1889, aged 83 yrs.; member of Shaker Society; in 1850 lived in North Union First Family; author of "Reminiscences" of family's settlement in Ohio, published 1883; arrived at Watervliet, Ohio, 10 Sept. 1889; estate probated Cuyahoga Co., Ohio.[474,476]

This family history contains rather complete data about this branch of the family, including some rather candid statements about personalities of the family members.

169. RETURN[5] RUSSELL was born at Windsor, Conn., 1 March 1778 and baptized 5 May 1778, second son of Jacob and Esther (Dunham) Russell.[105] He died at the Center Family, North Union Shaker Society, Warrensville, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, 5 October 1834, aged 55 years, 7 months, and 4 days.[473] At Windsor, Conn., 22 [or 17?] February 1800 he married JERUSHA OSBORNE.[114] She was born at Windsor 20 December 1780, daughter of Ezekiel Osborne, who settled at Rodman, N.Y.[110] She died at the Mill Family, North Union Shaker Society, 23 February 1854, aged 73 years.[473]

They settled at Rodman, Jefferson County, New York, in about 1803. They were members of the Baptist Church, and he was a farmer and lumber dealer. He was head of family at Rodman in 1820, age 26 to 44, engaged in manufacturing.[478]

They settled at Warrensville Township, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, in 1822.[473] On 8 August 1822 he and his siblings agreed to a division of their late father's lot 20 in Paris Township, Stark County, Ohio, Return's share being 6 acres and 95 rods.[255] They joined the North Union Shaker Society in 1823.[473]

By deed dated 23 December 1823 Return paid $1000 to Samuel and Nancy Dodd of Euclid, Ohio, for 118-part of lot 11 in Warrensville Township.[479] By deed dated 26 June 1826 he paid $324 to widow Sarah Parkman of Boston, Mass., for 162-acre part of lot 22 in Warrensville Township.[480] [See his father's account, above, for map showing these lots.] By deed dated 20 September 1828 he and his wife sold the 118 acres in lot 11 to the United Society [Shakers], headquartered at Union Village, Ohio, for $1000, the price he paid for it.[481] Being indebted to Nathaniel and Ruth Church of Salisbury, Conn., for $500, he mortgaged 100 acres in lot 22 to them for $595. He paid off the mortgage loan, and then sold this land also to the United Society [Shakers], for $500 by deed dated 17 January 1828.[482]

Return was First Legal Trustee of the North Union Shaker Society at Warrensville 1828-1834. His wife Jerusha was also First Legal Trustee in 1828, the year she signed the Covenant. According to the Society records, Return was above medium height, broad-chested, square-shouldered, dark-complexioned, and black-haired. He was of a social and genial disposition, intelligent and agreeable in conversation, possessing faculties by nature superior to the ordinary class of men, and was eminently qualified for the position he filled.[473]

He was a laborious man, but - in constructing the dam across the stream at the grist mill - his zeal to do good work carried him beyond his physical powers of endurance, although he was of a strong constitution, and he died "of general debility."[473] In 1850 his widow Jerusha Russell resided in the Second Family, aged 70 years. Both were buried in the North Union Cemetery, since destroyed.[473]

Return and Jerusha (Osborne) Russell had the following children, all but the first were born at Rodman, Jefferson County, New York:[114,473,477]

+ 402 i. Luther Russell, b. West Windsor, Conn., 9 Nov. 1801.

403 ii. Jerusha "Huldah" Russell, b. 3 July 1803; signed Shaker Covenant 1822; d. at Center Family of dyspepsy, 22 June 1845, aged 41 yrs.

404 iii. Edward A. Russell, b. 15 July 1805; d. 18 June 1885, aged 79 yrs.; buried Evergreen Cemetery, Streetsboro, Portage Co., Ohio;[483] appointed Second Elder, Mill Family, North Union Shaker Society, 31 July 1843; released 2 Jan. 1845, and moved to Center Family; later left the Society.[473]

405 iv. Samuel S. Russell, b. 14 May 1807; d. Mantua Station, Portage Co., Ohio, 14 Dec. 1893, aged 86 yrs.; buried with wife, Evergreen Cemetery, Streetsboro;[483] m. 6 Apr. 1859, cousin Adeline Hyde Russell [see no. 398 above]; admitted North Union Shaker Society in Fall of 1823; served as Presiding Elder 15 September 1840, for 18 years. Under his leadership the community reached its culminating point in numbers, material development, and growth. He withdrew from the Society 19 August 1858.[473] He then lived in Wisconsin for several years, where he was a Justice of the Peace. In 1866 he settled at Mantua, Ohio, where he was a coal dealer. One adopted child: George S. Russell, a photographer at Mantua Station, with wife Lovetta Kyle.[484]

406 v. Abigail "Rachel" A. Russell, b. 25 May 1809; d. Watervliet, Ohio, Shaker Society, 14 Jan. 1894, aged 84 yrs.; buried there; North Union Center Family Eldress 1852; First Eldress of First Order 1873; held position of "care and trust;" moved to Watervliet Society 10 Sept. 1889.[473]

+ 407 vi. Robert Ellsworth Russell, b. 15 Feb. 1811.

408 vii. William Henry Harrison Russell, b. 31 Aug. 1813; d. San Diego, Calif., 5 Dec. 1889, aged 76 yrs.; unmarried.

409 viii. Mary Ann "Thankful" Russell, b. 21 May 1816; d. Streetsboro, Ohio, 22 Jan. 1900, aged 83 yrs.; buried Evergreen Cemetery;[483] appointed Elder Sister, Mill Family, North Union, 12 June 1844; res. Fourth Family, 1850, age 34; later m. Nelson R. Phillips of Glenville, Ohio (b. Hinckley, Ohio, 3 Mch. 1827, son of Freeman and Electa Phillips; shoemaker, Office Family, North Union, 1850, age 23; d. Streetsboro, Ohio, 22 Aug. 1907); invalids, on 7 July 1895 they went to live with their niece Sarah E. Russell at Streetsboro, Ohio.[477]

410 ix. Sanford H. [or J.?] Russell, b. 11 May 1818; d. 10 Oct. 1899. According to a letter from his sister "Rachel" Russell, North Union, 1884, "Our good Ministry at Union Village has seen fit to bring Sanford Russell back into our midst. His is not well, however, has been bleeding from the lungs from singing too hard, but is slowly improving." In 1885 was a widower living in another state.[473]

411 x. Lydia Russell, b. 6 June 1820; d. Mantua Station, Ohio, 7 Sept. 1868; buried Evergreen Cemetery, Streetsboro; res. North Union Second Family 1850, aged 30 yrs.; later left the Society.

412 xi. Roxanna Russell, b. 9 June 1822; d. Mill Family, North Union, 25 Mch. [Nov.?] 1852, aged 29 yrs., of consumption.

170. ELISHA[5] RUSSELL was born at Windsor, Conn., 14 November 1779 and baptized in June 1780, son of Jacob and Esther (Dunham) Russell.[114] He died at the North Union Shaker Society, Warrensville Township, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, 15 October 1862, "old age and dropsy," aged 82 yrs. 11 mos. 1 day; buried in North Union Burying Ground, 4th row, 8th stone from the south.[473] He married at Windsor, Conn., 2 [or 4?] June 1803 to LYDIA "BETSEY" ELLSWORTH.[114] She was born 18 August 1775, and died at the Center Family, North Union, 29 June 1839, "lung fever," aged 63 yrs. 10 mos. 28 days; her gravestone, the only marble stone in the North Union Burying Ground, was "erected by her daughters in memory of a dear mother," and was re-erected by the Shaker Historical Society in 1949 to mark the common grave in which the Shakers had been reinterred in Warrensville West Cemetery at 3467 Lee Road, Shaker Heights.[473]

They accompanied his parents from Windsor, Conn., to Warrensville, in the Western Reserve, Ohio, in 1812.[473] By deed dated 13 February 1815 he paid $125 to his father for 100 acres from west part of lot 34 in Warrensville Township.[485] On 18 February 1822 he paid $400 to Auren and Saram M. Knapp of Geneva, Ashtabula County, Ohio, for 155-acre lot 33 in Warrensville Township.[486] On 10 April 1822 he joined his brothers in founding the North Union Shaker Society on their properties at Warrensville. He and his family were "among the first to receive the testimony of the gospel," and he and his wife were appointed First Legal Trustees of the Society.[473] On 8 August 1822 he and his siblings, heirs of their father Jacob, agreed to the division of Jacob's land in Stark County, Ohio, Elisha's share being 18 acres 115 rods.[255] Of Warrensville he advertised in the Cleveland newspaper 2 December 1825, offering $25 reward for return of a stolen mare. In 1827 he was North Union Shop Deacon, and used the south end of the frame blacksmith shop as a wagon shop. He had few equals in muscular strength, though as a young man he had cut his knee joint which gave him a stiff leg for the rest of his life.[473]

By deed dated 9 May 1828, of Warrensville, he paid $100 to George W. and Rachel Cotton of Sheffield, Lorain County, Ohio, for 36 acres in lot 33 in Warrensville Township.[487] On 20 September 1828 he and wife Lydia sold 100 acres in the west part of lot 34 and 100 acres in the east part of lot 33 for $1800 to the United Society [Shakers], headquartered at Union Village, Ohio.[487] On 1 June 1829 he sold a life lease to 36 acres in northwest corner of lot 44 to Benjamin and Polly Sawyer of Warrensville for $50.[488] On 22 September

1829 they sold 36 acres in the northwest corner of lot 33 to the United Society [Shakers] for $100.[489] For a map showing the location of these lots, see his father's account. Elisha was a party to many other deeds in Cuyahoga County.[490]

On 4 February 1833 Elisha advertised in the Cleveland newspaper for flax seed. According the the Prescott Manuscript, entry dated 30 March 1837, "Brother Elisha Russell has been relieved of some of his duties. He is a man of tremendous activity. But, like his brother Return, he never knows when to stop and often overdoes. Besides being a farmer at our community, he is Deacon of the wagon shop and responsible for all wagons, carts, buggies, sleighs, and sleds, and the like built there. Then too, he carries a trustee-ship. Although still very active, Elisha is in his sixties and felt he should be somewhat relieved. He is to retain his trustee duties such as purchasing new land, paying taxes, and auditing all accounts and the like."[473]

In [June?] 1837 "Elisha and Lydia Russell were appointed as Elder and Eldress of the Mill Family at this time." "On 3 December 1837 the Middle Family was organized by appointing them as Leaders, although there had been something of a family kept up from the beginning, it then began to assume the form of a regular organized family." On 13 June 1842 Elisha was appointed Office Trustee; removed as Office Trustee 31 July 1843; re-appointed 14 September 1846. In 1844 "Brother Elisha Russell has been appointed to live at the Office and meet and advise all strangers who call and consult with those who wish to join." In 1852 he was living at the Center Family, which is where he died ten years later.[473]

Elisha and Lydia "Betsey" (Ellsworth) Russell had the following children:[473,477]

413 i. Mary E. Russell, b. Windsor, Conn., 12 May 1804; d. 13 May 1881; buried Pittsfield, Mass.; left Shaker Society and m. Truman Bagg.

414 ii. Candace Russell, b. Windsor, Conn., 23 Feb. 1806; d. 172. SAMUEL[5] RUSSELL was born at West Windsor, Conn., 15 January 1783 and baptized 13 December 1782 [sic], son of Jacob and Esther (Dunham) Russell.[110,114] He died at Aurora, Portage County, Ohio, 8 June 1853, aged 70 years,[114] and is buried in Plainview Cemetery there.[483] On 28 February 1805 he married HEPSABETH ELLSWORTH.[114] She was born in Conn. 30 August 1785 and died at Aurora, Ohio, 6 February 1837, aged 52 years.[483]

At the age of 22 year he settled at Chester, Hampden County, Mass., where in 1810 he was head of family, age 26 to 44, with wife 16 to 25, one boy 10 to 15, one girl and one boy under age 10.[239] On 26 February 1811 he was among the incorporators of the Chester First Baptist Church.[466]

In 1811 they settled at Aurora, Ohio, in the Western Reserve. They were among the first 200 members of the Aurora Disciples Church, and they are buried in the churchyard two miles south of Aurora Center [now called the Mennonite Church].[483] During the War of 1812 he served as a Private in Captain Harmon's Portage County Company.[493] In 1827 he paid $4.17 tax on his 149-acre farm in lots 21 and 24 in Aurora Township, and $2.05 tax on his personal property.[494] He was head of family in Aurora Township in 1830, age 40 to 49, with wife 30 to 39, female 15 to 19, boy 10 to 14, and boy 5 to 9. By deed dated 15 April 1837 Samuel Russell of Aurora and [son-in-law] Luther Russell of Streetsboro paid $1700 to Samuel Russell, Jr., and wife Carolina of Aurora, for 123-3/4-acre part of lot 46, Lord Tract #1, Bainbridge Township, Geauga County, Ohio.[495] In 1850 Samuel, age 68, born in Conn., was head of family at Aurora Township.

Samuel and Hepsabeth (Ellsworth) Russell had the following children:[477]

418 i. Polly E. Russell, b. Chester, Mass., 25 Mch. 1806; d. Streetsboro, Ohio, 9 Sept. 1898; m. Aurora, Ohio, 13 Mch. 1828, Luther[6] Russell [no. 402 below].

175. RALPH[5] RUSSELL was born at Windsor Locks, Conn., 3 August 1789, son of Jacob and Esther (Dunham) Russell.[105,114] He died at Bentleyville, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, 8 December 1866, aged 78 years, and is buried with his wife in their family burial ground on Liberty Road, Bentleyville.[496] Of Warrensville, Ohio, he returned to New England to marry LAURA ELLSWORTH at Chester, Hampden County, Mass., 8 January 1818.[497] She was born at Windsor, Conn., 29 November 1795 and baptized 7 February 1796, daughter of Hezekiah and Laurana (Loomis) Ellsworth, who settled at Chester, Mass.[497] She died at Bentleyville, Ohio, 8 April 1858, aged 62 years.[114]

In the Spring of 1812 Ralph and his brother Elijah traveled from their home in Windsor Locks, Conn., to the Western Reserve in Ohio to clear their father's land in Warrensville Township, Cuyahoga County. They planted corn and built a log cabin, returned to Windsor Locks, and in August 1812 assisted in the family's migration to Ohio.[474]

Ralph served in the War of 1812 from Geauga County, Ohio, as a Private in Captain Clark Parker's Company, December 1812 to 27 February 1813 and 22 August 1813 to 2 October 1813.[498] By deed dated 13 April 1816 he paid $300 to his father for 59 acres from the east part of lot 34 and 55 acres from the southwest part of lot 23 in Warrensville Township.[499] In 1819 he was Warrensville Township Trustee. On 8 August 1822 he and his siblings agreed to a division of their father's land in Stark County, Ohio, Ralph's share being 6 acres 95 rods.[255]

In 1820, on his way to visit relatives near Stow, Ohio, Ralph spent the night at the home of James Darrow, a recently converted Shaker soon to move to Union Village, Ohio. Darrow explained the Shaker religion and way of life to Ralph, who was a stranger to him. This led to Ralph traveling on foot to Union Village in the Fall of 1821, where he confessed his sins, and invited the Shakers to send missionaries to Warrensville, "believing that God had a people in his neighborhood." In March 1822 Shakers James Hodge and Richard Pelham journeyed to Warrensville. Ralph had kept his faith and was ready to receive them, and his wife seemed to be a good little woman and treated them kindly. Ralph felt very strong and was certain that the gospel would be established on his farm and on the others adjoining. His reason for his assurance was the evidence of a vision he had seen, a strong clear ray of light proceeding from Union Village in a perfectly straight horizontal line until it reached a spot near his dwelling, and there it rose up in a strong column and became a beautiful tree.[473]

Two of his brothers, Elijah and Elisha, who owned farms adjoining his, united with him and became Shakers, together with their wives and older children. A fourth brother, Ebenezer Rodney Russell, who owned land nearby and lived with his mother at Ralph's home, also joined them, as well as their neighbors Riley Honey and Chester Risley. For a time Ralph was the active and efficient leader of the North Union Shaker Society. It was said that he "was a burning and shining light." With the coming of Ashbel Kitchell, a great leader, Ralph's influence decreased. Between 1826 and 1830 Ralph and his family withdrew from the Society. He later became a member of the Spiritualist Church.[473]

By deed dated 20 September 1828 Ralph and Laura sold 59 acres in the east part of lot 34, Warrensville, to the Union Village Shakers for $200.[500] By deed dated 6 August 1829 he sold to his brother-in-law Joseph Pelton of Euclid, the remainder of his Warrensville land, 55 acres in lot 23, for $550.[501]

In 1829 or early 1830 they left Warrensville and lived for a short time in Aurora Township, Portage County, Ohio, where he had relatives, and where his household was listed in the 1830 census, with four sons?[502] In about 1831 they settled at Griffithsburg [now Bentleyville] Solon Township, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, where he purchased land and had a farm on both sides of the Chagrin River, including lot 23 in Solon Township.[503] The family graveyard on lot 23 became a Union Cemetery. In 1958 a local Boy Scouts troop cleared the cemetery, and set the gravestones upright again.

Ralph Russell entered a bounty land claim #161,492 under the Act of 3 March 1855, which the Pension Office acknowledge receipt of 9 June 1855.

RALPH RUSSELL LAURA RUSSELL

Ralph's will was dated at Chagrin Falls 19 February 1855. In it he explained that on 31 December 1852 he had conveyed: to the heirs of his son Ralph E., 50 acres from the northwest corner of lot 23, tract 1, Solon Township; and to son Jacob H., 33-2/3 acres from the southwest corner of said lot, as well as about $120; and to son Hezekiah L., 31 acres from the southeast corner of said lot. In his will he stated that he considers these grants to be their full and equitable share of his land and chattels. The remaining north middle part of lot 23 and one acre from lot 10 (which he purchased from Martha Steele) he gives to his wife Laura and sons Andrew and Joseph, together with all his personal property. His wife Laura and Joseph Pelton of Euclid are appointed co-executors. A codicil was dated 14 August 1858, after his wife Laura's death. He there mentioned that he had deeded to son Andrew 3/8ths of real estate in lot 23, and therefore devises unto son Joseph 4/8ths of the 5/8ths of the land remaining, and the remaining 1/8th to son Andrew. His personal property is to be divided equally between Andrew and Joseph. By addenda dated 15 August 1858 he appointed Joseph Pelton of Euclid, Ohio, as sole executor. [Pelton was his brother-in-law.] His cousin Hezekiah Russell witnessed the will at Chagrin Falls.[504]

The will was probated 27 April 1867. Charles H. Hubbell of Chagrin Falls verified the signature of witness Hezekiah Russell. Executor Joseph Pelton's report to the Court stated that the claims of Eugene Russell for $30 funeral expenses and the 18th District Tax Collector for $12.65 excise tax had been paid, and begged to be finally discharged from all further proceedings.[504]

Ralph and Laura (Ellsworth) Russell had the following children, all born in Ohio:[114,477,496]

+ 424 i. Ralph Ellsworth Russell, b. Warrensville, 27 Nov. 1818.

+ 425 ii. Jacob Huffman Russell, b. Warrensville, 25 Jan. 1820.

179. EBENEZER RODNEY[5] RUSSELL was born at Windsor Locks, Conn., 15 May 1796, youngest child of Jacob and Esther (Dunham) Russell.[114,477] He died of kidney and heart disease at the Center Family, North Union Shaker Society, Warrensville, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, 3 September 1880, aged 84 years, and was buried in the Shaker Burial Ground there.[473] Never married.

On 13 February 1815 he witnessed a deed at Warrensville, Ohio.[485] By deed dated 13 April 1816 he paid $300 to his father for 100 acres from the west side of lot 92 in Warrensville Township.[506] On 8 August 1822 he and his siblings agreed to the division of his father's land in Stark County, Ohio, his share being 6 acres 95 rods.[255]

He joined with his brothers when the North Union Shaker Society was established on the family farms at Warrensville in 1822.[473] By deed dated 8 November 1827 and mortgage deed dated 29 May 1829, he conveyed the 100 acres in lot 92 to John and Ann Kelley of Warrensville.[507] He was a Warrensville Township Trustee in 1821. At North Union he was a herdsman, farmer, and shoemaker. In 1852 he was Center Family Deacon.[473]

180. ROSWELL[5] RUSSELL was born at Southwick District, Westfield, Hampshire [now Hampden] County, Mass., 24 March

1772, the first child of Stephen and Eleanor (Fowler) Russell,[276] who moved to Colebrook, Litchfield County, Conn., in 1783.[261] Possibly at Colchester, Conn., in about 1797, he married ELIZABETH CARRIER. She was born at Colchester 22 November 1778, a daughter of Isaac and Elizabeth (Adams) Carrier, who settled at Liberty, N.Y., in 1796. After Roswell's death she married, second, at Caledonia, N.Y., Abram Grant, a widower with children. She died in July 1841.

By deeds dated 23 April and 19 December 1793 Roswell purchased land with a dwelling house at Colebrook, Conn., from his father.[271-2] In 1795 the entire family settled in Lumberland, Ulster [later Liberty, Sullivan] County, New York, on lot 12 near the Larabee family (first settlers of Liberty).[508] Roswell was head of family at Lumberland in 1800, he [sic] and wife aged 16 to 25, two men 16 to 25, and three girls under age 10.[275] By deed dated 1 April 1802 he and brother John and Elijah Carrier of Lumberland paid $150 for 50-acre lot 8, in subdivision 8, 4th allotment, great lot 3, Lumberland Township.[509] On 1 October 1803 the three men, all of Lumberland, bought more land from Elizabeth Hardenbergh of Rochester, Ulster County.[510] By deed dated 23 July 1804 Roswell and wife Elizabeth, with Elijah Carrier and wife Julia, sold 154 acres to John Russell of Lumberland for $333.[511]

In 1804 there were only two houses in Liberty Village, one occupied by Roswell and John Russell, the other by Isaac and Elijah Carrier.[512] In partnership with Isaac Carrier's sons Asa, Elijah, and Isaac Jr., Roswell and John Russell carried on a carpentry business, building nearly all of the frame houses and barns of that period in Liberty [formed from Lumberland in 1807]. In 1800 Roswell kept a tavern, the first inn at Liberty. In 1807 he commenced settlement at nearby Liberty Falls, and built a saw mill there, selling it in 1808. The first Liberty town meeting convened 7 April 1807 in Roswell's house, and he was elected Constable and Collector. On 3 October 1807 Roswell, Elizur, and John Russell were jurors in Liberty Town.[508]

By deed dated 11 March 1805 Roswell paid $851 to John Russell and Elijah Carrier and wife Julia for 50 acres.[513] By deed dated 4 July 1808 Roswell and wife Elizabeth of Liberty sold the south half of lot 8 to Luther Buckley for $200.[514] By mortgage deed dated 21 May 1810 Roswell and wife Elizabeth of Liberty granted to Ebenezer Carrier of Thompson 43 acres in lot 12.[515] Roswell was head of family in Liberty Township, Sullivan County, in 1810, he and wife aged 26 to 44, with one girl 10 to 15, two boys and three girls aged under 10.[516]

The family moved to Genesee County, New York, in about 1814.[517]

Roswell and Elizabeth (Carrier) Russell had the following children, all probably born in Lumberland [now Liberty], Ulster [Sullivan later] County, New York:

431 i. Lucinda Russell, b. 14 Sept. 1798 [twin]; m. Harlehigh Sage (1791-1844); res. Ripley Co., Ind.
432 ii. Lavina Russell, b. 14 Sept. 1798 [twin].
433 iii. Rutilla Russell, b. 1800.
+ 434 iv. Erastus Russell, b. Flat Neversink, Ulster [later Sullivan] Co., N.Y., 10 June 1802.
435 v. Frances/"Fanny" Russell, b. 1804; m. [--?--] Tibbets; had son Russell Tibbets.
436 vi. Marsha Russell, b. 1806.
437 vii. Dorcas Russell, b. 1808.
438 viii. Roswell Russell, Jr., b. 1810; m. Dearborn Co., Ind., 15 Oct. 1838, Emeline Jaquith; res. central Illinois; children included: Lucy, Fannie, and Myron Russell.[517]

181. JOHN HOUGH[5] RUSSELL was born at Southwick District, Westfield, Hampshire [now Hampden] County, Mass., 21 December 1773, son of Stephen and Eleanor (Fowler) Russell.[276] On 2 January 1805 he married ANNA GILBERT from Fairfield, Conn.

See brother Roswell's account [above] for the earliest records of John at Lumberland, Ulster County [later Liberty, Sullivan County], New York. By deed dated 4 November 1805 John and wife Anna of Lumberland sold part of lot 6 to Robert Young of Colchester, New London County, Conn., for $675.[518] By deed dated 25 May 1807 John Russell of Liberty, carpenter, paid $875 to Peter Van Burgh of Livingston for land in Sullivan County.[519] In April 1807 John and wife Ann of Liberty Town sold 20 acres adjoining Asa Carrier and Asa Baker in Liberty Town.[520] On 7 August 1807

John Russell of Liberty sold 60 acres to Pherris Reynolds.[521]

Anna Russell of Liberty was a member at the organization of the Neversink branch of Pleasant Valley Church in 1809.[522] In 1810 John was head of family in Liberty Township, aged 26 to 44, with wife 16 to 25, one boy 10 to 15, and two girls aged under 10.[523]

The family then moved to Chenango, Broome County, New York, where, by deed dated 6 February 1813, he sold 83 acres north of Liberty Falls and adjoining Calvin Russell and Asa Baker to Bradley and Anna Burr of Liberty.[524] He was head of family in Chenango in 1820, aged 45 or more, with wife aged 26 to 44, two girls 10 to 15, one boy 16 to 25, and one boy aged under 10; two males engaged in agriculture. By deed dated 5 November 1823 John Russell and wife Anna of Chenango sold land on the Orange and Sullivan Br. Turnpike, part of lot 3, subdivision 8, great lot 2, in Sullivan County to James Gildersleeve of Liberty for $1400.[525]

In 1827 John purchased land in Hartland Town, Township 15, Range 5, Niagara County, New York, from the Holland Land Company.[526] John was dead by October 1828 in Niagara County, in which month his widow Anna Russell and creditor Smith Darling petitioned for administration on John's estate, listing heirs as the widow, a son age 16, and a daughter age 13. The inventory and receipts were filed at the Surrogate Court.[527] In a quit claim deed dated 4 April 1833 Hiram Russell of Hartland, Niagara County, stated that he was heir-at-law of John Russell, deceased, and conveyed the farm lately owned and occupied by John Russell [as described above in the 1827 purchase].[526]

John Hough and Anna (Gilbert) Russell had the following surviving children. both probably born in Chenango, Broome County, New York:[527]

\+ 439 i. Hiram Russell, b. 1811-1812.
ii. [daughter], b. ca.1814-1815.

186. SAMUEL[5] RUSSELL was born at Southwick, Hampshire [now Hampden] County, Mass., 25 August 1783, son of Stephen and Eleanor (Fowler) Russell.[536] He died near Liberty, Union County, Indiana, 19 November 1837,[536] and is buried there. At Liberty, Ulster [later Sullivan] County, New York, on 12 January 1807, by John Martin, J.P., Samuel married AMY ROGERS.[536] She was born at Colchester, New London County, Conn., 9 November 1789,[538] daughter of Josiah and Catherine Rogers.[537] She died at the home of her eldest grandson, Oscar F. Meek, Philadelphia, Hancock County, Indiana, 18 October 1885, aged almost 96 years, and is buried in Hawkins Cemetery, lot 82, space 1.[538]

Samuel was head of family at Riga, Genesee County, New York, in 1810, he and wife aged 16 to 25, with one son aged under 10.[539] He was a freighter and owned a wagon and six horses.[538] During the War of 1812 he was pressed into service, entering Captain Elias Streeter's Company, New York Militia, at Riga 29 June 1812; served as a Private until 12 July 1812. He re-enlisted in the same company 20 December 1813, serving until 5 January 1814, when he was discharged.[536] His company marched to Buffalo at the time it was burned by the British.[536] His widow later recalled that he lost all his property [wagon?] during the burning, and was glad to escape with his life.[538]

By deed dated 4 August 1816 Samuel Russell of Colebrook leased to several men for 20 years his land at Colebrook.[540] In about 1818 his and other families went with teams to the Allegheny River above Pittsburgh, where they put their goods on rafts and floated down the Allegheny and Ohio Rivers to Cincinnati, a journey of several weeks' duration. They settled at Harrison, White Water Township, Hamilton County, Ohio, according to his widow's recollection.[541]

Samuel was head of family in Wayne Township, Butler County, Ohio, in 1820, he and wife aged 26 to 44 with two daughters aged under 10.[542] In 1827 he was fined 12½¢ in Henry County, Indiana.[543] By quit claim deed dated 10 February 1830, Samuel Russell of Indiana, conveyed his right as one of heirs-at-law of his late brother Phalarius Russell, to a farm in Royalton, Niagara County, New York.[544]

Samuel Russell's wife Amy was named among the children of Josiah Rogers, late of Becket, Berkshire County, Mass., in a petition for probate dated 5 April 1831.[545] According to her obituary, Amy had been a member of the M. E. Church since the time of her marriage in 1807, and, after Samuel's death in Union County, Indiana, in 1836 [sic, 1837], had made her home among her children and grandchildren in Carroll and Hancock Counties, Indiana.[538] In 1850 she was living in Carrollton Township, Carroll County.[546] In 1860 she was living there in the household of Nancy Hendrick.[547] On 13 April 1866, of Carrollton, she applied for bounty land, and was allowed 160 acres.[536] On 16 March 1871, of Philadelphia, Hancock County, she applied for a pension based on Samuel's War of 1812 service. Her application was disallowed by reason of insufficient length of service. In 1878 she lived at Darwin, Cass County, Indiana.[536]

Samuel and Amy (Rogers) Russell had the following children:[541]

440 i. Ransom Russell, b. Conn., 13 June 1808; d. Carrollton Twp., Carroll Co., Ind., 13 Feb. 1854; unmarried; buried Sharon Cemetery; res. Carrollton Twp. 1850, age 41, b. Conn.

441 ii. Julia Ann Russell, b. N.Y., 15 May 1811; d. Elk Co., Kans, 1894; m. Henry Co., Ind., 29 Apr. 1828, Joshua Meek; among first settlers of Greenfield, Hancock Co., Ind.; 7 children.[548]

442 iii. Elvira Russell, b. N.Y., 4 July 1813; m. Hancock Co., Ind., 26 Sept. 1833, William B. Martin; res. Center Twp., Hancock Co., Ind., 1860; 8 children.[549]

443 iv. Stephen Russell.

444 v. Nancy B. Russell, b. Ind.-Ohio border, 5 June 1822; d. Carrollton Twp., Carroll Co., Ind., 22 June 1882; buried Sharon Cemetery; m. (1) Liberty, Union Co., Ind., 14 Feb. 1839, George B. Hendrix (1815-1860); 8 children; m. (2) Carroll Co., Ind., 16 Apr. 1877, Joseph Billiard.[550]

187. PHALARIUS[5] RUSSELL was born at Colebrook, Litchfield County, Conn., 24 August 1786, son of Stephen and Eleanor (Fowler) Russell.[276] He died in Royalton Township, Niagara County, New York, shortly before February 1830.[544] His given name is variously spelled: Philarius, Polarus, Pelarus, and Philarcus.

By deed dated 19 March 1818 Philarius Russell of Niagara County paid $406.62 to David E. Evans, attorney for a group of Dutchmen from Amsterdam, Netherlands, for 125 acres in Township 14, Range 5, being the southeast parts of lots 3 and 5, section 4.[551] Phalarius Russell was head of family in Royalton Township, Niagara County, in 1820, he and wife aged 26 to 44, with two boys 10 to 15, and one boy and one girl aged under 10; he was a farmer, and lived near his brother-in-law Noah Brooks.[552] In Niagara County Surrogate Court Elizabeth Russell and Calvin Russell were bonded as administrators of the estate of Philarcus Russell, and the inventory of his estate was filed.[553] On 10 February 1830 the heirs, including [brother] Samuel Russell of Indiana, quit claimed to Benjamin T. Chase of Niagara County, the 125-acre parcel, excepting the 52½-acre part previously sold by Phalarcus to Noah Brooks.[544]

188. CALVIN[5] RUSSELL was born at Colebrook, Litchfield County, Conn., 23 July 1790, youngest son of Stephen and Eleanor (Fowler) Russell.[276] He died at Mecca, Trumbull County, Ohio, 7 October 1869, aged 79 yrs. 2 mos. 15 days, of old age, married, a farmer; and is buried in same lot with brother Elizur Russell in Mosquito Creek Cemetery, in Bazetta Township, Trumbull County.[554] In about 1813, probably in New York State, he married PATIENCE PORTER, said to have been born "near Bridgeport, Conn.," 11 February 1793, and to have died at Mecca, Ohio, 5 April 1880.[555]

In April 1807 Calvin witnessed his brother John Russell's deed at Liberty, Sullivan [old Ulster] County, New York.[520] In 1813 his brother John sold land north of Liberty Falls adjoining land of Calvin Russell and Asa Baker.[524] According to a family record, they lived at Caledonia, Livingston County, New York, at the birth of their first child in 1814, and were living at Royalton, Niagara County, by 1822, and at Lockport, Niagara County, 1824-1830.[555] Calvin was head of family at Royalton in 1830, with wife and another woman aged 30 to 39, he aged 40 to 49, and boy aged 15 to 19, boy and girl aged 10 to 14, boy and girl aged 5 to 9, and two boys aged under 5.[556] His sister Maracha Brooks and John A. Russell were also listed in Royalton then.

By deed dated 3 June 1833 Calvin and wife Patience Russell of Royalton sold 100 acres in Township 14, Range 4, to William Wall of Royalton.[557] By deed dated 10 May 1834 Calvin and Patience Russell, now of Trumbull County, Ohio, sold 100 acres in Niagara County Township 15, Range 4, to John McCormick of Ridgeway, Orleans County, New York.[558]

They were pioneer settlers of Bristolville, Bristol Township, Trumbull County, Ohio, before 1837.[559] He was head of family in Bristol Township in 1850, a farmer.

Calvin and Patience (Porter) Russell, according to a family record, had the following children, all born in New York State except the youngest:[555,560]

445 i. Alfred P. Russell, b. Caledonia, Livingston Co., N.Y., 22 Apr. 1814; d. Pierpont, Ashtabula Co., Ohio, 4 Nov. 1902; m. Trumbull Co., Ohio, 9 Mch. 1837, Sally Lucinda Payne of Vienna, Ohio; res. Ashtabula Co. 1870 with [children?] James, John, Cloette, Ellen, and Maggie Russell.[561]

192. ELIJAH PEMBER[5] RUSSELL was born at Windsor, Hartford County, Conn., 9 June 1790, son of Cornelius and Huldah (Pember) Russell.[278] He died at Rockford, Winnebago County, Illinois, 3 November 1874, and is buried in Greenwood Cemetery. He was married at Randolph, Orange County, Vermont, 12 September 1813, by the Rev. Tilton Eastman, BETSY EDSON.[278] She was born at Stafford, Conn., 18 February 1794, daughter of Eliah and Prudence (Whittaker) Edson.[565] She died at Rockford, Illinois, 28 August 1873, and is buried with husband.[566]

Elijah was head of family at Randolph, Orange County, Vermont, in 1820, he and wife aged 26 to 44, with one boy and two girls aged under 10; he was engaged in agriculture.[287] They lived at Northfield, Orange County, in 1828.[567] In 1837 he and wife were organizational members of the Randolph Methodist-Episcopal Church.[568] In 1850 Elijah, age 60, born Conn., a laborer, and wife Betsey, age 56, born in Vermont, were living with their son Cornelius at Wilmot, Merrimack County, New Hampshire.[569] In 1870 Elijah was head of family at Rockford, Illinois, age 80, born in Conn., a manufacturer of shoe lasts, real estate valued at $1800, personal property at $300; wife Betsy, age 76, born Conn. Living with them were: Mary Russell, age 36, born Vermont, a school teacher; and Emily Pate, age 35, born Wisconsin, housekeeper.[570] Their son Cornelius also lived at Rockford.

Elijah Pember and Betsy (Edson) Russell had the following children, all probably born in Randolph, Orange County, Vermont, unless otherwise specified:[278]

456 i. Lucia Maria Russell, b. 1814; d. Rockford, Ill., 12 Nov. 1887; m. Randolph, Vt., 13 Feb. 1834, Edmund Fish; both organizational members, Randolph M-E Church, 1837;[568] had child: Ann Elizabeth (Fish) Kennedy.[571]

457 ii. Laura S. Russell, b. ca.1815-1816; d. 19 Oct. 1844, aged 28 yrs.; buried Randolph Center Cemetery; wife of the Rev. P. N. Granger (1807-1866).[572]

458 iii. Horace Russell, b. ca.1818-1819; d. 31 July 1823, aged 4 yrs.; buried Randolph Center Cemetery.[572]

459 iv. Wyllys Russell, b. ca.1820-1821; d. 11 Aug. 1823, aged 2 yrs.; buried Randolph Center Cemetery.[572]

+ 460 v. Cornelius Russell, b. ca.1823-1824.

461 vi. Betsy Russell, b. Northfield, Vt., 1 Nov. 1828; d. St. Johnsbury, Vt., 14 Oct. 1902; of Randolph, m. at Andover, N.H., 2 Oct. 1848, John Milton Alvord of Brookfield, Vt.; five children (Adelaide Selma, Lucia Maria, George Russell, John Herbert, and Mary Helen Alvord).[573]

462 vii. Mary Russell [presumed to be their daughter], b. ca.1833-1834; res. with parents, Rockford, Ill., 1870, age 36, a schoolteacher.[570]

201. ALANSON[5] RUSSELL was born at Windsor, Hartford County, Conn., 22 April 1793, son of John and Martha (Thrall) Russell, who settled at Lorraine, Jefferson County, New York, in 1806.[291] He died at Cleveland, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, 20 May 1838, and was buried in the Old Erie Street Cemetery in downtown Cleveland.[575] At Lorraine, New York, 1 September 1813, he married NANCY CAULKINS of Lorraine.[576] She was born at Litchfield, Conn., 5 March 1794, daughter of Joel and Bethia (Barrows) Caulkins,[577] and died at Cleveland, Ohio, 22 September 1865.[575] She married, second, at Cleveland, 19 December 1840, Timothy Doan, and, third, at Cleveland, William Custead.[576]

By deed dated 12 August 1815 Alanson Russell and his brother-in-law John Caulkins, both of Lorraine, paid $300 to Hiram and Sally Brown of Lorraine for part of lot 34 (late in the possession of Ira Hitchcock).[578] On the same date they paid $20 to Isaac and Abigail Weston of Lorraine for land in Lorraine Town in great lot 34 adjoining the other land.[579] By deed dated 8 March 1816 Alanson and wife Nancy Russell, and John Caulkins, all of Lorraine, sold to Alanson's brother-in-law Thomas Hungerford of Lorraine for $500 and another deed for another $500, part of lot 34 in Lorraine Township, lately in the possession of Hiram Brown.[580] By deed dated 12 May 1824 Alanson's father John Russell of Lorraine paid $1000 to William and Mary Williams of Adams for 2 acres and 14 perches in great lot 53 and part of 54 in Adams Village, the premises now occupied by Alanson as a Tavern Stand.[293]

See the Jefferson County map in his father's account for location of the Tavern Stand at Adams. By deed dated 26 August 1828 Alanson Russell, now of Adams, paid $300 to his parents for the Tavern Stand lot in Adams Village, now occupied by him.[295] By deed dated 8 March 1831 Alanson Russell of Adams paid $210 to David and Eunice Merrill of Adams for 20 acres in the southeast subdivision of great lot 53 in Adams Town.[581] By deed dated 29 June 1831 he paid $672 to Micah and Betsey Sterling of Watertown for 56 acres in Adams Town.[582] By deed dated 23 May 1832 Alanson and Nancy of Adams sold to Elihu Morton of Adams for $125 all of the land attached to Russell's Tavern Stand in Adams Town.[583] By deed dated 1 May 1833 they sold to Enoch Blackstone of Adams for $2500 2 acres and 14 perches in great lot 53 and part of 54 in Adams Village.[584] By deed dated 12 June 1834 they sold to Sylvester Griswold of Adams for $1600 20 acres in part of the southeast subdivision of great lot 53 in Adams Town.[585]

According to family tradition, Alanson and his brother-in-law John Caulkins were partners in a general store at Lorraine, 1815-1824, and the store was destroyed by fire, after which he moved to Adams Village.

In 1834 they settled at Cleveland, Ohio, where their first home was a cabin on a site now occupied by the Cleveland Arcade between Euclid and Superior Avenues. In 1836 he established a tavern, catering business, and boarding house or hotel at 35 Water Street in downtown Cleveland.[586] The very detailed inventory of Alanson's personal property lists a considerable amount of furniture, appropriate to a small hotel or boarding house.[587] According to the first Cleveland Directory several unmarried business and professional men boarded there.[588]

The family plot in Old Erie Street Cemetery is marked by cornerstones only; there are no headstones or inscriptions. But the cemetery office record provides complete data about each burial there.[575]

Alanson and Nancy (Caulkins) Russell had the following children:[576]

463 i. Chester G. Russell, b. Lorraine, N.Y., ca.1814; d. Princeton, Bureau Co., Ill.; at Cleveland, July 1836, petitioned for license to keep a grocery store at their house on Water Street;[586] by deed dated 22 July 1841 he paid $1500 to Jane Ann Gray for lot 746 on Town Street, Columbus, Franklin Co., Ohio; mortgaged to Thomas P. Beach on 19 Aug. 1841; mortgage satisfied by sale of premises on 3 Sept. 1841.[589]

202. HEZEKIAH[5] RUSSELL was born at Windsor, Hartford County, Conn., 26 November 1796, son of John and Martha (Thrall) Russell, who settled at Lorraine, Jefferson County, New York, in 1806.[291] He died at Chagrin Falls, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, 9 September 1859, aged 62 years, and is buried in Evergreen Cemetery there.[496] Of Wysox, Bradford

County, Pennsylvania, he and ROZENA WICKIZER of Rome, same county, were married at Rome by Alvin T. Myer, J.P., on 1 January 1834.[592] She was born at Wysox 30 September 1807,[289] daughter of Jacob and Thankful (Green) Wickizer,[593] and died at Chagrin Falls, Ohio, 27 April 1898, aged 90 years.[496]

A cabinet maker at Lorraine, New York, Hezekiah settled in Bradford County, Pa., where he had numerous relatives. Following his marriage, they settled at Hinsdale, Cattaraugus County, New York. In 1837 they moved to Chagrin Falls, Ohio, where he built a furniture factory, store, and undertaking business, and all of his sons continued the furniture business.[594] In 1850 he was head of family there, age 54, a cabinet maker, $600 real estate value, with wife Rozena, age 44, born Pa., and six children ages 2 to 16.[595] In 1896 his widow was living with son George at Chagrin Falls.[503]

Hezekiah and Rozena (Wickizer) Russell had the following children, all born at Chagrin Falls, Ohio, except the first two:[289,477,496]

470 i. Martha Russell, b. Hinsdale, N.Y., 22 Oct. 1834; d. Chagrin Falls, Ohio, 16 Dec. 1917, aged 83 yrs.; m. (1) by Rev. E. H. Higbee, Free Will Baptist minister, 31 May 1858, James White; nine children; m. (2) Richard Richards (d. 28 Dec. 1892, aged 71; Evergreen Cemetery).

209. DANIEL[5] RUSSELL was born at Ellington, Conn., 25 September 1770, son of Hezekiah and Lydia (Grover) Russell.[596] He died at Orwell Township, Bradford County, Pennsylvania, 20 October 1851, aged 81 years, and is buried in 9th row, Orwell Valley Cemetery.[300] He first married at Ellington, Conn., 21 November 1791, MARY/"POLLY" CHUBBUCK.[596] She was born at Wareham, Mass., 26 May 1770, daughter of Ebenezer and Mary (Burgess) Chubbuck, who settled at Orwell. She died at Orwell 13 March 1820, and is buried with her husband.[300] Daniel married, second, 2 September 1820, RUTH CLARK. She was born in Conn., 27 April 1781, and died at Orwell 17 October 1863, aged 82 years, and is buried with Daniel.[300]

In the Spring of 1794 they moved from Ellington, Conn., to Shepard's Creek near Waverly, Tioga County, New York. They lived at Sheshequin on the Susquehanna River until the Summer of 1796, while he cleared the farm which he had purchased at Orwell Hill near Ransom's Corners. He was the first settler in the present township of Orwell in 1796, and remained there the rest of his life. His children all lived within five miles of the homestead, all but one having married.[596,597]

Daniel was head of family in Ulster Township, Luzerne County, Pennsylvania [later Orwell Township, Bradford County], in 1800, he and wife aged 26 to 44, with one boy 10 to 15, and one boy and three girls aged under 10. His brother Michael also lived there.[598] He was taxed at Orwell in 1804, and 1812-1813, was on the Orwell election poll list in 1812, and his wife was among the first members of the Orwell Congregational Church before 1811.[597] He was head of family in Orwell Township in 1810, with two men and one woman aged 26 to 44, one woman 16 to 25, one boy and two girls 10 to 15, and three boys and two girls aged under 10. He owned three horses, thirteen horned cattle, eight sheep, one loom, three wool or cotton wheels, three cards of wool or cotton, and wove 100 yards of cloth annually. He was listed at Orwell Township in the 1820 Census, a farmer, and in the 1830 and 1840 Censuses (next door to Aaron Chubbuck). In 1850 he, aged 80, and wife Ruth, aged 70, lived alone in Orwell. He was a farmer, with real estate valued at $1000. His son Nathaniel lived next door.[599]

On 1 November 1826 Daniel deeded a parcel of 4½ by 6½ rods as a cemetery to a number of named lot holders, thereby establishing the Orwell Valley Cemetery Association.[300]

Daniel and Mary (Chubbuck) Russell had the following children, all born in Orwell Township except the first two:

476 i. Mary/"Polly" Russell, b. Tolland or Ellington, Tolland Co., Conn., 29 Jan. 1794; d. Potterville, Bradford Co., Pa., 15 Aug. 1861; buried Darling Cemetery, Orwell Twp.; m. 22 May

She was buried in the Old Rome Cemetery on the Parks Farm, Bradford County, Pa. Later in his life Michael lived with his son Michael on Sugar Creek near Towanda, Bradford County, Pa., where he died in Burlington Township, and was buried in Pail Factory Cemetery.

They moved from Connecticut before 1800 and settled in what was then Ulster Township, Luzerne County, Pennsylvania, where Michael was head of family in 1800, he and wife aged 26 to 44, with another woman aged over 45, and three boys and one girl aged under 10. His brother Daniel also lived there then.[598] When Orwell Township was established from Ulster Township in 1802, Michael was elected one of the first supervisors, 1802-1804.[592] He was taxed there in 1804 and 1812-1813, and a voter in 1812.[597] He was head of family in Orwell Township in 1810, his household comprised of a man and woman aged 45 or more, a man and woman aged 26 to 44, and man aged 16 to 25, one boy 10 to 15, two boys and two girls aged under 10. He owned one card of cotton or wool, two wool or linen wheels, three horses, twelve horned cattle, and some sheep, and had made 100 yards of cloth in the past year, but did not own a loom.

By deed dated 29 January 1814 Micha Russell of Orwell Township sold 200 acres there for $700 to John and Amasa Dimmick of Orwell Township, bounded north by Micha Russell, Jr., east by John and Amasa Dimmick, south by Dan Russell, and west by unsettled land. By deed dated 11 January 1819 Michael Russell, now of Wysox Township, sold to Hezekiah Russell, 3rd, of Wysox Township, for $100, 37 acres in Wysox Township, bounded north by Michael Russell, Jr., east and west by unknown owner, and south by Samuel H. Gore.

In 1820 Michael was head of family in Wysox Township, Bradford County, a farmer, he and wife aged 45 or more, with two males aged 16 to 18, one female aged 16 to 25, one boy and one girl aged 10 to 15. He was back in Orwell Township for the 1830 Census, he and wife aged 50 to 59, with one man aged 20 to 29, living two houses away from Hezekiah Russell.

242. OLIVER NEWTON[5] RUSSELL was born at Springfield, Hampden County, Mass., 3 September 1801, son of Oliver and Nancy (Newton) Russell.[343] He died at Reading, Hillsdale County, Michigan, 30 October 1863, and is buried in Gleason Cemetery.[640] In about 1823 he married ESTHER DENSMORE.[343] She was born at Phelps, Ontario County, New York, 7 July 1807, a daughter of Asa and Betty (Wheat) Densmore.[641] She married, second, at Hillsdale County, Michigan, 18 April 1867, Melzer Walls, age 59, she age 59, both of Reading.[642] In 1880, still called Esther Russell, aged 73, she lived with daughter Silva Russell in Reading Township.[643] She died there 7 November 1889, and is buried in Gleason Cemetery.[640]

Oliver N. Russell was head of family in Barre Township, Orleans County, New York, in 1830, 1840, and 1850, according to the respective censuses.[643] By deed dated 17 October 1835, of Orleans County, he paid $223.63 to the Holland Land Company for 50 acres in lot 54, Township 14, Range 2, Orleans County.[644] In the 1850 Census he was listed as a farmer with real estate valued at $3500.[645] By deed dated 3 February 1853 Oliver N. and Esther Russell of Barre Township sold their 50-acre parcel in Orleans County.[646] Still of Orleans County, by deed dated 1 March 1853 he paid $1600 to Abram E. Beals of Reading, Hillsdale County, Michigan, for 160 acres in the northwest quarter of Section 34, Township 7 South, Range 4 West, in Hillsdale County.[647]

The family moved to Hillsdale County, Michigan, in 1853, having been preceded there by son Edmond in Autumn 1852. He cleared the wild land in the midst of a forest, and there passed the residue of his life in Reading Township. He had a large family of twelve children and was in most moderate financial circumstances.[343]

Called "Newton Russell," in 1860 he was head of family in Reading Township, aged 58 years, a farmer, personal estate valued at $1285, real estate at $4800, born in Mass., with wife Esther, aged 52 years, born in N.Y., and five children living at home, aged 12 to 21 years.[648]

Oliver Newton Russell of Hillsdale County died intestate, owning land in northwest quarter of Section 30 [sic]. Probate papers list his widow Esther and their children, all of whom signed various quit-claim agreements and other documents regarding settlement of the estate in 1866 and 1868.[649]

Oliver Newton and Esther (Densmore) Russell had the following children, all born in New York State:[343,642,649]

256. JETHRO[5] RUSSELL, JR., was born at Danvers, Essex County, Mass., 16 September 1764, son of Jethro and Hannah (Mackentire) Russell.[81] He died at Danville, Caledonia County, Vermont, 11 April 1833, aged 68 years, from injuries suffered in a fall over a staircase.[667] He married at Salem, Mass., 13 October 1788, SARAH HUTCHINSON.[58] She was born at Danvers 12 February 1762, daughter of Jeremy and Sarah (Putnam) Hutchinson.[81] She died at Danville, Vermont, 14 July 1815.[668]

Jethro Russell, Jr., settled at Danville, Caledonia County, Vermont, before 27 August 1788, on which date he purchased from Jonathan Elkins of Danville for £32 160 acres in the 2nd Division of Danville, financed by a mortgage which required Jethro to pay Elkins 75 gallons of rum on 24 October 1788 and 85 bushels of wheat on 1 January 1790.[669] Elkins, now of Peacham, Vermont, gave Jethro a mortgage release dated 19 February 1791.[670] By deed dated 27 May 1789 Jethro Russell of Danville sold to Joseph Russell of Middleton, Mass., both yeomen, for £24, 80-acre half of lot 50 in Danville Township 2nd Division.[671]

Jethro was back in Danvers for the 1790 Essex County Census in which his household was comprised of himself, his wife, and one boy. But he was permanently settled at Danville, Vermont, when the 1791 Census was enumerated there, by which time another adult male had been added to his household.

The journal of Jeremy Hutchinson (1738-1805) of Danvers recorded his visit to his son-in-law Jethro Russell at Danville in May and June 1793, and described Jethro's farm work.[672] On 29 February 1792 Jethro witnessed a land purchase by Joseph Russell.[673] On 7 June 1793 Jethro paid £37.10.0 to Nathaniel Chamberlain of Newbury, Vermont, for 100 acres in lot 59, 1st Division, Danville.[674] On 10 February 1795 he paid £37.10.0 to Ebenezer Hutchinson of Danvers, Mass., for 100 acres in Danville Township.[675] By deed dated 5 June 1795 he sold half of lot 50, 2nd Division, Danville, to his father Jethro Russell of Danvers for £30.[676] On 13 November 1798 he paid $50 to Richard Hutchings of Hamsted, New Hampshire, for 100 acres, lot 58, Danville.[677] On 17 November 1798 he sold this parcel, lying on Ives Creek, to Jeremy Hutchinson, Jr., of Danvers, Mass., for $300.[678] On 14 November 1799 he paid Jesse Leavenworth $50 for a gore of land between lot 50, 2nd Division, adjoining the land on which Jethro then lived.[679] On the same day Leavenworth paid $50 to Jethro for any right Jethro might have in land of Jonathan Elkins, except for lot 50 and the gore on which Jethro then lived.[680]

Jethro was head of family in Danville in 1800, 1810, and 1820.[681] He was mentioned in his father's wills in 1822 and 1829, in which his father cancelled a $100 loan to Jethro, Jr.[350]

Jethro and Sarah (Hutchinson) Russell had the following children, all recorded at Danville, Vermont:[682]

+ 575 i. Jeremiah Russell, b. Danvers, Mass., 18 Dec. 1788.
+ 576 ii. Elijah Russell, b. 8 Feb. 1792.
+ 577 iii. Melea Russell, b. 30 Mch. 1795.
578 iv. Sarah H. Russell, b. 15 Sept. 1797; d. Jan. 1821.
579 v. Hannah Russell, b. 15 Apr. 1799; bapt. Danvers 1st Congregational Church, 3 Aug. 1800;[81] m. Danville, 7 Oct. 1819, Jeremiah Walker of Danville.[682]
580 vi. Deborah Russell, b. 29 June 1800; m. Danville, 6 Dec. 1827, John McKoskey/McKaskey.[682]

691. Essex County, Mass., 1850 Census, Danvers, dwelling 692, family 948.

261. JOSEPH[5] RUSSELL was born about 15 February 1770;[79] probably at either Danvers or Middleton, Essex County, Mass., son of David and Rachel (Mackentire) Russell.[355] A cordwainer, he died of pulmonary consumption at Middleton on 14 July 1841, aged 71 yrs. 4 mos. 29 days.[79] He married at Danvers, Mass., by the Rev. Benjamin Wentworth, 18 December 1792, MARY PARKER of Danvers.[81] She died at Nashua, New Hampshire, 1 January 1844, aged 69 yrs.[79] They are buried in Merriam Cemetery at Middleton, Mass.

By deed dated 27 May 1789, Joseph Russell of Middleton, yeoman, bought from Jethro Russell of Danville, Caledonia County, Vermont, for £24, 80-acre half of lot 50, 2nd Division, Danville Town.[671] By deed dated 29 February 1792 he paid £40 to Claud Steward of Barnet, Vermont, farmer, for lot 23, 1st Division, Danville.[673] A cordwinder of Middleton, on 21 October 1794, he sold the lot 23 to Ebenezer Russell of Danville for £4.[684] His land at Danville was mentioned in a Peasly-Whitcher deed dated 3 November 1796, witnessed by Stephen Russell.[692] By deed dated 8 April 1797, Joseph Russell of Middleton, cordwinder, sold 80 acres in western part of lot 50, Danville, to David Russell of Middleton for $300; Stephen and Polley Russell witnesses.[353]

Joseph was a party to the following deeds in Essex County, Mass.: 24 March 1794, from Benjamin Fuller;[693] 10 April 1798, to Jacob Fuller;[694] 10 April 1799, to Jacob and Jerusha Fuller,[695] and to Daniel Fuller.[696]

Joseph and Mary (Parker) Russell had the following children, all born at Middleton, Mass.:[79]

599 i. Polly Russell, b. 6 Oct. 1793; d. 23 May 1796, aged 2y 8m.
600 ii. David Russell, b. 20 Aug. 1795; d. 18 May 1796, aged 9m.

268. ASA[5] RUSSELL was born at Danvers, Essex County, Mass., 16 October 1792, son of Benjamin and Hannah (Putnam) Russell.[81] He died at South Danvers, Mass., 19 April 1862.[698] He married, first, at Danvers 4 June 1816, SARAH FLINT of Middleton, Mass.[81] She was born at Middleton 8 September 1790, daughter of Jeremiah and Sarah Flint.[79] She died after 1850.[699] Asa married, second, after 1850, MARY M. [--?--], who survived him.[698]

They lived at Danvers in 1850. He was a farmer, aged 58 years, real estate value $6000, with wife Sarah, aged 60 years, both born in Mass. Living with them were two laborers and a woman.[699] Warren Russell (#594) lived next door.

The will of Asa Russell of South Danvers, yeoman, was dated 10 March 1862. To his wife Mary M. he bequeathed $1000 and use of household furniture and housekeeping goods, fire wood, part of dwelling house, the water well, and half of the income from his real estate. To his sister Betsey Hutchinson of Middleton he devised half of his real estate at his death, and the other half upon his wife's death. He bequeathed $500 to his nephew Levi H. Russell of Lynnfield Centre, and appointed him sole executor. The balance of his personal estate was bequeathed to his sister Betsey. Witnesses were Warren Russell, Henry A. Russell, and Nicholas S. Chick.

On 1 June 1862 Levi H. Russell of Lynnfield, trader, petitioned for probate of the will, listing the heirs-at-law as Betsy Hutchinson of Middleton, sister, and Silas and Elisha Jeffery of North Reading, nephews. The inventory was filed 11 August 1862, listing personal estate appraised at $3347 and real estate at $6065 (nine parcels including "homestead about 53 acres & buildings ... $2920"). The value of the personal estate was increased to $4793, according to an account filed 1 June 1865 by Levi H. Russell and approved by principal heir Betsy Hutchinson. The schedule of payments and disbursements showed the entire personal estate having been distributed, including $1060 to the widow, $500 to Levi H. Russell, and an additional $1426 awarded to the widow by referees.[698]

Asa and Sarah (Flint) Russell had a stillborn child at Danvers, 20 Sept. 1817.[81] He died without surviving issue.[698]

271. SYLVESTER[6] RUSSELL was born at Middlefield, Hampshire County, Mass., 10 February 1789, twin son of Gideon and Jemima (Alvord) Russell.[183] He is said to have died in Minnesota aged 80 to 85 years. He married at Huntsburg, Geauga County, Ohio, 9 December 1827, ELIZABETH BARKER (ALVORD) CHURCH of Huntsburg.[382] She was born at Westhampton, Hampshire County, Mass., 7 May 1802, illegitimate daughter of Cynthia Alvord.[364] She married, first, at Huntsburg in 1817, Asa Church.[364] She died at Braceville, Trumbull County, Ohio, 18 February 1849, and is buried in Huntsburg Cemetery.[363]

Of Chester, Geauga County, Ohio, on 30 October 1827 he paid $300 to Fordice Rust of Huntsburg for 100 acres in the west part of lot 44, Huntsburg Township.[700] He was head of family in Huntsburg Township in 1830, aged 40 to 49, with woman aged 20 to 29, one boy 10 to 14, one girl 5 to 9, and one girl and one boy under 5.[371] [This family composition suggests the possibility that he had an earlier marriage prior to his marriage in 1827.]

In 1838 they were living in Michigan, but soon returned to Ohio. After his wife's death in 1849, his younger children appear to have been farmed out in Geauga County, while he and his older sons lived at Braceville, Trumbull County, where he was head of family in 1850, aged 62 years, cheesebox maker, living with the William Cox family with his sons Sylvester and Asa Russell. In Geauga County on 10 January 1853 Samuel Bodman was appointed guardian of the youngest children Charles and Gideon Russell.[701]

Sylvester and Elizabeth (Alvord) Russell had the following children:[364]

613 i. Sylvester Russell, Jr., b. Huntsburg, Ohio, 6 Jan. 1829; m. Braceville, Ohio, 15 Sept. 1850, Sarah Ann Cox [daughter of William and Sarah Ann (Beebe) Cox of Braceville]; settled in Washington State.[702]

614 ii. Asa Russell, b. Huntsburg, Ohio, 16 Mch. 1831; blacksmith, living with father, Braceville, Ohio, 1850.

615 iii. Daniel Russell, b. 2 Mch. 1833.

616 iv. Jemima Russell, b. Ohio, 12 May 1835; living at Bainbridge Twp., Geauga Co., Ohio, 1850, with relative William R. Howard's family; m. [--?--] Bingham; res. Goleta, Calif., 1905.[364]

617 v. Cordelia Sarah Russell, b. Michigan, 2 May 1838; living at Huntsburg in 1850 with J. M. and Charlotte Clark family; m. Edward Loomis; res. Newbury, Ohio; at Mesopotamia, Ohio, in 1905.[365]

618 vi. Gideon Russell, b. Ohio, 9 Aug. 1840; living at Huntsburg in 1850 with Hiram Tucker family; killed in Battle of Cedar Mountain, Civil War, ca.1863; Sylvester Clapp appointed administrator of his estate, Huntsburg, 2 July 1863.[703]

619 vii. Charles Fourier Russell, b. Huntsburg, Ohio, 29 June 1844; res. Washington State.[364]

272. SYLVESTUS[6] RUSSELL was born at Middlefield, Hampshire County, Mass., 10 February 1789, twin son of Gideon, Jr., and Jemima (Alvord) Russell.[183] He died at Saybrook, Ashtabula County, Ohio, 17 March 1877, aged 88 yrs. 1 mo. 6 days, and is buried in Kirtland Cemetery.[375] He married, first, in Geauga County, Ohio, 12 June 1823, MARY/"POLLY" CROCKER,[382] She died at Kirtland, Lake County, Ohio, 5 August 1834, aged 36 years, and is buried with her husband in Kirtland Cemetery.[375] Sylvestus married, second, LOIS BOISE. She was born 28 February 1792 and died at Kirtland, 22 December 1863, aged 71 yrs. 9 mos. 23 days.[375]

Sylvestus was head of family at Kirtland, Lake Geauga Co., Ohio, in 1830, he and wife aged 40 to 49, with one son aged 5 to 9, and two daughter aged under 5.[371] [Lake County was established in 1840 from parts of Cuyahoga and Geauga counties.]

Sylvestus and Mary (Crocker) Russell had the following children born at Kirtland, Ohio:[704]

620 i. Sylvestus Russell, Jr., b. 1826; d. California, Aug. 1871; m. Olive [--?--] (she d. 1867); two children: William Francis Russell, Mary Augusta Russell (m. Leonard Alexander).

621 ii. Martha Russell, b. Aug. 1828; d. Kansas City, 5 Aug. 1902; m. 1866, Alfred G. Black (he d. Wooster, Ohio, 1870); two children: Elizabeth G. Black (1867-1871), Alfaretta Black (b. 1870; m. James VanCleve, Sept. 1892).

622 iii. Mary Jane Russell, b. 1830; d. Grand Junction, Colo., 7 July 1904; m. Kirtland, Ohio, 14 Oct. 1852, John Burris (he d. Saybrook, Ohio, 25 Mch. 1891); three children b. Willoughby, Ohio.[381]

+ 623 iv. William Crocker Russell, b. 10 Aug. 1831.

Sylvestus and Lois (Boise) Russell had one child:

624 v. Mary/"Polly" Cracilda Russell, b. Kirtland, Ohio, 8 Aug. 1836; unmarried; d. Grand Junction, Colo., ca.1910; buried Saybrook, Ohio.

274. WILLIAM[6] RUSSELL was born at Middlefield, Hampshire County, Mass., 8 December 1793, son of Gideon, Jr., and Jemima (Alvord) Russell.[705] In about 1824 he married CLARISSA HOWARD of Bainbridge, Geauga County, Ohio.[705] She was born at Washington, Berkshire County, Mass., 10 June 1799, daughter of Artemus and Submit (Russell) [no. 94 above] Howard. She died at Hartland, Waukesha County, Wisconsin, in 1876.[705]

Of Mentor, Geauga [now Lake] County, Ohio, yeoman, by deed dated 25 March 1816 he sold land in Russell Township to Nathaniel E. Matthews of Mentor.[706] This may have been a mortgage loan; Matthews and wife Orilla sold the land back to William on 25 March 1816.[707] By deed dated 3 May 1826 he and wife Clarissa of Chester [later Russell] Township, Geauga County, Ohio, sold 100 acres in lots 11 and 12 in Russell Township to his father Gideon Russell for $1500.[370] At the organization of Russell Township in 1827 he was elected first township treasurer.[368] He was head of family there in 1830, he and wife aged 30 to 39, with one boy 5 to 9, and two girls under 5.[371] By deed dated 8 September 1832 he and wife Clarissa, of Russell Township, sold 175 acres from the west parts of lots 11 and 12, Russell Township, to David C. Osborne of Bainbridge for $800.[708] By deed dated 23 April 1833 William, now of Bainbridge, paid $457.11 to William P. Walker and others of Lenox, Mass., for 152 acres in lot 20, Bainbridge Township, Geauga County; on 13 May 1833 they sold this parcel to Joseph North of Bainbridge for $914.22.[709] On the same date they purchased 100 acres in lot 6, Bainbridge Township, from George and Mary Smith of Bainbridge for $950.[710]

After 1833 they removed to Hartland Post Office, Merton Township, Waukesha County, Wisconsin.[705] He was head of family there in 1850, aged 54 years, a farmer, real estate valued at $3000, born in Mass.; wife Clarissa, aged 54 years, born in Mass.; and children Clarissa, Obed, and Ruby Russell.[711] In 1860 he was head of family there, aged 65, a farmer; wife Clarissa, aged 62, both born in Mass.; living with their son Gideon Russell.[712]

William and Clarissa (Howard) Russell had the following children, all born in Ohio:[705,711]

625 i. Gideon Russell, b. ca.1825; m. ca.1851, Barbara [--?--]; res. Illinois ca.1853; Hartland, Wisc., 1860, farmer, $6000 real estate, $1200 personal estate; wife Barbara, age 30, born Scotland; children: Oren (7, Ill.), William (4, Wisc.), and James (2, Wisc.).[712]

ii. [daughter], b. ca.1826-1827.

626 iii. Clarissa S. Russell, b. ca.1828-1829.

278. ALPHEUS[6] RUSSELL was born at Middlefield, Hampshire County, Mass., 27 May 1803, youngest son of Gideon, Jr., and Jemima (Alvord) Russell.[181] Died circa July 1852 "about 500 miles west of the Missouri River," probably near Cheyenne or Laramie, Wyoming, or "near the Black Hills." He married at Mantua, Portage County, Ohio, 16 October 1828, LUCY MALVINA SQUIRE.[713] She was born at Becket, Berkshire County, Mass., circa 1809, daughter of Dr. Ezekiel and Clarissa (Stewart) Squire, who settled at Mantua, Ohio, in 1816.[714] She died in Oregon in her 80s.

Alpheus Russell was head of family at Nelson, Portage County, Ohio, in 1830, he and wife aged 20 to 29, with one daughter aged under 5. In about 1831-1833 they settled in Illinois. In 1850 he was head of family at Oquawka, Henderson County, Illinois, aged 45 years, a physician, born in Mass., with wife Lucy, aged 40 years, born in Mass.; and six children, aged 2 to 19 years.

"On Thursday last [15 April 1852] Dr. Alpheus Russell, one of our oldest settlers, departed for Oregon. His entire family accompanied him. He was well outfitted; and we trust he will have a prosperous trip. The Doctor has promised us 'notes on the way,' which he can render very interesting." [From the Oquawka Spectator, 21 April 1852]

According to great-granddaughter Laura Pittendrigh's statement (1879): "I saw [Lucy (Squire) Russell] when she was in her early eighties at my grandmother's [Mary (Russell) Barrows]. ... She was noted for her knowledge of medicine and midwifery. ... [Alpheus Russell] was captain of the train as well as the physician, and was called to help another train with cholera. A few days later he returned, walking his horse and waving his people back, indicating he was also sick. His wife went out to him with bedding, and took care of him until he died. He was buried [as above]. A fire was burned over his grave to hide it from the Indians, who were on the warpath against the whites because they had brought them cholera. Great-grandmother wanted to return to Illinois, but no one was willing to accompany her. She had no choice but to come on to Oregon. It was said they left Ohio because of malaria, which they attributed to the swamps. They arrived in Oregon near where the town of Halsey now stands in September 1852. It snowed before Thanksgiving, an unusual occurrence, and before the fourth side of their log cabin was completed, so they hung rag carpeting over the open side. Grandmother Russell, George Hill, Ebenezer Hayes, and W. F. Barrows, my grandfather, who arrived the next year, built their cabins on adjoining corners for protection."[715]

Widow Lucy Russell claimed Oregon Donation Land, listing her birthplace, husband's name, and other information, her petition being signed by her sons-in-law Hill, Kendall, and Barrows.

Dr. Alpheus and Lucy Malvina (Squire) Russell had the following children,[715] all born in Illinois except the first:

629 i. Sarah Olivia Russell, b. Nelson, Ohio, ca.1830-1831; d. Oregon 1861; m. in Illinois, George Monroe Hill; settled near site of Halsey, Linn Co., Oregon; had daughter Laura Ellen Hill (m. Ebenezer Hayes, 1872).[715]

630 ii. Lucy J. Russell, b. ca.1832-1833; d. 1895; m. Benjamin F. Kendall; res. Union Co., Ore.

631 iii. Ebenezer Russell, b. ca.1834-1835; d. of smallpox at home of Isaac Rennison, Multnomah Co., Ore., ca.1861, aged 26 yrs.; m. ca.1857; soldier in Rogue River Indian War, 1856; had son Leander Russell, b. ca.1858-1859, living at Portland, Ore., 1870, aged 11 yrs.

632 iv. Mary Russell, b. ca.1836-1837; d. 1906; m. William F. Barrows.

633 v. Henry Russell, b. ca.1844-1845; unmarried; d. at home of sister Lucy Kendall, aged 19 (or 44?) yrs.

634 vi. Ellen Russell, b. ca.1847-1848; d. before settlement of father's estate in 1852.

279. ALPHEUS CLARK[6] RUSSELL was born at Middlefield, Hampshire County, Mass., 17 April 1795, son of Alpheus and Rebecca (Clark) Russell.[183] He died at Kirtland, Lake County, Ohio, 21 October 1861, aged 66 years, and is buried in Kirtland Cemetery.[375] He married at Becket, Berkshire County, Mass., 28 May 1818, ELIZABETH WATSON CONANT.[716] She was born at Becket 19 September 1792, daughter of George and Hannah (Walden) Conant.[716] She died at Kirtland, Ohio, 27 March 1865, aged 72 years, and is buried with husband.[375]

He and his wife were both school teachers before their marriage. They left Becket, Mass., on 25 June 1818, arriving at his uncle Abel Russell's at Mentor, Lake County, Ohio, 5 August 1818, and at Kirtland on 17 August 1818.[717] His wife was among the original members of Kirtland Presbyterian Church in 1818.[718] He was a farmer at Kirtland and taught at the Kirtland Colony and read sermons at the church 1819-1822.[717] He was a Justice of the Peace.[719] He resigned as Kirtland Township Clerk 7 May 1838. He was head of family there in 1830, he and wife aged 30 to 39, with one daughter aged 10 to 14, and one daughter and one son aged 5 to 9.[371]

Of Kirtland, by deed dated 9 October 1828 he paid $300 to Joseph Trumbull of Hartford, Conn., for 98.21 acres in Kirtland Township, being the same premises formerly contracted to Russell by General Henry Champion.[720] Of Kirtland, by deed dated 14 January 1830 he paid $200 to David and John Potes of Mentor for 60-acre part of lot 2, Hambden Township 9, Range 7, Geauga County.[721] Of Kirtland, by deed dated 30 January 1834 he and wife Elizabeth sold to Nottrup Sweet of Kirtland, for $140.89, the 60-acre parcel in lot 2, Hambden Township; Mary Russell a witness.[722] By deed dated 31 March 1834 he paid $300 to Elam and Lydia Fairchild of Kirtland for 30.69-acre south part of lot 12, Kirtland Township.[723] [Note: Lake County was established in 1840 from parts of Geauga and Cuyahoga counties.] Alpheus C. Russell was a party to other Geauga County Deeds.[724]

Alpheus Clark and Elizabeth Watson (Conant) Russell had the following children born at Kirtland, Geauga [now Lake] County, Ohio:[717]

635 i. Elizabeth Watson Russell, b. June 1819; attended Oberlin College 1838-1841; m. Oberlin, Ohio, 22 July 1842, Asa Dearborn Lord (b. Madrid, N.Y.; M.D., Willoughby, Ohio, Medical College, 1845); had daughter Elizabeth Lord (m. H. F. Tarbox, res. Batavia, N.Y., 1902).[717]

+ 636 ii. George Alpheus Russell, b. 7 Mch. 1821.

637 iii. Mary Rebecca Russell, b. ca.1823; unmarried; d. 11 Sept. 1853, aged 30 yrs; buried with parents.[375]

464. GEORGE HUNGERFORD[6] RUSSELL was born in Adams Village, Jefferson County, New York, 9 February 1817, son of Alanson and Nancy (Caulkins) Russell.[784] He died at his residence, 1384 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, of myelitis, 22 December 1888, aged 71 years, and is buried in his family lot in Lake View Cemetery.[784] He married at Cleveland, Ohio, 14 February 1849, OCTAVIA B. HOSKINS,[768] neice of his brother-in-law Thomas Bolton [see no. 467 above]. She was born at Leicester, Livingston County, New York, 17 March 1827, daughter of Leonard (1797-1865) and Mary (Bolton) (1801-1862) Hoskins of Hillsboro, Montgomery County, Illinois. She suffered a cerebral hemorrhage on 2 November 1914. After an illness of 1 month and 12 days, she died at the old family home at 7003 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, on 14 December 1914, aged 87 years, 8 months, 27 days. "Senility" is was shown on her death certificate as a contributory cause of death.[785] She is buried in the family lot at Lake View Cemetery.

He attended school at Belleville, New York, until the age of eleven years. From then until age 14 he was a pupil at the Rev. Avery's boarding school at Clinton, Oneida County, New York, where he took a two-year course in Latin, Greek, French, Algebra, and Geometry. At the age of 15 he became school-master at the Adams District School for two years at a salary of $10 per month.[784]

In 1834, when he was 17 years old, the family settled at Cleveland, Ohio, where he became a clerk in his father's hotel for three years. In 1838 he was co-administrator of his father's estate, and worked as a clerk in a clothing store at $25 per month. He studied bookkeeping and became a bookkeeper for the banking house of Prentiss, Bow & Co., and later for Hilliard, Hayes & Co., dry goods merchants. On 4 March 1842 he campaigned on the Bachelor's Ticket for the office of Cleveland Marshall, his platform being lakeshore protection and river improvement.[784]

In 1848 and 1849 he was an accountant, boarding on Superior Street. Following his marriage in 1849 he lived at 40 Bond Street and went into the forwarding and commission business along the Cuyahoga River at Cleveland.[784] In 1850 he was living in Ward 2, was a forwarding and commission merchant, aged 32 years, with wife Octavia, aged 23 years, both born in New York State.[786] In 1853 he was with the firm of Cobb, Bishop & Co., and lived at 26 Bond Street. In 1856 he was head of the firm of Russell & Greene, forwarding and commission merchants, with offices at 105 Dock Street and 206-207

River Street, and resided on Euclid Avenue.[784]

From 1856 until his death in 1888 he was Secretary and Treasurer of the Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati, and Indianapolis Railway (The Bee Line) and connected railroads, which was later integrated into the New York Central Railroad, at which time it was known as the Big Four Railroad.[784]

During the Civil War he built a large brick home on his farm at 7003 Euclid Avenue on the east side of Russell Avenue [now East 70th Street]. He was an enthusiastic angler and helped to organize and direct the Castalia Trout Club at the Blue Hole in Erie County, Ohio. He was a charter member of the Cleveland Grays (a gentlemen's quasi-militia organization headquartered in the Old Cleveland Armory), entering as Corporal and rising to the rank of Acting Lieutenant.[784] In 1880 he became the first Russell member of the Early Settler's Association of Cuyahoga County.[787]

His will was dated at Cleveland 25 June 1878 and probated 31 December 1888. His heirs were: widow Octavia Russell, sons George S. Russell of Cleveland and Carl S. Russell of Bessemer, Michigan, and daughters Nellie B. Mequillet (1126 16th St., Denver, Colo.), Hattie H. Streator (1384 Euclid Ave., Cleveland), and Emeline Russell Covell (Atlanta, Ga.). Son George was appointed executor. His personal estate was appraised at $1758.31.[788]

Octavia, whose childhood was spent in Lester and Portage, New York, and Hillsboro, Illinois, came to Cleveland in 1842. She was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, and was a member of the Board of Trustees of the Cleveland Protestant Orphanage [later called the Beechwood Children's Home]. After George's death she moved across Russell Avenue to the Colonial Apartments and her son George S. occupied the family home (which was razed in the mid-1940s and a McCarrell Oldsmobile showroom built on the site).

The diary of their daughter Harriet contains the following entry:[789]

> Dec. 14, 1914, Monday. They have moved Mother over from the Colonial to the old home. It was her request. Dr. Stevens carried her over in his arms. I found Mother much changed and difficult to understand, but she knew me and we visited for some time. After noon, she commenced to fail rapidly. It was very noticeable. Directly after dinner I went to her room. She smiled, but her breathing was bad. The last thing she said was, "Well, well, what shall we do now?" She repeated this several times quite distinctly. Marie and Elise and Flo soon came in. Her breathing became worse, although she did not seem to be suffering. We called George and the Doctor. She passed away quietly and quickly, and sweetly.

George Hungerford and Octavia B. (Hoskins) Russell had the following children, all born at Cleveland, Cuyahoga County, Ohio:[788]

+ 835 i. George Shelley Russell, b. 20 Nov. 1850.

836 ii. Nellie Bolton Russell, b. 1 July 1853; d. Cleveland, 4 Mch. 1914; m. Cleveland, 1875, Pierre Mequillet (1845-1893); three children [Russell Pierre Mequillet, Marie Mequillet, Elise R. (Mequillet) Staggs].

Appendix A - Nurse and Towne Families

FRANCIS NURSE, with his wife REBECCA TOWNE, is said to have emigrated from Yarmouth, County Norfolk, England. A tray maker and yeoman, he first appeared at Salem, Massachusetts, in 1640, aged 19 years. They were married there 24 August 1644. For some 40 years they lived near Skerry's on the North River, between the village of Salem and the ferry to Beverly. On 29 April 1678 he paid ₤400 to the Rev. James Allen for the 300-acre Townsend Bishop farm in present Tapleyville neighborhood at 149 Pine Street in Danvers, Mass. (See site #95 on the Map of Salem Village on page 5.)

NURSE HOUSE AT DANVERS

His wife Rebecca was accused of witchcraft, convicted, and hung on Gallows Hill at Salem 19 July 1692. Francis's will was made 4 December 1694, mentioning his four sons and four daughters, and his son-in-law William Russell. Francis died 22 November 1695, aged about 77 years. On 23 December 1695 his sons John and Samuel were appointed administrators of his estate, and William Russell was one of the sureties on their administration bond.

Francis and Rebecca (Towne) Nurse had the following children, all born at Salem:

i. John Nurse, b. ca.1645; d. 10 Dec. 1716; m. 1 Nov. 1672, Elizabeth Smith (1662-1673); m. (2) 17 Aug. 1677, Elizabeth Very.
